FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1827.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make provision for ascertaining from time to time the average prices of British corn," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that for the purpose of ascertaining the average price of corn and grain sold within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to direct that the provisions of the said Act, so far as regards the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to any cities or towns within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which shall be named in any such Order or Orders in Council;" and it is thereby provided, "that the returns so received from such towns shall not be admitted into the average made up for the purpose of regulating the bringing into home consumption foreign corn, grain, meal, or flour:"

His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and in exercise of the powers and authorities thereby vested in him as aforesaid, was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions of the said Act, so far as respects the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to the town of Galway, in Ireland:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the depredations which have for some time been committed upon the commerce of His Majesty's subjects in the Mediterranean seas by armed vessels, piratically cruising under the Greek flag, have of late greatly increased, and have been accompanied with acts of cruelty and barbarity, which have rendered the navigation of those seas highly perilous; and His Majesty has in vain applied for the prevention of these outrages to the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece, who, however willing, are unable effectually to repress such excesses, owing to the disturbed state of the country and the disorder prevailing in the several Islands of the Greek Archipelago, and His Majesty is thereby laid under the necessity of providing for the same:

To that end, it has appeared to His Majesty that the most efficacious means by which the persons and lawful commerce of His Majesty's subjects in the Mediterranean seas can be adequately protected, until some Government shall be established in Greece competent to put a stop to all irregularities of the nature complained of, will be to prevent, so far as possible, any armed vessels, bearing the Greek flag, from putting to sea, such ships of war only excepted as are belonging to or acting under the orders of the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece.

For this purpose His Majesty is pleased to order and declare, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that instructions be issued forthwith to His Majesty's naval forces in the Mediterranean, authorising and directing them to seize and send into some port belonging to (or being under the power and protection of) His Majesty, every armed vessel which they shall meet with at sea under the Greek flag, or fitted out and armed at any Greek port, such ships of war only excepted as are belonging to, or acting under the orders of, the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece; and that they shall duly provide, that all such vessels, with their crews, shall be safely detained in the ports to which they may be sent, until His Majesty's further pleasure respecting them shall be made known.

And with a view to prevent, as much as possible, any hardships or inconveniences that may arise in the execution of this Order, as it may effect any Greek cruiser which, being at sea at the time when this Order will take effect in the Mediterranean, may not receive immediate notification thereof, it is further ordered that the Commanders of His Majesty's ships, who may be charged with the execution of this Order, shall, in the event of their meeting with any armed vessels at sea, bearing the Greek flag, that may be liable to the operation of this Order between the day upon which the Order shall be notified to the persons exercising the authorities of Government in Greece, and fifteen days from the date thereof, furnish them with certified copies of this Order, and warn them to proceed forthwith to their respective ports; and that such armed vessels shall not be detained until the expiration of the said fifteen days, unless it shall appear that after such notification of the Order and warning they shall not have complied therewith, or shall have been guilty of plundering or searching any trading vessel under the British flag:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of October 1827.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), will expire on the twenty-third day of November next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the twenty-third of November next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port, or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

FOR SALE IN SCOTLAND.

The following Property at Jessfield, Newhaven.

Navy-Office, November 29, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that there will be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 16th of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon (if not previously disposed of by private bargain);

The whole of the property at Jessfield and Ann-field, Newhaven, belonging to the Naval Department, consisting of upwards of nine imperial acres, with the whole of the houses and other buildings, &c. thereon, and feu duties attached thereto.

The property at Jessfield being within a ring fence, and bounded by common roads, is admirably adapted for feuing in various lots for erecting villas. The situation of the ground, which has a gentle acivity from the sea shore of the Firth of Forth, east of the town of Newhaven, and about two miles from Edinburgh, is commanding, the air salubrious, and the houses forming part of the property, called Annfield, are well known as sea bathing quarters, being close to the best possible accommodation in this respect. The neighbourhood is an improving one, and water from the New Edinburgh Water Company is about to be brought to the property, by which a constant supply will be at all times certain. In short, this desirable property possesses capability beyond any in the vicinity, and cannot fail to command a preference as admirably adapted for building, with the best prospect of considerable pecuniary advantages.

The houses at the top of the Whale-Brae are substantially built and in good repair, having each a coach-house and two-stalled stables.

The tenement lately erected for the Port Admiral's Office, nearly adjoining, and now occupied as a dwelling house, is in the same complete condition.

The land is at present principally let for garden-ground, to yearly tenants, part whereof is a walled garden, well stocked with fruit trees; and the houses of Annfield are respectably tenanted and in good condition.

The rents of the whole property will reasonably admit of increase ere long.

The whole of the above property will be exposed in one lot, or in such lots as shall be pointed out to intending purchasers.

For further particulars application may be made to Mr. Day, Naval Officer, Naval-yard, Leith; or to Mr. Alexander Greig, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh.

G. Smith.

And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 27th day of May, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.
