AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of August 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Tuesday the twenty-first day of this instant August, to Thursday the twenty-fifth day of October next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of April 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council, to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce, to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient or salutary; and it is further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same: And whereas it is expedient, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act of Parliament, to make some temporary regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the British possessions aforesaid, within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, until permanent regulations in that behalf can be finally made and established; His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority in Him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered, that the trade and commerce of His Majesty's settlements and territories at the Cape of Good Hope, and of His Majesty's island of Mauritius, and of His Majesty's island of Ceylon, and of His Majesty's settlements and territories in New South Wales, and of His Majesty's island of Van Dieman's Land, with the respective dependencies thereof, shall, from and after the arrival of this present Order within any of the said several settlements, territories, and islands, be regulated in the manner following, that is to say, all such laws, rules, orders, and regulations as were in force within the settlements, territories, and islands aforesaid, or any of them, for the regulation of the trade and commerce thereof, upon the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, shall, until further order be made by His Majesty in this behalf, revive and continue, and be of full force, virtue, and effect within the several settlements, territories, and islands aforesaid respectively; and if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary hereto, such goods, together with the ship importing or exporting the same, shall incur and become liable to such forfeiture as in the said Act of Parliament is mentioned in that behalf: provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to contravene, vary, alter, or in any wise affect the said Act of Parliament, so far as the same hath made express provision respecting the trade to and from the said island of Mauritius, or respecting the exportation of sugar or wine from any British possession within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, nor so far as the said Act of Parliament hath expressly mentioned or referred to the trade of any of His Majesty's possessions within the limits aforesaid: provided also, that nothing in this present Order contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to contravene, vary, alter, or in any wise affect two other Acts of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled respectively "An Act for the encouragement of British shipping and navigation," and "An Act for the registering of British vessels," or any other Acts or Act passed in amendment of any of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned: provided also, that nothing in this present Order contained shall be construed to revoke, abrogate, or any wise alter certain Orders of His Majesty in Council respecting the trade of France, and of the United States of America respectively, bearing date the first of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the twenty-seventh of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the sixteenth of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, or to infringe or interfere with any Treaties of Commerce or Navigation entered into by His Majesty with any Foreign State or Power:

And the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS certain dues and duties are payable to His Majesty within the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark, upon the anchorage of foreign ships, vessels, and boats arriving at and casting anchor within the ports, roads, and havens of the said islands, commonly called anchorage dues; and which anchorage dues are not payable by or in respect of British ships, vessels, or boats arriving at and casting anchor within the said ports, roads, and havens; and whereas by certain Treaties or Conventions of Commerce made and concluded by His Majesty with His Most Christian Majesty the King of France, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and with His Majesty the King of Denmark, bearing date the sixteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four; and with His Majesty the King of Prussia, bearing date the second day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four; and with His Majesty as King of Hanover, bearing date the twelfth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four; and with His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, bearing date the eighteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and with the United States of America, bearing date the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and with the Free Hanseatic Republics, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five; and with the State of Columbia, bearing date the eighteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five; and with the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, bearing date the second day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, it is, amongst other things, agreed, that during the continuance of such Treaties respectively, vessels of and belonging to the subjects of the before-mentioned foreign Sovereigns and States, entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports; His Majesty, being desirous to carry the said Treaties into full execution and effect, is pleased, with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that during the continuance of the before-mentioned Treaties or Conventions of Commerce respectively, and so long as the same shall respectively remain in force, the before-mentioned anchorage dues heretofore levied or claimed in the said islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, on ships, vessels, and boats of or belonging to the subjects of His Most Christian Majesty, or of His Majesty the King of Denmark, or of His Majesty the King of Prussia, or of His Majesty as King of Hanover, or of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, or of the United States of America, or of the Free Hanseatic Republics, or of the State of Columbia, or of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, abolished, and remitted, any law, custom, or usage, now or at any time heretofore in force in the said islands, or any of them, to the contrary notwithstanding; provided always, that nothing in this present Order contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any ships, vessels, or boats of or belonging to the subjects of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, not being of the burthen of above one hundred and twenty tons, such ships, vessels or boats, not being included within the said Treaty with the said United Provinces, of the second of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five: and it is further ordered, that the said anchorage dues shall in like manner beyond the same are hereby repealed, abolished, and remitted in favour of the ships, vessels, and boats of or belonging to the subjects of any other foreign State or Power with whom His Majesty shall hereafter enter into and conclude any such Treaty as aforesaid; and that such repeal, abolition, and remission shall take effect when and so soon as the conclusion of any such future Treaty shall be signified to the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of the said islands respectively, by His Majesty through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and all Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and other Officers, civil and military, and all other His Majesty's subjects within the said islands, are to take notice hereof and to govern themselves accordingly:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Sturges Bourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of May 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twentieth November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of June 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July next.

