WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between two and three o'clock on the morning of Tuesday the 8th instant, John Redmond, a private soldier belonging to the 58th regiment of foot, whilst standing sentry at No. 4 post of the Unicorn Guard at Portsmouth, was fired at by some person unknown, and severely, if not dangerously, wounded;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the said John Redmond) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, His Majesty is also hereby pleased to offer a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

ROBERT PEEL.

Whitehall, January 29, 1828

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, about eleven o'clock on the night of Friday the 18th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons fired a gun into the window of a bed-room in the residence of Mr. Kitchener, at West-row, near Mildenhall, in the county of Suffolk, and that there is every reason to believe that Mr. Kitchener was the intended object of the above attack;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.
