

perty of Mr. Robert Wild, of Coate, in the parish of Bishop's Cannings, near Devizes, in the county of Wilts, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, and the whole consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application at the Offices of Mr. Ings, Devizes.

Whitehall, March 24, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that Mr. William Wiggins was, on the night of Sunday the 9th day of March instant, between the hours of seven and nine o'clock, violently assaulted, robbed, and attempted to be murdered, at Scraps-gate, near Sheerness, in the isle of Sheppy, in the county of Kent, by two evil-disposed persons, whose names are unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually attempted to murder the said Mr. Wiggins) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

Admiralty-Office, March 29, 1828.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Second, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the sloop Ruckers, of Barbadoes, George Smith, Master, got on shore on Sandy Island, Antigua, on the 27th of January last, and went to pieces; that no lives were lost; and that part of the cargo, consisting of 115 barrels, 11 half barrels of flour, and about 207 red oak staves, were saved.
