FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1827.

THE following Addresses, having been received by Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The joint Address of His Excellency Sir James Kempt, Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia and its Dependencies; of the Honourable His Majesty's Council; and of the House of Assembly, in their several Legislative Capacities, now sitting at Halifax.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, now convened in General Assembly, beg leave, on behalf of themselves and of the Inhabitants of this Province, humbly to approach the Throne, to offer their sincere condolence to your Majesty upon the afflicting event which has deprived your Majesty of a beloved and illustrious Member of your Royal Family.

The sentiments of loyalty and affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, which are deeply implanted in our bosoms, render it impossible for us not to participate in the grief which the death of your lamented Brother, His late Royal Highness the Duke of York, has diffused over the whole of your Majesty's widely extended empire; and we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that in no part of your dominions can the loss which the nation has sustained be more deeply deplored than in your loyal province of Nova Scotia.

Remote as we are from the capital of the empire where His late Royal Highness resided, and from whence he issued those orders and regulations for the government of the British army, which have made it the pride of our own and the wonder of other nations; we have, notwithstanding, long witnessed the good effects of the wisdom and benevolence by which he was actuated in the execution of the important command which was intrusted to him by his Sovereign.

During the long period of His late Royal Highness's command of the army, the routine of duty has occasioned a great number of the regiments in your Majesty's service to live for a time among us, and the exemplary conduct which they have invariably displayed, has redounded equally to their own honour and to that of the Commander in Chief by whose salutary regulations they were governed.

As we have thus been enabled to appreciate the value and the worth of this illustrious Prince, we truly feel and deeply lament the loss which your Majesty and your people have sustained by his death.

In behalf of the Council,

J. J. Blowers, President.

In behalf of the Assembly,

S. G. W. Archibald, Speaker.

Halifax, April 6, 1827.

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fourth, of Great Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of St. John, in New Brunswick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of St. John, for ourselves and your Majesty's other faithful subjects, the Inhabitants of the said City, impressed with heartfelt sorrow for the great loss your Majesty has sustained by the lamented death of your Majesty's Brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, beg leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere condolence on this melancholy event so truly afflicting to your Majesty, whose fraternal affection for His late Royal Highness has been through life so strongly manifested. While we thus most truly and humbly sympathise with your Majesty, we cannot refrain from expressing the grateful sense which we, in common with all your Majesty's other subjects, entertain of the important services rendered to the British nation by His late Royal Highness, not only while exposing his person in the field, but also while presiding over the army as Commander in Chief, a situation which was filled by him so much to his own honour and to the improvement of the discipline of the army.

Feeling how deeply afflicted your Majesty must be by the loss of a Brother so truly and deservedly beloved, we most fervently offer up our prayers to the Almighty to strengthen and support your Majesty under the severe trial, and to preserve your Majesty long to reign over a loyal and happy people.

Witness the common seal of the said city, the 9th day of April, in the year of our Lord 1827.

(Signed) John Robinson, Mayor.

By order of the Common Council,

(Signed) James Peters, jun. Common Clerk.

At a meeting of the Inhabitants of the county of York, in the province of New Brunswick, convened at Frederickton, the seat of Government, on the 4th day of April 1827, by the High Sheriff, for the purpose of preparing an Address of condolence to His Most Sacred Majesty King George the Fourth, upon the melancholy occasion of the death of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany; the Chief Justice being called to the chair, the following was proposed and unanimously agreed to, and his Honour requested to sign the same, in behalf of the Council, Clergy, Magistracy, Gentry, and Inhabitants generally:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of the county of York, in your Majesty's province of New Brunswick, convened at Frederickton, in the said county, the seat of Government, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, deeply impressed with sentiments of unfeigned sorrow, beg leave most respectfully to approach your sacred Majesty, and to express our sincere condolence on the melancholy event which has plunged your Majesty and the Royal Family, together with the whole Empire, in the most profound grief, by the death of your illustrious and beloved Brother, His late Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany.

Tho' distant from England we are ever animated with the warmest and most affectionate attachment to her as the land of our forefathers, with which we feel it our pride and happiness still to be connected under your Majesty's Government, and in whose prosperity or misfortunes we deeply participate. We feel, therefore, in common with the British nation, the irreparable loss sustained by the death of your Majesty's royal and lamented Brother, by whose comprehensive genius, unceasing attention, and indefatigable labours, the army was placed upon such an efficient footing, as enabled your Majesty successfully to resist the gigantic efforts of a military despotism on the Continent of Europe, and to restore peace and freedom to its oppressed Monarchs.

The name and title of our esteemed and departed Prince bestowed upon the seat of Government in this province, and upon this country, will ever be cherished by us with affection.

We farther most humbly beg leave to express our admiration of the public conduct of our deceased Prince, which uniformly evinced him to be the firm and undeviating supporter of the Constitution of his country; and whose prudence and conciliatory disposition in his political life endeared him to all parties, and obtained for him their admiration, attachment, and respect.

