

committed at Swanage, within the port of Poole, in the county of Dorset, upon the persons of the Chief Officer and crew, while employed in their duty at the said place in the prevention of smuggling, by a gang of about 70 smugglers, most of whom were armed with fire-arms, swords and swingles, and that the said Chief Officer and several of the crew were severely wounded;

His Majesty, for the better discovering of the offenders concerned in the commission of this outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of them present at and aiding in such outrage (save and except those who actually assaulted and beat the said Chief Officer and crew) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

LANSDOWNE.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid) the same to be paid by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the said port of Poole on the conviction of the offenders, or any of them.

T. Whitmore,

Secretary to the Commissioners of Customs.

Whitehall, November 15, 1827.

WHEREAS early on Sunday morning the 28th day of October last, an extensive fire broke out in the Coulston Crofts Grinding Wheel, in Sheffield, which consumed part of the building, machinery, and working tools used therein; and there is every reason to believe that the above fire was the wilful act of some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said building) who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LANSDOWNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Norwich Fire Insurance Company, and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS by the Proprietors of the Coulston Crofts Grinding Wheel, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such rewards to be paid by the said parties.

Whitehall, November 15, 1827.

WHEREAS, on Sunday night the 28th of October last, the dwelling-house of the Reverend Samuel Rogers, of Loughton, in the county of Essex, was burglariously entered, and certain property removed and stolen therefrom; and whereas diligent measures and enquiries were adopted by the Reverend Samuel Rogers, aided by the Magistrates and other gentlemen of the neighbourhood, to detect and bring to punishment the offenders engaged in the said burglary; and whereas a person under suspicious circumstances was taken up and afterwards committed to prison; and on Friday evening last, some person, supposed to be connected with the said burglary, feloniously fired a gun or pistol, the ball from which passed through the coat of a young gentleman, within a few yards of the house of the said Reverend Samuel Rogers, for whom there is strong ground to believe the offender mistook the object of his attack;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony last mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LANSDOWNE.

And further, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information as may lead to the conviction of the said offender or offenders; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall give such information as may lead to the conviction of the person or persons who burglariously entered the dwelling-house of the said Reverend Samuel Rogers, on Sunday night, October 28, 1827; to be paid on application to the Reverend Samuel Rogers.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for paving, draining, cleansing, lighting, watching, and improving the streets and public places which are or shall be made upon certain grounds in the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist, in the city of Westminster, commonly called Tothill-fields;" in which Bill a clause is intended to be introduced, enabling the Trustees to charge the landlords, lessees, and owners of houses and ground abutting upon the several sewers already or hereafter to be made under the provisions of the existing Act, with the immediate payment of the whole or a proportion of the first costs of building such sewers, and to compound with them for the same.—Dated this 17th day of November 1827.
