FOR SALE IN SCOTLAND.

The following Property at Jessfield, Newhaven.

Navy-Office, November 29, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice that there will be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 16th of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon (if not previously disposed of by private bargain);

The whole of the property at Jessfield and Annfield, Newhaven, belonging to the Naval Department, consisting of upwards of nine imperial acres, with the whole of the houses and other buildings, &c. thereon, and feu duties attached thereto.

The property at Jessfield being within a ring fence, and bounded by common roads, is admirably adapted for feuing in various lots for erecting villas. The situation of the ground, which has a gentle activity from the sea shore of the Firth of Forth, east of the town of Newhaven, and about two miles from Edinburgh, is commanding, the air salubrious, and the houses forming part of the property, called Annfield, are well known as sea bathing quarters, being close to the best possible accommodation in this respect. The neighbourhood is an improving one, and water from the New Edinburgh Water Company is about to be brought to the property, by which a constant supply will be at all times certain. In short, this desirable property possesses capability beyond any in the vicinity, and cannot fail to command a preference as admirably adapted for building, with the best prospect of considerable pecuniary advantages.

The houses at the top of the Whale-Brae are substantially built and in good repair, having each a coach-house and two-stalled stables.

The tenement lately erected for the Port Admiral's Office, nearly adjoining, and now occupied as a dwelling house, is in the same complete condition.

The land is at present principally let for garden-ground, to yearly tenants, part whereof is a walled garden, well stocked with fruit trees; and the houses of Annfield are respectably tenanted and in good condition.

The rents of the whole property will reasonably admit of increase ere long.

The whole of the above property will be exposed in one lot, or in such lots as shall be pointed out to intending purchasers.

For further particulars application may be made to Mr. Day, Naval Officer, Naval-yard, Leith; or to Mr. Alexander Greig, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh. G. Smith.
