

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1827.

COPY of a Dispatch received at the Colonial-Office, from the Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward's Island, enclosing an Address of Condolence to His Majesty from the Legislature of that Island, upon the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany:

Charlotte-Town, May 15, 1827.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to transmit to your Lordship an Address of Condolence from the Legislature of this Island to the King, on the death of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York, with a humble request that your Lordship will be pleased to take an opportunity of laying the same before His Majesty.

I have, &c.

(Signed) J. READY, Lieut. Gov.

Earl Bathurst, K. G. &c. &c. &c.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Joint Address of His Excellency Colonel John Ready, Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Island of Prince Edward and its Dependencies, of the Honourable His Majesty's Council, and of the House of Assembly, in their Legislative Capacities, now sitting at Charlotte Town:

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, now convened in General Assembly, on behalf of themselves and the Inhabitants of this Island, beg leave most humbly to approach the Throne, to offer to your Majesty their sincere condolence upon the melancholy event which has bereaved your Majesty of a highly beloved and illustrious Member of your Royal Family.

The sentiments of loyalty and affection for your Majesty's Person and Government, which are deeply implanted in our bosoms, render it impossible for us not to participate in the grief which this afflicting event must have caused to your Majesty and to the Nation at large.

And we assure your Majesty, that, although far removed from the capital of the empire, the death of your lamented brother, His Royal Highness the Duke of York, is in no part of your Majesty's widely extended dominions more sincerely and deeply deplored than in this your loyal island of Prince Edward.

Council-Chamber, May 1, 1827, in behalf of His Majesty's Council,

(Signed) J. Ready, Lieut. Gov.

(Signed) T. G. W. Archibald,
President of Council.

Assembly-Room, May 1, 1827,

S. Stewart, Speaker.

COPY of a Dispatch received at the Colonial-Office from the Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada, enclosing an Address of Condolence to His Majesty, from three thousand three hundred and five Inhabitants of that Province; upon the lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Albany:

MY LORD, York, U. C. May 23, 1827.

THE inhabitants of the several districts of this Province, to the number of three thousand three hundred and five, have united in an Address of condolence to His Majesty upon the lamented death of His late Royal Highness the Duke of York, and I am requested by their Committee to transmit the same to your Lordship, to be laid at the foot of the Throne.

It will be gratifying to your Lordship to receive this proof of the sentiments of affectionate attachment, which the distinguished character of His late Royal Highness had impressed upon all classes of