TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1828.

At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of February 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 22d ultimo, a farm-house, two large barns, and other out-buildings, together with a quantity of corn and farming stock, belonging to William Kay, Esq. and situate near Tring, in the county of Hertford, were entirely destroyed by fire; and that there is every reason to believe that the said premises were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. J. R. Glenister, Tring.

WHEREAS I have demanded, pursuant to the 19th and 20th of George the Third, chap. 30th, the fines due from the occupier of certain premises in Lurgan, in the county of Armagh, held by virtue of a lease, bearing date 10th of June 1697, and made between Arthur Chamberlain, alias Brownlow, of Brownlows Derry, in the county of Armagh, Esq. and Robert Hodgson, of Lurgan, in said county, merchant; whereof several renewals were had and obtained, the last of which bears date the 10th of June 1780, for the lives of Jacob Kirk, Richard Bell, and Thomas Bell, and made between the Right Honourable William Brownlow and Abraham Bell, then of Lurgan; and whereas all the said lives are now dead, of which I desire all persons whom it may concern to take notice.—Dated at Lurgan, in the county of Armagh, this 18th December 1827.
