BOROUGH OF LUDLOW.—RIGHT OF ELECTION PETITION.—NOTICE.

Veneris, 7^o die Martii, 1828.

Edmund Lechmere Charlton, Esq. an Elector of Representatives to serve in Parliament for the borough of Ludlow, having presented his petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, that on or about the 8th day of May 1827, the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of the said Edmund Lechmere Charlton, and others, complaining of an undue election and return for the said borough, reported to the said House, "That the right of voting for Members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Ludlow, is in the twelve Aldermen, the twenty-five Common Councilmen, and the rest of the sworn Burgesses at large of the said borough;"—That the petitioner is advised that the right of election so determined by the said Select Committee is not the right of election for the said borough; therefore to prevent the judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive; the petitioner prays that he may be admitted as a party according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, to oppose the right of election in favour of which the said Select Committee have so reported, and that the petitioner may have such other relief in the premises as to the House shall seem meet and the nature of the case require.

I do hereby give notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the 22d day of April next, at three of the clock in the afternoon, to take the said petition into consideration.

Given under my hand the 7th day of March 1828,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whereas the Chairman of the Select Committee appointed by the House of Commons to try and determine the merits of the petition of Ralph Smyth and others, complaining of an undue election and return for the county of Westmeath; and also the petition of Sir Richard Nagle and others, freeholders, who were admitted parties, in the room of Hugh Morgan Tuite, Esq. did, on the 3d day of May 1827, inform the House, that the said Select Committee had made an order for the nomination and appointment of Commissioners to examine evidence in Ireland, respecting all matters and things referred to the said Commissioners:

And whereas, I have this day received a copy of the minutes of the proceedings of the said Commissioners, under their hands and seals:

Now I do hereby, and by virtue of an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in the united Parliament of Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to re-assemble and meet again upon Monday the 7th day of April next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to take the proceedings of the said Commissioners into consideration, for which this shall be, to the aforesaid Select Committee, a sufficient warrant.

Given under my hand this 11th day of March 1828,

It will, therefore, be to the advantage of all persons concerned, especially those belonging to the forces of the East India Company, to apply for their shares as soon as possible.

All persons belonging to His Majesty's forces, whose shares may be so paid over to Chelsea-Hospital, must apply for payment of them to the Deputy Treasurer of that Establishment; and all persons belonging to the forces of the East India Company, whose shares may be paid over as before mentioned, must apply for them in the usual manner, to the Treasurers and Paymasters of the respective Presidencies above specified.

In order to save the Army the expense of powers of attorney and agency, it is thought right to apprise such of the parties concerned as may not be acquainted therewith, that every Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, and Soldier entitled to participate in this prize-money or booty, may (if in London) receive the amount due to them, in person, from us, on satisfying us that they are the persons entitled to it; or if at a distance, by drawing on us for the amount, according to the following forms and instructions: the Officers through any Banker, or other respectable person, the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates through the Agents of the regiments to which they belonged, provided such drafts or bills are presented to us for payment on or before the said 12th day of June next.

If the signatures of Officers, who may draw bills for their prize-money, are not known to us, it will be necessary for them to adopt such measures as may be requisite to satisfy us of the correctness of their signatures, previous to our accepting their bills.

It will also be necessary for the representatives of deceased Officers to produce to us the probate of will, or letters of administration (as the case may be), before we can pay to them, or their order, the shares due to those they represent.

And with respect to the shares of Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's forces, the Act of 58 George III, cap. 73, directs, that the Distributing Agents shall not pay the share of any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier to any person or persons whatsoever, other than the Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier entitled to the same, or to the next of kin, or executor, or administrator, of such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, or to the Agent of some regiment, battalion, or corps, of His Majesty's army or militia, duly authorized by the party entitled thereto, to receive the same.

All bills drawn in Great Britain and Ireland by Officers, must be on proper stamps, and all orders drawn by Non-commissioned Officers and Privates must, according to Act of Parliament, be upon a shilling stamp, when the amount of the share exceeds forty shillings.

As much injury has been done to Soldiers and their representatives entitled to prize-money, by certificates having been signed in favour of persons not entitled thereto, it is requested that great caution may be used on the present occasion. And all concerned are informed, that any person personating others, or committing forgeries, for the purpose of obtaining the prize-money due to others, is, by the Act of 54 George III, cap. 86, liable to suffer death as a felon, without benefit of clergy.

Desirable Copyhold Estate and Glass-Works, in Edge-Lane, near Liverpool.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Trotter and Son (before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against George Burdy, of Edge-Lane, within West Derby, near Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Glass-Manufacturer, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman), at the Clarendon-Buildings, in Liverpool aforesaid, on Thursday the 3d day of April next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then produced;

Lot 1. All that capital messuage or dwelling-house, called Elm-House, situate in Edge-Lane, within West Derby, near Liverpool aforesaid, with extensive outbuildings, surrounded with pleasure-grounds, garden, and several closes of land, containing together 8A. 3R. statute measure, or thereabouts, now in the occupation of Mr. William Barton, jun.

The house contains on the ground floor a spacious entrance-hall, dining-room, drawing-room, breakfast-parlour, butler's-pantry, supplied with water, store-room and closets, kitchen, scullery, pantry, brew-house, and laundry; on the second floor five bed-rooms and two convenient dressing-rooms, housemaid's store-room, and water-closet; in the attics three bed-rooms and large store-rooms. The outbuildings consist of a double coach-house, stabling for three horses, shippens for nine cows, saddle-room, and hay-lofts over; the garden is walled round, and well stocked with fruit trees, and contains a hot-house and tool-house.

Also all that convenient messuage or dwelling-house adjoining the above property, with several closes of land thereto belonging, containing 2A. 3R. 35P. statute measure, or thereabouts, now in the occupation of Mr. Samuel Brabner.

The house contains on the ground floor two parlours, kitchen, and wash-house; on the second floor three good bed-rooms and a store-room; and in the attics two rooms.

The whole premises are in complete repair, and offer a favourable opportunity for an investment of money, being situate within a convenient distance of the Town of Liverpool, and as the land has a considerable frontage to Edge-Lane, and commands a very extensive view, a great portion of it might be sold off advantageously for building purposes.

Lot 2. All those newly erected crown glass-works, with sixteen cottages for workmen, a manager's house, counting-house, porter's lodge, stables, gig-house, and other outbuildings, and every other requisite convenience for carrying on an extensive trade of a crown glass-manufacturer, situate at the top of Edge-Lane, within West Derby, near Liverpool aforesaid, containing in the whole an area of about six thousand square yards of land, and late in the occupation of the said George Burdy, but at present unoccupied, and immediate possession may be had.

The respective tenants of lot 1 will permit the dwelling-houses and premises to be viewed any Thursday before the day of sale, between the hours of Twelve and Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, by tickets only, which may be had by applying to Mr. Leather, Solicitor, in Liverpool aforesaid, and from whom any further information may be had relative to the whole property.

THE Creditors of Joseph Horsley, late of Billiter-Square, London, Merchant, a Bankrupt, and of Joseph Horsley and Edward Grey Hill, late of Billiter-Square, London, Merchants, Bankrupts, are requested to meet at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, Basinghall-Street, London, on Wednesday the 19th day of March instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, to take into consideration the state of the Bankrupts' affairs, the conduct of the Commissioners, and the measures proper to be taken for the furtherance of the interest of the Creditors.—Any information which may be required, relative to the objects of this meeting, may be had by enquiry at the Office of Messrs. Van Sandau and Tindale, 16, Old Jewry.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Alfred Hawker, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 1st day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs.