Jas. Buller.

Glasgow, August 31, 1827.

ROBERT M'CAULAY, Spirit-Dealer, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that his election as Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John M'Comb has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and that the Sheriff-Substitute of Stirlingshire has appointed Wednesday the 19th day of September, and Wednesday the 3d day of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, within the Sheriff-Court-Place, of Stirling, for the public examination of the Bankrupt, in terms of the Statute. The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors is to be held within the Albion Tavern, 132, Trongate, Glasgow, upon Thursday the 4th day of the said month of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, being the first lawful day immediately succeeding the last of the above examinations; and another meeting is to be held upon Thursday the 18th day of the said month of October next, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners, and for the other purposes mentioned in the Statute. And the Trustee hereby requires the Creditors to produce in his hands their grounds of debt, and oaths thereto; certifying, that all those who fail to do so, between and the 28th day of May next, being ten months from the date of the first delivrance on the petition for sequestration, shall be deprived of all share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estates.

Notice to the Creditors of James Stevenson and Son, Manufacturers, in Stirling, as a Company, and of James Stevenson, Manufacturer there, and William Stevenson, Manufacturer there, the individual Partners of that Company, and as Individuals.

Edinburgh, September 3, 1827.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, of this date, upon an application by the said James Stevenson and Son, and James Stevenson and William Stevenson, with the concurrence of a Creditor to the extent required by law, sequestrated the whole estate and effects, heritable and moveable, real and personal, of the said James Stevenson and Son, as a Company, and of the said James Stevenson, and William Stevenson, the individual Partners of that Company, and as individuals; and appointed their Creditors to meet within Sawyers' Inn, Stirling, upon Tuesday the 11th day of September current, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to elect an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, on Thursday the 27th day of September current, to elect a Trustee on the said sequestrated estates.

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Ure, Merchant, in Glasgow.

Edinburgh, September 3, 1827.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, this day sequestrated the whole estate and effects of the said Robert Ure, and appointed his Creditors to meet in the Black Bull Inn of Glasgow, upon Wednesday the 12th day of September current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to name an Interim Factor; and, at the same place and hour, on Thursday the 27th current, to elect a Trustee,—all in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Kilgour and Paterson, Paper-Makers, at Balerns-Mill, near Currie, and Lochmills, Linlithgow, and of Thomas Kilgour and William Paterson, the Individual Partners of that Company.

Leith, September 3, 1827.

THE Trustee on said sequestrated estates, hereby intimates, that his accounts have been audited by the Commissioners, in terms of the Statute, and approved of; that the same, with new states of ranking and of the funds of the Bankrupts, will lie at his Office, No. 39, Bernard-Street, Leith, for one month from the 10th instant, for the inspection of all concerned.

The Trustee farther intimates, that in consequence of certain claims having been recently brought forward and not yet adjusted, no second dividend is to be paid in the meantime. And that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 26th September current, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of instructing the Trustee as to matters of importance connected with the Bankrupts' estate.
