By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the twentieth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twentieth day of this instant December, to Tuesday the twenty-second day of January next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure; that the said Parliament shall, on the said twenty-second day of January next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-second day of January next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this thirteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and in the eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act.

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the port of Charlotte Town, in Prince Edward's Island; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said port of Charlotte Town, in Prince Edward's Island:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right

Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions "abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act, and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned and are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas, His Majesty doth deem it expedient that certain other ports in His Majesty's possessions in America should be appointed free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint that the following ports in His Majesty's possessions in America shall be respectively free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act, that is to say, port of Spain, in the island of Trinidad; Nassau, in the island of New Providence; Montego Bay, in the island of Jamaica; Roseau, in the island of Dominica; and Saint Andrews, in the province of New Providence:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

St. James's, December 13, 1827.

The King having been pleased to nominate and appoint the Right Honourable Frederick-James Lamb, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Madrid, to be a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, His Majesty was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon him, and to invest him with the ensigns of a Knight Grand Cross of the said Most Honourable Order.

Admiralty-Office, December 18, 1827.

Description of the Uniform which, in pursuance of His Majesty's Pleasure, signified to His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, is to be worn by Officers in the Royal Navy.

ADMIRAL OF THE FLEET.

COAT, blue cloth, with a white cloth stand-up collar, with two inch lace round the top and front; a slashed sleeve with blue three pointed flap and three buttons and holes; a white cuff, with two inch lace, of the Navy pattern, round the top and down the front edge; pocket flaps with three points, no buttons; the body of the coat lined with the same cloth, and the skirts lined with white kerseymere; two rows of buttons in the front, ten buttons in each row; the two rows to be three inches apart from the front of the button-hole to the centre of the button; the skirt to begin at one sixth of the circumference from the front edge, two buttons on the hips, and two buttons on the bottom of the plait; the button to be raised, gilt, one inch in diameter, indented with a round rim, and within the rim an anchor and a cable, and a crown over between two wreaths of laurel; two gold epaulettes, with forty bullions each, over a bonnet and a crescent, and edging to the strap, with silver anchor and crown and three silver stars, two stars on the crescent and one star above.

Waistcoat, single breasted, white cloth or kerseymere, with buttons half inch diameter, of the same pattern as the coat.

Trowsers of blue cloth, with gold lace, of the same width as on the coat, down the outside seams, to be worn over short boots.

Cravat or stock, black silk.

Hat, cocked; the flaps ten inches in the back, eight and a half inches in the front, six inches at each corner; bound with gold lace, two and a half inches wide, showing one inch and a quarter on each side, with a black silk cockade six inches wide; looped with six gold bullions, three and a half eighth of inches wide, and the two centre twisted; with a button of the same size and pattern as the coat, and tassels, with five gold and five blue bullions each.

THE SWORD, BELT, AND KNOT.

Hilt—solid, half basket guard, with raised bars and crown and anchor badge, lion head back piece, white fish-skin gripe, bound with three gilt wires; outside length, five inches and three quarters; inside length, four inches and a half.

Blade—slightly curved, with a round back, thirty-one inches and a quarter long, one inch and three eighths wide at the shoulder, with a double edged spear point.

Scabbard—black leather, top locket plain, four inches long, with plain broad hook; threaded chape six inches long, horse-shoe bottom; the hilt and mountings of brass, lacquered.

Belt—black patent leather frog shoulder belt, two inches and a quarter wide, with brass regulating buckle and loop, to be worn under the waistcoat.

Knot—blue, and gold rope, twenty-three inches long, with ditto vellum basket-work head, and twelve gold bullions, a piece of the same sort of cord, fourteen inches and three quarters long, is fixed to the hilt to which the knot is affixed.

ADMIRALS.

The same as the foregoing, but with three stars only on the epaulettes.

VICE-ADMIRALS.

The same, with two stars on the epaulettes.

REAR-ADMIRALS.

The same, with one star on the epaulettes.

COMMODORES OF THE FIRST CLASS, CAPTAINS OF THE FLEET WHEN NOT FLAG OFFICERS, AND FIRST CAPTAINS OF SHIPS.

The same, but with epaulettes of Captains above three years standing.

CAPTAINS.

The same, but the lace on the collar and cuff to be one and a half inch wide, and the button to be without the laurel leaf; the epaulettes of those of three years standing to have a single anchor and crown, and of those under three years standing to have the anchor alone.

The hats the same, but bound with black silk instead of gold lace, looped with four gold bullions, the two centre twisted.

COMMANDERS.

The same as Captains, but their epaulettes are to be without either crown or anchor.

LIEUTENANTS.

The same, with the lace one inch wide, and one epaulette on the right shoulder of the same description as Commanders, and a strap on the left shoulder similar to the strap of the epaulette.

The loop of the hat to be of two gold bullions twisted.

