To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Sovereign,

Strasbourg, June 28. Cologne, June 29. We have advice from Westphalia, That the 26th instant the Bishop of Munster and Paderborne dyed at Newbaus. The Burghers are still employed in examining the Persons whom they have caused to be seized, and are preparing a state of their Case in order to transmit the same to the Emperor, to know his pleasure upon it. The 25th instant Colonel Cirpricht was again examined concerning the Orders which he pretended to have received from the Magistrates to Fire upon the Burghers, and declaring that the Regent Burghermasters had commanded him to do so, they have thereupon committed them to the Heme-reyck. We have advice from Francfort, That the States of Swaben, who are assembled at Ulm have made Provision for the raising and maintenance of the 6000 Men, being their Quota of the Forces which are to be employed for the common security and defence of the Empire. Yesterday the Magistrates of this place were changed, and to morrow the Burghers will proceed to the Election of two new Burghermasters in the room of those whom they have confined.

His Excellency has committed to Prison Monsieur de Ville, and several other Officers, whose Regiments, upon the late Review of the Army at Pieton, were not found to be complete. The States of Haynault have agreed to pay the Subsidies which his Excellency has demanded of them.

Brussels, July 3. Our Letters from Spain say, That the Fleet which is sitting out at Cadix, consisting of 24 Men of War, would very suddenly be in a condition to Sail, and that they are to be employed in the Mediterranean; That the Marquis de Conflans was parted for Galicia, to take possession of his new employment of Maistre de Camp General of the Forces of that Province. This Morning the Marquis de Grana parted hence for Mons, from whence he will go to Aeth, and from thence to Ghent. We have advice from Hungary, That 20000 Men of the Imperial Army are posted upon the Waag for the Guarding of that River as far as Transchin, against the Inursions of the Turks on that side, and that the Duke of Lorraine is encamped with the main Body of the Army upon the Danube, as well to secure the Conveyance of Provisions unto it, as to be in a readiness to prevent the designs of the Turks upon the Isle of Schutz.

The Dauphin is expected there the 12th, the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans on the 15th, and their Most Christian Majesties on the 18th or 19th Instant.
