

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1828.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of October 1827.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the twenty-third day of November next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the twenty-third of November next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Lipscombe Price, of Park-Street, Regent's-Park, and Saint John-Square, both in the County of Middlesex, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 5th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to confirm or disallow the several acts, matters, and things already had, made, and done under the said Commission; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and to the said Assignees employing a person to adjust the said Bankrupt's accounts, and to paying such allowance for the same as they may deem just; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Caslon, of Rugeley, in the County of Stafford, Chemical-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 6th day of March next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Talbot Arms Inn, in Rugeley, in the County of Stafford, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding or submitting to arbitration, or settling, adjusting, or ending in any manner they may think fit, a suit commenced by a certain person, to be named at the meeting, in the High Court of Chancery against the said Assignees, concerning the acid-yard and works lately occupied by the said William Caslon, situated in Rugeley aforesaid, and the fixtures, tools, implements, apparatus, and other things therein, or thereunto belonging, and all other or any matter or question in dispute between the said parties; or to the said Assignees further defending the said suit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting an action or suit at law or in equity against the said certain person, his Mortgagees and Trustees, or any of them, on account of or concerning any of the matters and things the subject of the above mentioned suit, or any other matter, dealing, or transaction between the said William Caslon or his Assignees and the said certain person, or his Mortgagees or Trustees, or any of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking down, removing, and carrying away, at the risk and cost of the said estate, all or any part of the fixtures, tools, implements, apparatus, and other things now remaining upon, or belonging to, the said acid-yard and premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the same, or any part thereof, at the risk of the said estate, either by public auction or private contract, and for ready money or on credit, and in such manner as the said Assignees may think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, by public auction or private contract, the said fixtures, tools, implements, and other things, at a reduced price, or in any manner they may think fit, to any person or persons, whether Creditor or any other party who may be willing to purchase the same, at the risk of the purchasers, notwithstanding and subject to the claim of the said certain person, they the said Assignees paying their own costs of the said suit up to this time as between attorney and client, except what have been paid by the said certain person, and the said estate being indemnified from all other costs of the said suit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding or submitting to arbitration certain matters and questions in dispute between them and certain other persons, to be also named at the meeting, or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with any debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate, and take any reasonable part of the debt in discharge of the whole, or give time or take security for payment of the said debt.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Addison and John Uren, both of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Drapers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 3d day of March next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. John Radfield, Solicitor, Saint Ann's-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the household goods, furniture, stock in trade, fixtures, estate and effects whatsoever of the said Bankrupts, either by public auction or private contract, or by a valuation or appraisement, and either together or in lots as they may think proper, to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or to any other person or persons whomsoever, and for ready money or on credit, with or without such security as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred relative to the said Bankrupts' affairs, before their Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, assistant, or other person in the affairs of the said Bankrupts, and to the Assignees paying the said accountant, assistant, or other person, such compensation for his trouble as they may deem reasonable; and also to sanction all transactions and matters whatsoever already done by the said Assignees in the said Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law; or to the compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts in such manner as the said Assignees may in their discretion think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Hawley Lacon and Thomas Aquila Dale, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Iron-Founders, Dealers and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 25th day of February instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Joseph Lacon, Solicitor, Water-Street, Liverpool, in order to assent to or dissent from an agreement entered into between the said Assignees and the said Thomas Aquila Dale, for the sale to him of his household furniture and other effects, upon certain terms, to be stated at the said meeting; and also for the sale to him of a policy of insurance upon his own life; and on other special affairs.

THE joint and separate Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 6th day of November 1826, awarded and issued forth against James Kenworthy and John Bladworth Kenworthy, of Ironmonger-Lane, in the City of London, Warehousemen and Copartners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 5th day of March next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees prosecuting a petition already presented by them, for the purpose of compelling a sale of certain freehold property belonging to Joseph Harrop, a Bankrupt, upon which the said Bankrupts James Kenworthy and John Bladworth Kenworthy had a lien; or authorising the said Assignees to enter into a compromise or arrangement with respect to such lien, or to refer their claim to arbitration, or otherwise, as to them the said Assignees shall seem fit and expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Perkins, of the Parish of Lower Sapey, in the County of Worcester, Maltster, Farmer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 3d day of March next, at Ten in the Forenoon, at the Unicorn Inn, in the City of Worcester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and more particularly to take into consideration the best means of setting aside a certain deed of conveyance made by the said Bankrupt of part of his real estate to a person, to be named at the meeting, without a valuable consideration; and also to authorise and assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against the same person, for the purpose of setting aside such deed of conveyance; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Harrop, of Grasscroft, in Saddleworth, in the County of York, Clothier, Dealer and Chapman (trading under the firm of James Harrop and Son), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 5th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into a compromise or arrangement with certain persons, then to be named, as to a lien claimed by them upon part of the freehold property of the said Bankrupt; or to authorise and empower the said Assignees to resist such claim, or to adopt such measures and take such steps as may be deemed most advantageous to the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing the Solicitors employed by them in London and in the country, or either of them, and appointing other Solicitors in their stead; and also to assent to or dissent from the confirming or revoking certain powers and authorities given to the said Assignees at a meeting of the Creditors held at Upper-Mill, in Saddleworth aforesaid, on the 7th day of July 1826; and also to assent to or dissent from the continuing the present Bankers to the estate, or appointing other Bankers in their stead; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Parsons, of Bishopsgate-Street-Within, in the City of London, Wine-Merchant, Innholder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 6th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the lease of the inn, stables and premises in Bishopsgate-Street, belonging to the said Bankrupt, and the stock in trade, furniture and all or any other part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, either by public auction or by private contract, to any person or persons, for such prices, in ready money, or upon such credit and with such security for the payment of the purchase money as the said Assignee shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying or discharging the amount of any claim or lien which may be chargeable upon the said lease or other effects, or making any compromise or arrangement in respect thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee abandoning and releasing all interest and claim to the said lease if the said Assignee shall think it necessary and proper so to do; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee continuing and carrying on the trade or business on the premises in Bishopsgate-Street, for the benefit of the Creditors in such manner, and for so long time as the said Assignee shall think proper, and to his paying and discharging out of the Bankrupt's estate the rent of the premises, servants' wages, and other expenses of and incidental to the carrying on of the same business; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, and suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days

"next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 12th day of February 1828, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act by ROBERT JAMES CATTLEY, of No. 13, George-Street, near the Mansion-House, in the City of London, and of Wandsworth, in the County of Surrey, Coal-Merchant, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
