

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1827.

At the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases) by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of similar British vessels:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the State of Colombia, and the United States of Mexico respectively, are charged with the same duties and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in vessels of the said United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, and of the said State of Colombia, and of the said United States of Mexico respectively; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Rio de la Plata, Colombia, and Mexico respectively, than are levied on vessels of the said United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the said State of Colombia, and the said United States of Mexico respectively:

His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is, therefore, pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the State of Colombia, and of the United States of Mexico respectively, entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in ballast, or laden direct from any of the ports of Rio de la Plata, Colombia, and Mexico respectively, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the State of Colombia, and of the United States of Mexico respectively, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any duties or charges on account of tonnage, light or harbour dues, pilotage, salvage in case of damage or shipwreck, or any other local charges to which any vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons, or of any less burthen, are now by law liable in the ports of any of His Majesty's dominions; it appearing to His Majesty and His Privy Council, that British vessels, of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons, or of any less burthen, are subject in the ports of the said United Provinces to higher duties and charges than are levied in those ports on vessels of the said United Provinces of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons or of any less burthen.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make provision for ascertaining from time to time the average prices of British corn," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that for the purpose of ascertaining the average price of corn and grain sold within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to direct that the provisions of the said Act, so far as regards the "appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to any cities or towns within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which shall be named in any such Order or Orders in Council;" and it is thereby provided, "that the returns so received from such towns shall not be admitted into the averages made up for the purpose of regulating the bringing into home consumption foreign corn, grain, meal, or flour:"

His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and in exercise of the powers and authorities thereby vested in him as aforesaid, was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions of the said Act, so far as respects the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to the several cities and towns hereinafter mentioned, that is to say;

Marshal's Office.—Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority received from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony of Berbice, dated the 20th June 1827;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of John Ross and Joseph Edmondson, Administrators to the estate of Benjamin Jackson, deceased, as provisionally appointed thereto, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the abovenamed estate of Benjamin Jackson, deceased, to appear at the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their ordinary Session, to be holden in the month of October next ensuing, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due form and time, against aforementioned estate; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first summons by edict published as customary.—Berbice, the 22d June 1827.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Marshal's Office.—Sale by Execution.

First Proclamation.

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, by virtue of a writ of execution, granted by His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony of Berbice, &c. &c. &c. dated the 22d May 1827, as also by virtue of a subsequent appointment, granted by the same authority, and dated the 31st May 1827, have, in the suit intituled John Ross, by his Attorney in this Colony, James Culley, versus John Downer, caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the coffee estate, called Overysse, situate on the west bank of the River Berbice, together with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, an inventory whereof is laying at this Office for the inspection of those concerned.

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale, after the expiration of one year and six weeks from the 15th day of June 1827, the aforementioned coffee estate, called Overysse, cum annexis, and slaves, in order to recover, by execution sale of said property, such sum of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, regarding the sales of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 17th June 1827.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

ELIGIBLE PROPERTY.

To be peremptorily sold by auction, by Mr. James, by order of and before the acting Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt against John Mare, of Shelton, in the County of Stafford, China-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, on Saturday the 27th day of October instant, at the house of Mr. Moses Bates, the Swan Inn, Hanley, in the Staffordshire Potteries, subject to such conditions as will be then produced, the sale to commence at Six o'Clock in the Evening, the following most valuable freehold property, situate in the Market-Place, in Hanley aforesaid, in two lots, or as shall be agreed upon at the time of sale;

Lot 1. All that capital and substantial dwelling-house, with granary, stables, and other outbuildings thereto belonging, and about 900 square yards of land, well adapted for building purposes, in the possession of Mr. John Glass.

The above dwelling-house comprises an entrance hall, two parlours to the front, one 18 feet by 16, and the other 16 feet square, an excellent kitchen and butler's pantry on the ground floor, good cellaring, with commodious offices attached, capital oak stair-case, five bed-rooms on the first floor, and four good attics.

Lot 2. All that old established grocer's shop, adjoining the foregoing lot, and extending from the Market-Place, in a direct line through into New-Street, containing in the whole about 200 square yards of land, in the possession of Mr. Robson, Grocer.

