N. B.—All documents transmitted are to be sent free of postage by the claimants.

Marshal's-Office.—Sale by Execution.

First Proclamation.

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, in consequence of a surrender in execution made by Hector Downie, under date of 16th May 1827, in the suit intitled the Attornies or the Representative of Davidsons, Barkly, and Co. Merchants, of London, versus Hector Downie and Elizabeth Jane Downie, born Barry, as having been duly authorised, &c. &c. as also by virtue of a subsequent appointment from the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, dated 20th July 1827, have caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, all that plantation called Waterloo, situate on the west coast of this Colony, with all the erections and buildings thereon, cultivation, and further appurtenances thereunto belonging, together with the slaves thereto attached, an inventory whereof is laying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those concerned.

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale, after the expiration of one year and six weeks from the 30th day of July 1827, the aforementioned sugar plantation called Waterloo, cum annexis, and slaves, in order to recover, by execution sale of said property, such sum of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, regarding the sales of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 5th August 1827.

(Signed) K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Marshal's Office.—Summons by Edict.

BY virtue of authority from His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony of Berbice, &c. &c. dated the 21st September 1827;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of G. van Zadelhoff and Petrus Koulen, in quality as Executors to the last will and testament of the free woman Eva Stoel, late of this Colony, deceased, and Guardians of the Minor heiress beneficially entitled unto the same, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the estate of aforementioned Eva Stoel, late of this Colony, deceased, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their ordinary Session, to be holden in the month of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, say 1828, there to render in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due time and form against beforenamed estate; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first summons by edict published as customary.—Berbice, the 22d September 1827.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
