THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable William Sturges Bourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, was presented by him to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, the undersigned free and independent Electors for the Borough of Great Marlow, beg, with the profoundest respect, reverence, and submission, to express our gratification and delight at the resolute, magnanimous, and determined line of conduct which your Majesty displayed on a late occasion, when so many of your Cabinet Ministers, as if by a preconcerted plan, forsook the Councils of their Sovereign in a crisis of peculiar difficulty and distress.

We heartily congratulate your Majesty on a selection of other Ministers to supply the places of the seceders, on whose prudence, wisdom, and virtue we rely with unbounded confidence; on whose liberal and enlightened policy we depend for deliverance from every grievance, and by whose exertions we doubt not but that the differences hitherto subsisting between sectaries of various tenets of religion, will be so happily healed that equal rights may be safely and indiscriminately extended to all; and that such sapient measures will speedily be adopted as shall cement every party in one universal compact of strength, amity, and concord.

Accept, Most Gracious Sovereign, these heartfelt effusions of your dutiful and loyal subjects, free and independent Electors for the Borough of Great Marlow, who humbly subscribe themselves, with sincerity and devotion, Most Illustrious, Sire, your Majesty's most faithful, affectionate, and obedient servants.

Great Marlow, Bucks, May 17, 1827.

Whitehall, June 7, 1827.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend John Russell, Doctor in Divinity, Schoolmaster of Charter-house, the place and dignity of a

Canon or Prebendary of the Metropolitan Church of Canterbury, void by the death of the Reverend Mathew Surtees.

Whitehall, May 24, 1827.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Reverend Robert Govett, Clerk, Master of Arts, Vicar of Staines, Laleham, and Ashford, in the county of Middlesex, and Sarah his wife, youngest of the two daughters and coheirs of the late Reverend William Romaine, of Castle-hill-lodge, in the parish of St. Mary, Reading, in the county of Berks, Doctor of Divinity, deceased, by Martha his wife, in behalf of their second son, William Govett, an infant, His royal licence and authority, that he the said William Govett may forthwith take upon himself and use the surname of Romaine, in addition to and after that of Govett, and also bear the arms of Romaine, quarterly in the first quarter, with his own family arms; and that such surname and arms may, in like manner, be used and borne by his issue; not only in compliance with the wish expressed by the said late Doctor William Romaine, his maternal grandfather, and in testimony of grateful and affectionate respect towards his honoured grandmother, the said Martha Romaine, but also in fulfilment of the condition of a certain indenture of settlement, bearing date the 20th day of April last past; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And His Majesty has also been pleased to command, that this His concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 12, 1827.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John Wilson, of Newton Bushel, in the parish of Highweek, in the county of Devon, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his kinsman John Green, late of Newton Bushel aforesaid, Esq. deceased, henceforth