All the foregoing Officers who are to wear lace down the seams of their trowsers of the same width as that of their coat, may, when they choose, in undress, wear blue trowsers without the gold lace, and Officers of all ranks are to wear blue trowsers except in hot climates or on home service in the summer when all ranks are permitted to wear white Russia duck trowsers.

All the other Officers of the Fleet are to wear the same uniforms as at present established, by the regulations of 1st January 1825, for their full dresses, with the following exceptions;

The buttons which are to be of their present pattern, are not to exceed in number those on the coats of the Commissioned Officers.

Masters, mates, masters-assistants, and midshipmen, are to wear the sword of the above pattern, and volunteers of both classes are to wear dirks only.

Boatswains, gunners, and carpenters, are to wear plain round hats, and midshipmen, masters-assistants, and volunteers of both classes, are to wear round hats, as allowed for their present undress, but the loop is to be of gold twist.

The Officers of the Fleet will observe, that there is no longer any difference of full dress or undress, except in the particular of gold lace on the trowsers of Commissioned Officers, as already stated; and that at the King's or Queen's Drawing-Rooms, Officers are to wear white cloth or kerseymere breeches, with buttons of the waistcoat pattern, with white leather sword belt and white silk stockings; with gold or gilt knee and shoe buckles; on all other occasions whatsoever they are to wear blue trowsers and short boots, as already stated.

CLOAKS AND GREAT COATS.

The uniform cloaks and great coats of the Royal Navy are to be blue, lined (when lined) with blue or white.

Officers when on leave in the neighbourhood of their ships, or on such duties as in the opinions of their immediate Commanding Officers, or of the Senior Officer on the spot, do not require them to appear in the regular uniforms above described, may wear in lieu thereof, a short blue single breasted great coat, with a stand-up collar; Mates and Midshipmen wearing such coats, are to be distinguished by one row of gold twist on each cuff; Lieutenants, by one row of gold lace, a quarter of an inch wide, on each cuff; Commanders, by two rows of such lace on each cuff; and Captains, by three rows of such lace on each cuff.

If Flag Officers shall, under similar circumstances, think proper to wear great coats of the same description in lieu of the proper uniform, they are to wear their proper epaulettes upon it.

All great coats to have the appropriate button of the rank of the respective Officers.

All Officers may wear in undress at sea, a round jacket without skirts, with their appropriate buttons, and a round black hat, with a narrow black silk band and a black buckle, and a black silk or leather cockade, with a loop of the same material and half the width of the lace of their respective coats, or if they have no lace on their coats, of black silk ribbon (except Midshipmen, Masters Assistants, and Volunteers, who are to have a loop of gold twist, as before stated); or a blue cloth cap, with a band round it, of half the width and material of the lace of their coats; Officers who have no lace to their coats, who now wear gold bands, may have a band of gold lace, half an inch wide, round their caps; other Officers are to wear such bands as at present.

Patterns or drawings of each of the before-mentioned articles of dress are to be seen at this Office, and at the Office of each Port Admiral; and His Royal Highness directs, that no article shall, after this date, be made of any other pattern. Articles which have been already made of a different pattern from the foregoing, may, however, be worn till the 1st of January 1829, after which no deviation whatsoever from the establishment will be permitted.

By Command of His Royal Highness,

J. W. CROKER.

FOR SALE IN SCOTLAND.

The following Property at Jessfield, Newhaven.

Navy-Office, November 29, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that there will be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 16th of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon (if not previously disposed of by private bargain);

The whole of the property at Jessfield and Annfield, Newhaven, belonging to the Naval Department, consisting of upwards of nine imperial acres, with the whole of the houses and other buildings, &c. thereon, and feu duties attached thereto.

The property at Jessfield being within a ring fence, and bounded by common roads, is admirably adapted for feuing in various lots for erecting villas. The situation of the ground, which has a gentle acclivity from the sea shore of the Firth of Forth, east of the town of Newhaven, and about two miles from Edinburgh, is commanding, the air salubrious, and the houses forming part of the property, called Annfield, are well known as sea bathing quarters, being close to the best possible accommodation in this respect. The neighbourhood is an improving one, and water from the New Edinburgh Water Company is about to be brought to the property, by which a constant supply will be at all times certain. In short, this desirable property possesses capability beyond any in the vicinity, and cannot fail to command a preference as admirably adapted for building, with the best prospect of considerable pecuniary advantages.

The houses at the top of the Whale-Brac are substantially built and in good repair, having each a coach-house and two-stalled stables.

The tenement lately erected for the Port Admiral's Office, nearly adjoining, and now occupied as a dwelling-house, is in the same complete condition.

The land is at present principally let for garden-ground, to yearly tenants, part whereof is a walled garden, well stocked with fruit trees; and the houses of Annfield are respectably tenanted and in good condition.

The rents of the whole property will reasonably admit of increase ere long.

The whole of the above property will be exposed in one lot, or in such lots as shall be pointed out to intending purchasers.

For further particulars application may be made to Mr. Day, Naval Officer, Naval-yard, Leith; or to Mr. Alexander Greig, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh. G. Smith.