There has not for some years been a property offered for sale in the Staffordshire Potteries combining greater advantages, in point of locality and other respects, than the above, being situated in the centre of one of the most flourishing markets in the County of Stafford, and having three extensive lines of frontage, viz. about 37 yards to New-Street, 44 yards to Market-Street, and 21 yards to the Market-Place. The premises are capable of great improvements, and are peculiarly well adapted for a commercial inn, or for the carrying on any wholesale business on an extensive scale, and afford altogether an opportunity for the investment of capital rarely to be met with.

To view the same refer to the Auctioneer, at Hanley aforesaid, and for further information apply to Mr. Coupland, Solicitor, Leek, or at the Office of Mr. Griffin, Solicitor, in Merrill-Street, Newcastle-under-Lyme.

WHEREAS by indentures of lease and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 10th and 11th days of August last, Robert Colling, of Darlington, in the County of Durham, Spirit-Merchant, Common Brewer, and Maltster, hath conveyed and assigned all his real and personal estate and effects unto Robert Dixon, of Darlington aforesaid, Druggist, and John Robinson, of the same place, Butcher, in trust, for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Robert Colling who shall execute or accede to the same within three calendar months from the date of the said indenture of release and assignment; and the said indenture of release and assignment was executed by the said Robert Colling, Robert Dixon, and John Robinson upon the said 11th day of August last past, in the presence of, and attested by, Thomas Bowes, of Darlington, Attorney at Law, and John Elleston, of the same place, his Clerk.—Notice is hereby given, that the said indenture of release and assignment is lodged at the Office of the said Thomas Bowes, for the perusal of the Creditors of the said Robert Colling.—Darlington, October 1, 1827.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in and by a certain indenture of assignment, bearing date the 22d day of August 1827, and made between Aldous Wade, of Chediston, in the County of Suffolk, Farmer, of the first part, George Suggate, of Halesworth, in the same County, Gentleman, Hammond Farrer Ringwood, of Halesworth aforesaid, Merchant, and William Henry Meadows, of the same place, Maltster, of the second part, and the several other persons who should execute the same indenture (Creditors of the said Aldous Wade), of the third part, the said Aldous Wade did assign, transfer, and set over unto the said George Suggate, Hammond Farrer Ringwood, and William Henry Meadows, their executors, administrators, and assigns, all and singular his personal estate and effects whatsoever, for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Aldous Wade, in manner therein mentioned; and which said deed of assignment was executed by each of them, the said Aldous Wade, George Suggate, Hammond Farrer Ringwood, and William Henry Meadows, on the 22d day of August last; and the execution thereof as to each of them, the said Aldous Wade, George Suggate, Hammond Farrer Ringwood, and William Henry Meadows, attested by William Garnham, of Bungay, in the County of Suffolk, Attorney at Law.—And notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture of assignment now lies at the House of the said George Suggate, for the execution of the Creditors of the said Aldous Wade; and that all Creditors who shall neglect or decline to execute the same, within two months from the date hereof, will be excluded all benefit to result therefrom.—Dated this 6th day of October 1827.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Walter Watson, of Lower Sluckburgh, in the County of Warwick, Wharfinger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 1st day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Craven Arms Inn, in Southam, in the said County of Warwick, to consent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding with any debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate, or commencing and prosecuting any action or suit against any such debtor or debtors, or submitting to arbitration any dispute between such debtors, or any other person or persons, and the said Assignee; and to consent to or dissent from the selling any part of the real and personal estate of the said Bankrupt, by private contract, and to confirm or disallow any such sale or sales which may have been made of any part of the said Bankrupt's real or personal estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Rogers, of Cateaton-Street, in the City of London, Bookseller, Publisher, and Schoolmaster, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 1st day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to authorise and assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of all or any part of the Bankrupt's effects, by public auction or private contract, or part by public auction and part by private contract, and either to the Bankrupt or any other person, and in one or more lot or lots as the said Assignee shall think proper, and to authorise the said Assignee to give such time or credit, and take such security for the amount of any such sale or sales as he shall think proper; and to authorise the giving up to the landlord or to the Bankrupt the lease of the Bankrupt's premises in Cateaton-Street aforesaid; and also to authorise the Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action at law or suit in equity, or presenting or opposing any petition, for the recovering, division, defence, or preservation of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding any debt due to the estate of the said Bankrupt, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Bryant, late of Garden-Court, Middle-Temple, London, Dealer and Chapman, are earnestly requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 31st day of October instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to take into consideration an offer of a composition made on the part of the said William Bryant, and a proposal for superseding the