Court of King's-Bench, June 22, 1827.

The following Warrant, under the King's Sign Manual, having been issued under the authority of the Statute 3 George IVth, cap. 102, was this day openly and publicly notified and declared in this Court, in pursuance of the said Statute, viz.

Warrant authorising the Judges to hold a Special Sitting.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorised, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters, as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during this present Trinity Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice, and the other Judges of our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Thursday the fifth day of July next, and from thence daily until and upon Wednesday the eleventh day of July, and again on Monday the twenty-ninth day of October next, and from thence daily until the ensuing Michaelmas Term, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of the present Trinity Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; provided always, that if the attendance of any one of you at the session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the county of Middlesex, or at any such session on any Circuit, shall be found requisite, during any part of the time herein mentioned, and another of you shall also, during such attendance, be sitting for the trial of causes at Nisi Prius, then it shall be in the discretion of the remaining two of you either to meet or not to meet, in obedience hereto, according to the nature of the business that may be likely to come before you during such attendance.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, in the eighth year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,
W. STURGES BOURNE.

To the Lord Chief Justice and other the Judges of Our Court before Us.

Whitehall, June 18, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Wednesday the 23d day of May last, the house of James Shackleton, at Greave, in the township of Wadsworth, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, was entered by six or seven men, and that after having robbed him of two purses, containing gold and silver, one of the said men fired a gun at and wounded the said James Shackleton, of which wound he soon after died;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. STURGES BOURNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered (to be paid by Mr. Thomas Shackleton, of Goodgreave, Wadsworth, in the parish of Halifax, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
