AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of May 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twentieth November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel; for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs":

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th day of March 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in and by a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition of the slave trade," parts of the net proceeds of ships and cargoes taken and condemned for illegal trading in slaves, as therein provided, and also certain bounties and other sums of money therein specified, are made payable to the Commanders, Officers, and crews of such of His Majesty's ships as shall seize and capture the same, subject to such distribution as His Majesty shall think fit and direct by any Order in Council to be made for that purpose:

In pursuance of the powers so given, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that all and every the proceeds, bounties, and other sums of money, which have become payable as aforesaid, and remain undistributed, or which shall become payable as aforesaid under and by virtue of the said recited Act, subject to such order of distribution so to be made as aforesaid, shall be distributed and divided amongst the captors or seizors thereof, in such manner, form, and proportion, and according to such rules and regulations as are directed and provided by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, for the distribution of the shares of any such seizures as are and shall, by virtue of any Acts relating to the trade and revenues of His Majesty's dominions, be payable to and amongst the Commanders, Officers, and crews of any of His Majesty's ships:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
