

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JUNE 5, 1827.

THE following Addresses, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Sturges Bourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the several persons whose names are respectively subjoined to each Address, were presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Citizens and Inhabitants of the ancient City of Rochester, in Common Hall assembled, beg most respectfully to assure your Majesty of our unalterable attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

We humbly approach your Throne with the warmest thanks and congratulations for the firmness which your Majesty has manifested in the formation of the Ministry, and to declare our determination to support your Majesty in the exercise of your just prerogatives, being fully sensible that the preservation of your Majesty's rights is the best security for the enjoyment of our own.

We also thank your Majesty on having retained in office those Ministers who have avowed themselves friends to a liberal policy, and that your Majesty has further been graciously pleased to call to your Counsels persons in whom the country entertain a just confidence; and we most fully anticipate that every part of the Empire will be benefited and united by the wisdom of their deliberations.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over a free people, is the prayer of your Majesty's faithful Citizens and Inhabitants of Rochester.

T. Saunders, Mayor of Rochester, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Ralph Bernal, Esq. M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, humbly approach the Throne, upon the occasion of your Majesty's recent appointment of a new Administration, to repeat to your Majesty the assurances of our attachment to your Majesty's Person.

Influenced by an ardent devotion to the great principles of civil and religious liberty, and convinced that the happiness of the people can only be secured by a firm adherence to those principles in the conduct of public affairs, we consider it matter of the highest congratulation that under the late introductions into your Majesty's Cabinet the country at large may repose, in the confidence of additional influence being given to the promotion of a liberal and enlarged policy.

Without impugning the motives of those individuals who have seceded from your Majesty's Government, we unfeignedly rejoice in the auspicious changes produced in the Administration, by your Majesty's firm and gracious exercise of the royal prerogative. We regard them as essentially tending to promote the best interests of the nation, and we look forward with confidence to the measures which, under wise and enlightened Councils, will be pursued for furthering the strength and prosperity of the British empire, and for increasing the happiness of all classes of your Majesty's subjects.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall, in Nottingham, the 29th day of May in the year of our Lord 1827, in the Mayoralty of John Allen, Esq.

Hy. Enfield, Town Clerk,

[Transmitted by Lord Holland.]

War-Office, 4th June 1827.

MEMORANDUM.

His Majesty has been pleased to approve of the under-mentioned Regiments bearing on their colours and appointments, the several words stated against those, in addition to any other badges or devices which may have been heretofore granted to them:

6th Regiment of Foot,

" Roliça,"

" Vimeira,"

" Corunna,"

" Vittoria," and

" Nivelle,"

in commemoration of the distinguished conduct of