TUESDAY, APRIL 8, 1828.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 7, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 23d instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders will wear their Collars.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 7, 1828.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE COURT OF ST. JAMES'S.

THE Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room to be held on Wednesday the 23d instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office on Saturday the 19th, or Monday the 21st instant, before two o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall hereafter be made by the Lord in Waiting, but by the Lady whose name, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

No Lady can be received by His Majesty at the Drawing-Room but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Thomas Earl of Kellie was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the tenth day of April next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said Thomas Earl of Kellie, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being duly qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the twenty-seventh day of this instant February, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and in the ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of February 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained;

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Pictou and Sydney, in the province of Nova Scotia; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Pictou and Sydney, in the province of Nova Scotia:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain: Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of February 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year. Jas. Buller.

Westminster, April 3, 1828.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honour- able House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Old Sarum.

The Right Honourable Stratford Canning, of Albermarle-street, in the county of Middlesex, in the room of Josias Du Pre Alexander, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, April 3, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Monday the 15th of October last, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to a hovel, belonging to Mr. William Guy, of Abb-Kettleby, near Melton Mowbray, in the county of Leicester, which was totally consumed; and that an attempt was made at the same time to set fire to a wind-mill, belonging to Mr. Abraham Pick, adjoining the said hovel, by laying combustibles near the mill steps; and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that on the morning of Wednesday the 19th ultimo, two young horses, belonging to the said Mr. William Guy, and one young horse, belonging to his father, Mr. Andrew Guy, were found poisoned by arsenic, in a field near the said town of Abb-Kettleby; and that on the same morning, a cow, belonging to the said Mr. Abraham Pick, was also found poisoned;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said hovel, or poisoned the said horses and cow) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid in the following proportions, viz.

Mr. William Guy	-	-	£ 40	0	0
Mr. Andrew Guy	-	-	20	0	0
Mr. Abraham Pick	-	-	20	0	0
Messrs. John and William Shillcock			10	0	0
The Melton Mowbray Association, by
Mr. Latham, the Treasurer	-	-	60	0	0

Whitehall, April 5, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that early on the morning of Sunday last the 30th ultimo, a large woollen mill, belonging to Messrs. Joshua Lockwood and Company, of Huddersfield, in the county of York, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and burnt down;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Messrs. Joshua Lockwood and Company, of Huddersfield.

Navy-Office, April 3, 1828.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st January to the 31st March last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 21st, 22d, and 23d of this month, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 24th, 25th, 28th, 29th, and 30th of this month, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 1st and 2d of May, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March last, will commence paying on the 21st of April instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act

TO be sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Bardswell v. Banning, at the Golden Lion Inn, Dale-Street, Liverpool, in the said County Palatine, on Monday the 28th day of April 1828, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, before William Shawe, Esq. the Registrar of the said Court, subject to such conditions as will be then produced;

All that plot of land, with a commodious dwelling-house thereon erected, situate on the east side of Moor-Place (formerly called Saint Andrew-Street), in Liverpool, containing in front thereto twenty-seven yards and one foot, and in depth southwardly to Gill-Street, forty-one yards, and northwardly thirty-six yards, and in breadth at the back twenty-five yards and one half, or thereabouts (be the same more or less), and now in the occupation of Mr. Samuel Bebbington, as tenant from year to year.

The above premises are leasehold, under the Corporation of Liverpool, and are now held for the residue of a term of one hundred and twenty years, determinable on the decease of three lives, all in being, and twenty-one years to commence upon the decease of the survivor, subject to the usual rents and covenants.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's Office, in Preston, in the said County; or for further particulars application may be made to Messrs. Leigh and Sanders, Solicitors, Basnett-Street, or Messrs. Bardswell and Son, Solicitors, Drury-Lane, Liverpool.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein Robert Trevor and another are plaintiffs, and Dinah Gomme is defendant, with the approbation of the Honourable Robert Henley Eden, one of the Masters of the said Court, in several lots;

The messuages, situate in the High-Street, High Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, late the property of James Gomme, of Chipping Wycombe, in the said County of Bucks, Auctioneer, deceased.

The time and place of sale will be shortly advertised, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Rogers, Currie, and Horne, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; Mr. Griffiths, Gray's-Inn, London; and of Messrs. Nash and Runsey, High Wycombe aforesaid.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Saturday the 29th day of March, in the ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 1828, between Elizabeth Wren, Plaintiff; James Usher and others, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present day informed by Mr. Rogers, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff, on the 28th day of January last, filed her bill in this Court against the defendants, as by the Six Clerks' certificate appears, and took out process of subpoena, requiring them to answer the same; that the defendant, James Usher, hath not yet appeared to the said bill; that upon inquiry at the said defendant's usual place of abode he is not to be found, so as to be served with such process, and doth abscond to avoid being served with such process, as by affidavit appears; and it also appears by the said affidavit, that the said defendant, James Usher, hath been in England within two years next before the issuing of the said subpoena, and the said certificate and affidavit being now read, it is ordered, that the said defendant, James Usher, do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 1st day of June 1828.

Ent. J. D.—F. B. B.

On Sunday the 6th day of April 1828, the above Order was read in the Parish Church of Saint Mary, Whitechapel.
