Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1827.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of May 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twentieth November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance; and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Commission in the Wilts Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Wilts.

Robert Montagu Poore, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 29th May 1827.

Whitehall, June 14, 1827.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Whitley, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 18, 1827.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Hildebrand William Alington, of Louth, in the county of Lincoln, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Frederick Cole, of Godalming, in the county of Surrey, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 18, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Wednesday the 23d day of May last, the house of James Shackleton, at Greave, in the township of Wadsivorth, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, was entered by six or seven men, and that after having robbed him of two purses, containing gold and silver, one of the said men fired a gun at and wounded the said James Shackleton, of which wound he soon after died;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. STURGES BOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered (to be paid by Mr. Thomas Shackleton, of Goodgreave, Wadsworth, in the parish of Halifax, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, June 19, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of the 1st of June instant, some evil-disposed person or persons stabbed, and thereby killed, a horse, the property of one William Bray, a carrier, of Redditch, in the county of Worcester; and to one of the horses legs was tied an anonymous letter, threatening the life of the said William Bray;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the horse, and the writer of the said letter) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. STURGES BOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Minister, Chapelwardens, and several inhabitants of Redditch, and TEN GUINEAS by the Redditch Association for the Prosecution of Felons, to any person concerned in killing the said horse (except the person who stabbed the same) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