That Almighty God may temper to your sacred Majesty and the Royal Family, the decrees of his unerring wisdom, and that his mercies and his blessings may be shed abundantly around, and his gracious protection encompass your Majesty, is the sincere and fervent prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects.

(Signed) John Sanders, Chief Justice, Chairman.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Sturges Bourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Newark, venture to approach your Thorne at this almost unprecedented crisis of public affairs, to express our decided admiration of the magnanimity and firmness with which your Majesty has, on a late occasion, upheld the just prerogatives of the Crown.

We perceive alike your Majesty's tender care and concern for the welfare of your people, and resolute adherence to the principles of the Constitution, in selecting to preside over your Majesty's councils a Minister of your own free choice, in opposition to what appears to us to have been a preconcerted plan by some of your Majesty's servants, for coercing your Royal will, and placing the reins of power in their own hands. We humbly entreat your Majesty's acceptance of our heartiest concurrence in your Majesty's late decisive measures, and hope that your Majesty may always be enabled to manifest a similar firmness on every trying occasion. That you may long continue in health and strength to uphold the stability and prosperity of the British Empire, are the ardent wishes and fervent prayers of your Majesty's undersigned faithful and loyal subjects.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The affectionate and loyal Address of the undersigned Inhabitants of the Town of Rye, in the County of Sussex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, being Inhabitants of the ancient town and port of Rye (though deprived by the present Corporation of the enjoyment of the rights and privileges granted by the charters of our Kings to us, in common with the Cinque Ports) beg most humbly to express to your Majesty the feelings and sentiments which recent events have excited in our minds.

In doing this, we beg most humbly to state to your Majesty that we have long seen, with deep regret, the heavy distress which has pressed upon the middle and lower classes of your Majesty's subjects, which distress we can but consider chiefly attributable to the unwise and impolitic measures of those men who have so lately seceded from your Majesty's Councils.

That, according to the Constitution of this country, the King is the fountain of honour, we, your Majesty's subjects, have ever believed, and we therefore strongly deprecate the intentions of those persons who, as we believe, by seceding from your Majesty's Councils, would have endeavoured to restrict the prerogative of the Crown, by arrogating to themselves the right of dictating to your Majesty in the choice of those servants whom your Majesty may think fit to call to your Councils, a power and an importance they never can possess but through your Majesty's gracious will and favour.

That, in the present enlightened state of the people in your Majesty's dominions, we have long considered that none but men of the most enlarged minds and of the most liberal principles can guide the vessel of the State with safety through all the dangers that beset it: we therefore beg most sincerely to express our gratitude and congratulation at your Majesty's having placed the late Secretary for Foreign Affairs at the head of your Majesty's Government, and at the accession of so many liberal and able men to your Majesty's Councils, in the confident expectation that the future administration of the affairs of these realms will tend as well to the honour and security of your Majesty's reign, as to the peace and prosperity of the subjects of your Majesty's dominions.

Trusting that your Majesty will accept these as our expressions of unfeigned gratitude for the firmness and wisdom of your Majesty's measures, and also as a mark of our sincere attachment, and of our dutiful allegiance to your Majesty. We have the honour humbly to subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of Greenock, convened by the Magistrates, and in the Town-Hall assembled, on the 21st day of May 1827.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Inhabitants of Greenock, beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our unfeigned attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to offer our humble, but hearty congratulations, on occasion of your Majesty's most proper and constitutional exercise of prerogative in the formation of a new Administration.

Having witnessed with pleasure many recent improvements in the policy of the country, foreign and domestic, we cannot but rejoice to find called to your Majesty's Councils those men, by whom these improvements have been principally advocated, deriving thence the satisfactory assurance of the extension of a system congenial with the spirit of the age, essential to the prosperity of the country, and such as is calculated to render your Majesty's Government respected abroad, and beloved at home.

We pray that your Majesty may long live to reign in the hearts of an affectionate, a loyal, and happy people.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

Wm. Leitch, Chief Magistrate, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Wm. Leitch, Esq. Chief Magistrate.]

Unto His Most Gracious Majesty George, KING of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Convener, Deacons of Trades, and Remanent Members of the Nine Incorporated Trades of Dundee, in Common Hall assembled, beg leave to express our unalterable loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our gratitude for the many blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's reign. We beg leave sincerely to congratulate your Majesty upon the firmness displayed by your Majesty when deserted by your late Ministers; and we are desirous, at this time, to express our deep sense of the obligations your Majesty has conferred upon your dutiful subjects, by taking into your confidence and councils those individuals who are possessed of the confidence of the country, and whose talents and liberal political principles have pointed them out to your Majesty, as the fittest instruments for carrying into effect those salutary measures of freedom in our commercial intercourse with foreign nations, and of reform and retrenchments in the various departments of our own Government, so ardently desired by your Majesty, as well as by your Majesty's loyal subjects. Such measures alone can remove or alleviate those sufferings under which your loyal and affectionate subjects at present labour, and recall prosperity to a nation, whose most fervent prayers are, that your Majesty may long reign over a free, a happy and united people.

