And whereas I did, by my warrant, dated the 11th day of March last, and inserted in the London Gazette, by virtue of an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to re-assemble and meet again upon Monday the 7th day of April instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to take the proceedings of the said Commissioners into consideration:

Now I do hereby, and by virtue of an Act, passed in the sixtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to re-assemble and meet again upon Friday the 18th day of April instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to take the proceedings of the aforesaid Commissioners into consideration, instead of on the day first appointed, for which this shall be to the aforesaid Select Committee a sufficient warrant.

Given under my hand the 4th day of April 1828,

And also to command, that the said royal concession and especial mark of His Majesty's favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in the College of Arms.
