From Sunday July 9. to Thursday July 12. 1683.

Whitehall, July 11.

The following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty, and by Him very graciously received.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Sovereign,

W E Your Majesties most Loyal, Dutiful, and Faithful Subjects, your Commissioners of the Lieutenancy within your City of London, reflecting upon, and seriously considering that a late Horrid and Damnable Conspiracy was had amongst divers persons of Factions, Tumultuous, and Rebelious Spirits, known Dissenters from the Religion established within these Your Majesties Kingdoms, and Common Enemies to Monarchy it self. And that they had thereupon resolved the Destruction of Your Sacred Person, and also of His Royal Highness: which by the Infinite Providence of the Almighty God hath been discovered. Do with all humility and thankfulness bless his Holy Name for this his mighty Deliverance, and for his Mercies to us in this his miraculouse preservation of Your Sacred Life, and the life of Your Dear Brother.

And, Dread Sir, we humbly crave leave to assure Your Majesty, That we will with all true zeal and resolution upon all occasions, not only use those Arms your Majesty hath been pleased to intrust us withal, but also with Chearfulness adventure our Lives and Fortunes both for the Defence of your Sacred Life (which we pray God long to continue) and also for preservation of the Crown in its right and lineal course of Descent, and the Government as it is now established both in Church and State, in Defence, and to the utter Destruction and Confusion of all the Enemies thereof.

And shall Daily pray for your Majesties long and prosperous Reign over us,

To the Kings Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Readers, Benchers, Ancients, Barristers, and Students of the Society of Grays-Inn.

Dread Sovereign,

W E Your Majesties Most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects being astonished at the Treasonable and horrid Conspiracies against Your Majesties Sacred Person and Royal Brother James Duke of York, designed and contrived by Fanatical Dissenters, and other wicked and desperate persons, to extinguish the Royal Family, to ruine and subvert this ancient and flourishing Monarchy, and to involve this and all other your Majesties Kingdoms in blood and confusion: Do with all imaginable joy and chearfulness congratulate the happy and miraculouse deliverance of your Sacred Person and Royal Brother from such impious and execrable machinations: And for the preservation, and in defence of your Majesties Royal Person, your Heirs and Successors, and your Government in Church, and State, as by Law established, against all such Treasonable Conspiracies, and Traiterous Associations, We your most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, shall always readily and heartily expose and sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, and continually offer our humble and fervent Prayers to A mighty God, that your Majesties Reign may be long, prosperous, and glorious over us.

To the Kings Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesties Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex; and the Grand Jury, being the Body of the County, Assembled at Hick's-hall in Quarter Sessions.

S H E W E T H,

T Hat so soon as the Court was opened and the Fury Sworn, before we entertained any business, we thought it our duty to acknowledge, and bless God for the mercy we have received by the miraculouse deliverance, which he hath been graciously pleased to vouchsafe to Your Majesty and Your Loyal and most obedient Brother James Duke of York, from the bloody hands of those infamous Miscreants, who conspired not only against Your Lives, but also the Life of Your Majesty's Kingdom and Monarchy; a design so horrid, the first notice thereof struck us with so great an Amazement, that we have not yet recovered sense sufficient to consider the danger or acknowledge the mercy as we ought: We must confess, we Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace, have for several years last past, observed the unquiet Spirits of this sort of men; (Dissenters from the Church of England) and have presumed in our frequent Addresses to Your Majesty (wherein some men thought us very forward and impertinent) to acquaint Your Majesty with our Apprehensions of those Conventicles, we doubt not but Your Majesty is now convinced that we proceeded not by Passion but Reason, for although Your Majesty's life (which God long preserve) is of more value and consideration than a hundred millions of ours; yet our lives are Ours, and Self-preservation is an argument of mighty force to engage every man to look about him, to discover from whence Danger may come. Your Majesty now sees, out of what Quiver these poisonous shafts are drawn. We are humbly of opinion that those dangerous Meetings, the Conventicles, are not to be suffered, nor the persons who frequent them, trusted, either with Employment, or Arms, by which they may disturb the publick Peace; That August Assembly the House of Commons, was heretofore purged by that Test, the Sacrament, according to the Church of England. If Fountains be pure the Streams cannot be corrupt. Your Majesty hath Your Character and Wisdom from God, and are the light of our Eyes: that light should be extinguished how black and dismal would our darkness be! We are therefore obliged by Duty and Interest, to beseech Your Majesty, to have a care of Your