Signed and sealed in the name and by the authority of the meeting.

[Transmitted by David Scott, Esq. Convener.]

Whitehall, May 31, 1827.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Reverend Edward Marshall, of Ifley and of Church Enstone, in the county of Oxford, some time Fellow of Oriol College, in the University of Oxford, His royal licence and authority, that he may, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of Thomas-Nicholas Perry-Hacker, late of Churchill, in the county of Oxford, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Hacker, in addition to and after that of Marshall, and also bear the arms of Hacker; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 31, 1827.

The King has been pleased to grant to the Right Reverend Father in God John Banks, Bishop of St. David's, the Deanery of the Cathedral Church of Durham, void by the death of Dr. Charles Henry Hall, late Dean thereof.

Whitehall, May 30, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that about half past nine o'clock on Saturday night the 12th instant, as Mr. James Ashenden, a miller, of Chartham, in the county of Kent, and Overseer of that parish, was returning home on horseback from Canterbury market, he saw two men standing by the bank side of the turnpike road at Cockering Bottom, about two miles from Canterbury, one of whom, as he was passing them at a brisk pace, shot at him with a blunderbuss or short gun, and wounded him in several places in the left arm; and the other man immediately afterwards discharged a pistol at him, but without effect;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the gun or blunderbuss) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. STURGES BOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered (to be paid by Mr. Charles Sandys, solicitor, Canterbury) to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, May 30, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Saturday night the 26th instant, or early on the following Sunday morning, some evil-disposed person or persons did enter a sheep fold, and therein wilfully and maliciously kill nine ewe sheep and five lambs, and dreadfully maim several others, the property of William Mansfield, sen. of Caversfield, Bucks; and on the same night or morning entered his garden, and destroyed, by pulling up and damaging, all the fruit trees, vegetables, &c. therein growing; besides forcing down about forty yards in length of the wall; likewise throwing a quantity of large stones in at the chamber windows of the dwelling-house, breaking several panes of glass, and thereby endangering the lives of himself and family;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually killed and maimed the sheep and lambs) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. STURGES BOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said William Mansfield, sen. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

PURSUANT to the 40th Geo. 3rd, commonly called the School of Physic Act, notice is hereby given, that the King's Professorship of the Institutes of Medicine, on the foundation of Sir Patrick Dun, is now vacant, in consequence of the death of the late William Stack, Bachelor in Medicine, and that on Tuesday the 2d day of October next, at twelve o'clock, the Electors appointed by and in virtue of said Act, will proceed to the election of a Professor of the Institutes of Medicine, in the room of the said William Stack, Bachelor in Medicine, deceased, at the house of the Provost of Trinity College, in the city of Dublin. The emoluments of said Professorship consist of such fees for lectures as may be regulated by the President and Fellows of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland; said fees being at present, four guineas paid by each Student for attendance on each course of lectures on the Institutes of Medicine; and of three guineas paid by each Student for each course of Clinical Lectures; and of a fixed annual salary of one hundred pounds, late Irish currency. Said Professorship is open to persons of all nations, professing their faith in Christ, provided they shall have taken medical degrees, or shall have obtained a licence to practice from the said College of Physicians, in consequence of a testimonium under the seal of Trinity College, Dublin.

All persons intending to offer themselves as Candidates must send in their names, with the places of their education, the Universities in which they have taken their medical degrees, and the places where they have practiced, both to the Register of Trinity College, Dublin, and to the Register of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland, to be by them laid before the two Colleges respectively.

Robert Phipps, Register, Trinity College, Dublin.

Jonathan Osborne, M. B. Register of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland, 63, Harcourt-street, Dublin.

London, June 1, 1827.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Court of the Corporation called the Governor and Company for working of Mines, Minerals, and Metals, in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, will be held at the Sun Fire-Office, in Bank-street, Cornhill, on Thursday the 5th day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon, to consider of a dividend; and that the transfer-books will be shut on Thursday the 21st instant.

John Richards, Clerk.

CONTRACT FOR NEWCASTLE CROWN AND GREEN GLASS.

Navy-Office, May 21, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 7th of June next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, and Sheerness with Newcastle Crown and Green Glass in Crates.

Samples of the glass, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith

East India-House, May 30, 1827.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready, on or at any time before Wednesday the 13th day of June next, to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company, at their House and Warehouses, with

Five hundred Chaldrons of the best Coals, of the following descriptions, viz.

Willington,
Heaton Main,
Killingworth, and Hebburn Main;

And that the conditions of the contract may be seen, and printed forms of tender may be had, upon application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the said 13th day of June next, after which hour no tender will be received.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.
