Whitehall, November 14, 1827.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas-Tyers Savage, of New College, in the University of Oxford, Bachelor of Arts, eldest son, and unto James-Tyers Savage, of St. Mary Hall, in the said University of Oxford, Gent. second son, of Talbot Savage, late of the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, attorney at law, deceased, by Matilda his wife, who was the only child of James Tyers, late of Field-place, in the parish of Stroud, in the county of Gloucester, Esq. also deceased, His royal licence and authority, that they may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of their maternal grandfather, the said James Tyers, henceforth discontinue the use of the surname of Savage, and assume and use that of Tyers only:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 13, 1827.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the evening of Wednesday the 19th of September last, an outrageous assault was committed at Swanage, within the port of Poole, in the county of Dorset, upon the persons of the Chief Officer and crew, while employed in their duty at the said place in the prevention of smuggling, by a gang of about 70 smugglers, most of whom were armed with fire arms, swords and swingles, and that the said Chief Officer and several of the crew were severely wounded;

His Majesty, for the better discovering of the offenders concerned in the commission of this outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of them present at and aiding in such outrage (save and except those who actually assaulted and beat the said Chief Officer and crew) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

LANSDOWNE.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid) the same to be paid by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the said port of Poole on the conviction of the offenders, or any of them.

T. Whitmore,

Secretary to the Commissioners of Customs.

Whitehall, November 15, 1827.

WHEREAS early on Sunday morning the 28th day of October last, an extensive fire broke out in the Coulston Crofts Grinding Wheel, in Sheffield, which consumed part of the building, machinery, and working tools used therein; and there is every reason to believe that the above fire was the wilful act of some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said building) who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LANSDOWNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Norwich Fire Insurance Company, and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS by the Proprietors of the Coulston Crofts Grinding Wheel, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such rewards to be paid by the said parties.

Whitehall, November 15, 1827.

WHEREAS, on Sunday night the 28th of October last, the dwelling-house of the Reverend Samuel Rogers, of Loughton, in the county of Essex, was burglariously entered, and certain property removed and stolen therefrom; and whereas diligent measures and enquiries were adopted by the Reverend Samuel Rogers, aided by the Magistrates and other gentlemen of the neighbourhood, to detect and bring to punishment the offenders engaged in the said burglary; and whereas a person under suspicious circumstances was taken up and afterwards committed to prison; and on Friday
