TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1828.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of February 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Pictou and Sydney, in the province of Nova Scotia; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His

Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Pictou and Sydney, in the province of Nova Scotia:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of February 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year..

Whitehall, February 21, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 26th, or morning of Sunday the 27th day of January last, thirty-four sheep were folded and maliciously slaughtered by some evil-disposed person or persons, in the East Marsh at Great Grimsby, in the county of Lincoln; and that great damage has of late been done to many individuals of that parish, by their sheep having been cruelly maimed and slaughtered, and by various depredations having been committed on the properties of other individuals;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually maimed and slaughtered the sheep) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz. FIFTY GUINEAS, by a Committee at Great Grimsby appointed for applying money which has been contributed for the purpose of reward; TEN POUNDS, by the Mayor and Burgesses of Great Grimsby; and TEN POUNDS, by the Grimsby Association for the prosecution of felons, to any person giving such information as will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who folded and slaughtered the aforesaid sheep: and rewards, amounting to FORTY-SEVEN POUNDS, FIFTEEN SHILLINGS, by the Grimsby Old Association and the particular Members thereof, whose property has been injured as aforesaid.

Whitehall, February 25, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of eight and nine o'clock on Saturday evening the 16th day of February instant, Mr. John Dyon, jun. of Brancroft, near Bawtry, in the county of York, farmer, was wilfully and maliciously shot at and immediately killed, on entering into his own grounds adjoining the turnpike road from Bawtry to Thorne, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who caused the death of Mr. Dyon) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Thomas Tymms, Police Officer, Doncaster.

Admiralty-Office, February 26, 1828.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Second, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the English Merchant brig Orpheus was lost on the English Bank, Rio de Janeiro, on the 26th of October last, and that the Mate and Steward were drowned, and all her cargo lost, except a few articles saved by His Majesty's ships Thetis and Cadmus.

J. W. Croker.

WHEREAS I have demanded, pursuant to the 19th and 20th of George the Third, chap. 30th, the fines due from the occupier of certain premises in Lurgan, in the county of Armagh, held by virtue of a lease, bearing date 10th of June 1697, and made between Arthur Chamberlain, alias Brownlow, of Brownlows Derry, in the county of Armagh, Esq. and Robert Hodgson, of Lurgan, in said county, merchant, whereof several renewals were had and obtained, the last of which bears date the 10th of June 1780, for the lives of Jacob Kirk, Richard Bell, and Thomas Bell, and made between the Right Honourable William Brownlow and Abraham Bell, then of Lurgan; and whereas all the said lives are now dead, of which I desire all persons whom it may concern to take notice.—Dated at Lurgan, in the county of Armagh, this 18th December 1827.

Will. John Hancock, Agent and Receiver to Charles Brownlow, Esq.

*Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
