TUESDAY, APRIL 1, 1828.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Thomas Earl of Kellie was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the tenth day of April next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said Thomas Earl of Kellie, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being duly qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the twenty-seventh day of this instant February, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and in the ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's-Palace, March 27, 1828.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Lieutenant-Colonel John Macra, K. C. H. Military Secretary to the late Marquess of Hastings.

War-Office, 1st April 1828.

GARRISONS.

Major-General Sir Colin Campbell, K. C. B. to be Lieutenant-Governor of Portsmouth, vice Major-General Sir James Lyon, appointed to the command in the West Indies. Dated 20th March 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, during the night of Saturday the 15th day of March instant, five bean ricks, which were standing in Coate-field, the pro-party of Mr. Robert Wild, of Coate, in the parish of Bishop's Cannings, near Devizes, in the county of Wilts, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, and the whole consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application at the Offices of Mr. Ings, Devizes.

Whitehall, March 24, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that Mr. William Wiggins was, on the night of Sunday the 9th day of March instant, between the hours of seven and nine o'clock, violently assaulted, robbed, and attempted to be murdered, at Scraps-gate, near Sheerness, in the isle of Sheppy, in the county of Kent, by two evil-disposed persons, whose names are unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually attempted to murder the said Mr. Wiggins) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Hooker, Solicitor, Sheerness.

Admiralty-Office, March 29, 1828.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Second, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the sloop Ruckers, of Barbadoes, George Smith, Master, got on shore on Sandy Island, Antigua, on the 27th of January last, and went to pieces; that no lives were lost; and that part of the cargo, consisting of 115 barrels, 11 half barrels of flour, and about 207 red oak staves, were saved.