Commission; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee carrying into execution a private contract for the sale of an estate belonging to the said William Bryant; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Shaw, Thomas Shaw, and Samuel Shaw, of Mold-Green, in the Parish of Almondbury, in the County of York, Fancy Cloth-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 6th day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. James Crosland Fenton, Solicitor, in Huddersfield, in the said County of York, to assent to or dissent from said Assignees selling and disposing of the right and interest of the said Bankrupts to the premises, situate at Mold-Green aforesaid, and the fixtures, implements, machinery, matters, and things in and about the same premises, on such terms, and to such person, as will be named at such meeting, and to the said Assignees giving such person such time for the payment of the purchase money as will be then and there stated.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Lockwood, of Wakefield, in the County of York, Malster, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 2d day of November next, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Sessions-House, in Wakefield aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing, either by public auction or private contract, together or in lots, for such price or prices, and at such time and place, and to such person or persons as he shall think fit, of all the real estate of the said Bankrupt, and to putting up by auction and buying in the same, or any part or parts thereof, at any such auction, and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being liable to answer for any loss or diminution in price at such resale, and to the said Assignee giving such time or times, and accepting such security or securities for payment of the consideration money as he shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of all the household goods, furniture, stock in trade, grain, malt, utensils, and other the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof, by private contract, with any credit, or by public auction as the said Assignee shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor, for the recovering of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to the compounding with any debtor, or to giving time or taking security for any debt, or submitting any dispute to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing on any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignee to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate as he may think most advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Manington, of Hastings, in the County of Sussex, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 31st day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the Bankrupt's real and personal estate, and of his interest in certain real estates, situate in the several Parishes of Warthing, St. Clement, St. Mary of the Castle, and All Saints, in the Town and Port of Hastings, in the County of Sussex, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in one or more lot or lots, and at such time or times as the said Assignees shall think proper, and to the said Assignees buying in the same real and personal estates or interest, or such part or parts thereof as they may think proper, in the event of a sufficient sum, in their opinion, not being bid for the same estates or interest by public auction, and to their entering into such arrangement with any person or persons having a mortgage or lien on any part of the said Bankrupt's estate, or on any estate in which the said Bankrupt has any interest or claim for the payment thereof, or otherwise, as they shall think proper, and to their employing persons to manufacture and work up such parts of the stock in trade of the said Bankrupt as they may think advisable, and to their selling off the same when manufactured, as well as all other the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, at prime cost, or by valuation, or in such other manner as they shall think proper, and for such price or prices as the said Assignees shall be able to obtain for the same, and to their giving credit with or without security for the prices or purchase money thereof, in any manner they may think proper, and to their keeping open the shops, warehouses, and premises lately occupied by the said Bankrupt for the purpose of selling off and warehousing therein such stock in trade, and to their hiring and employing from time to time workmen and others in and about the carrying on such trade, and to their purchasing with monies arising from the said Bankrupt's estate, such materials and things as may from time to time be requisite for working up the stock in trade and carrying on the said Bankrupt's business, and to their paying the wages of all workmen and others employed as aforesaid, and the expences incurred by the said Assignees, and to their employing an accountant, agent, or other person or persons to make up, investigate, and adjust the books, accounts, and affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to collect and get in the debts due or to become due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to the said Assignees giving time for the payment of such debts, and to their commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action at law or suit or petition in equity for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects or any part thereof, and to the said Assignees paying the costs and charges attending the same, and also to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing the same, and all other disputes and matters which may arise relating either to the said Bankrupt's separate estate and effects, or to the estate and effects jointly, belonging to him the said Bankrupt and his late Partner John Manington, or any other person or persons.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 5th day of October 1827, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act by THOMAS POTTS, of Rotherhithe-Wall, in the Parish of Rotherhithe, in the County of Surrey, Baker, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
