

zette, by virtue of an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to re-assemble and meet again upon Monday the 7th day of April instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to take the proceedings of the said Commissioners into consideration:

Now I do hereby, and by virtue of an Act, passed in the sixtieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the forty-second year of the reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to re-assemble and meet again upon Friday the 18th day of April instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to take the proceedings of the aforesaid Commissioners into consideration, instead of on the day first appointed, for which this shall be to the aforesaid Select Committee a sufficient warrant.

Given under my hand the 4th day of April 1828,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, April 2, 1828.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Isaac Hart, Esq. Captain in the Army on half-pay of the 65th (or 2d Yorkshire North Riding) Regiment of Foot, His royal licence and authority, that he may, in compliance with the earnest desire expressed by His Majesty the Shah of Persia, accept and wear the insignia of the Persian Order of the Lion and Sun, of the first class, with which His Persian Majesty has been pleased to honour him, in testimony of His royal approbation of his distinguished conduct while in the actual service of that Sovereign; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise, and shall not be deemed or construed to authorise, the assumption of any stile, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and especial mark of His Majesty's favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 13, 1828.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed James Stainbank, of Lancaster, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Edward Robinson, of Cambridge, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, April 3, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 15th of October last, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to a hovel, belonging to Mr. William Guy, of Abb-Kettleby, near Melton Mowbray, in the county of Leicestershire, which was totally consumed; and that an attempt was made at the same time to set fire to a wind-mill, belonging to Mr. Abraham Pick, adjoining the said hovel, by laying combustibles near the mill steps; and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that on the morning of Wednesday the 19th ultimo, two young horses, belonging to the said Mr. William Guy, and one young horse, belonging to his father, Mr. Andrew Guy, were found poisoned by arsenic, in a field near the said town of Abb-Kettleby; and that on the same morning, a cow, belonging to the said Mr. Abraham Pick, was also found poisoned;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said hovel, or poisoned the said horses and cow) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid in the following proportions, viz.

Mr. William Guy	-	-	£ 40	0	0
Mr. Andrew Guy	-	-	20	0	0
