PILOT-VESSELS.

IT being found that the manner of distinguishing licenced Pilot-Vessels, directed by the 32d section of the Act of Parliament, 6th Geo. IV. c. 125, is not at all times effectual for that purpose, and the Corporation of Trinity-House having had the subject under consideration, with a view to the adoption of such additional marks as shall render the Pilot-Vessels licenced by them under the authority of the said Act, more readily distinguishable from all others at sea; notice is hereby given, that "in addition to the manner in which Pilot-Vessels are required to be distinguished by the 32d section of the Pilotage Act, 6 Geo. IV. c. 125, it is ordered by the Corporation of Trinity-House, that all Pilot-Vessels licenced by them shall, after the 1st of February 1828, have the number of such vessel, and the initial letter of the port to which she belongs, painted black on the mainsail and trysail thereof; that the figure or figures of such number and the initial letter of the port shall be six feet in length, and of proportionate breadth; and that the said number shall be placed immediately above the centre of the line from the throat to the leach of the mainsail, and the initial letter immediately beneath the said number; also that the licence of every Pilot-Vessel shall be immediately withdrawn on board of which, while actually holding a licence as such, any mainsail or trysail shall be found not marked in the manner herein before directed."

FOR SALE IN SCOTLAND.

The following Property at Jessfield, Newhaven.

Navy-Office, November 29, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that there will be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 16th of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon (if not previously disposed of by private bargain);

The whole of the property at Jessfield and Annfield, Newhaven, belonging to the Naval Department, consisting of upwards of nine imperial acres, with the whole of the houses and other buildings, &c. thereon, and feu duties attached thereto.

The property at Jessfield being within a ring fence, and bounded by common roads, is admirably adapted for feuing in various lots for erecting villas. The situation of the ground, which has a gentle acclivity from the sea shore of the Firth of Forth, east of the town of Newhaven, and about two miles from Edinburgh, is commanding, the air salubrious, and the houses forming part of the property, called Annfield, are well known as sea bathing quarters, being close to the best possible accommodation in this respect. The neighbourhood is an improving one, and water from the New Edinburgh Water Company is about to be brought to the property, by which a constant supply will be at all times certain. In short, this desirable property possesses capability beyond any in the vicinity, and cannot fail to command a preference as admirably adapted for building, with the best prospect of considerable pecuniary advantages.

The houses at the top of the Whale-Brae are substantially built and in good repair, having each a coach-house and two-stalled stables.

The tenement lately erected for the Port Admiral's Office, nearly adjoining, and now occupied as a dwelling house, is in the same complete condition.

The land is at present principally let for garden-ground, to yearly tenants, part whereof is a walled garden, well stocked with fruit trees; and the houses of Annfield are respectably tenanted and in good condition.

The rents of the whole property will reasonably admit of increase ere long.

The whole of the above property will be exposed in one lot, or in such lots as shall be pointed out to intending purchasers.

For further particulars application may be made to Mr. Day, Naval Officer, Naval-yard, Leith; or to Mr. Alexander Greig, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh.
G. Smith.
