Whitehall, August 1.

THe following Addressees having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of several Members of Your Majesty's Corporation of the City of Wells, in the County of Somerset.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, out of a deep sense and horror of the late Bloody and Traiterous Conspiracy against the Life of Your most Sacred Majesty, and Your Royal Brother, the Duke of York; Do most humbly prostrate our selves at Your Majesty's Feet, most heartily Congratulating Your great Deliverance from the Hands of those Blood-thirsty Villains, praising the Almighty God for his Miraculous Preservation of Your Sacred Person, by Infatuating and defeating the wicked Council of the Cursed Achitophel and his Associates; And may the Omnipotent Hand of Providence, as it hath hitherto, so for ever Protect Your Majesty, and may there never want one of Your Royal Line to sway the Scepters of these Kingdoms, so long as the Sun and Moon shall endure. Now, Dread Sovereign, We beg Leave to acquaint Your Majesty, That we were Summoned by our Mayor, to joyn in Address with him and the rest of our Body, but we refused, unless they would agree also to make a Submissive Resignation of our Charter, Your Majesty having thought fit to send out Your Writ of Scire facias to Revoke it, not daring to offer such an Affront to Your Majesty, as to pretend Loyalty, and at the same time, impudently to oppose You, or joyn with those who do. But we do assure Your Majesty, none have been more fervent in Your Majesty's Service, and none shall more heartily Engage in it, on all occasions, than

Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentry and Principal Inhabitants of the City and Burrough of Wells, in the County of Somerset, and Liberty of St. Andrew adjoining.

Dread Sovereign,

WE had made an earlier approach to the Thron of your most Gracious Majesty, had not the ready and sincere expressions of our Loyalty been smothered heretofore, and suppress'd by those whom the great Obligations of a Charter, and all the Blessings of an happy and well temper'd Government should have prompted to better things. But resenting with the last Detestation, their unworthy ingratitude and neglect herein, with hearts big with Joy and Thankfulness, we acknowledge the miraculous Providence of God, in detelling and defeating the late most Hellish execrable Design, against your Majesties Sacred Person, the Life of your Royal Brother that steady Bulwark of Fortitude and Fidelity, and to involve these Nations in Blood and Desolation. A Conspiracy formed and carried on by men of the most desperate Atheistical and Turbulent Spirits, for all except such cannot but acquiesce happy and serene under the benign Influences of your Majesties Just and Righteous Government, and the most wholesome and equitable Laws on this side Heaven, of which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to assert your Self the great Defender, as well as of the Faith. For these inestimable Benefits and Blessings our Lives and Fortunes are too poor a Tribute, they by undoubted Rights are your Majesties already, and 'tis our greatest Felicity they are so. We humbly lay them at your Royal Feet, promising with all Zealous Loyalty, faithfully to serve, and intirely to obey your most Sacred Majesty, your Heirs and lawful Successors in the Right Line, as becomes the Allegiance, Duty, and sworn Fidelity of,

Great Sir,

Your Majesties most Obedient, most Faithful and truly Loyal Subject,

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury for the Body of Your Majesty's County of Stafford, at the Quarter Sessions held at Stafford, the 10th. of July, 1683.

Most humbly Sheweth,

That we cannot but with much Horror and Amazement, to the great grief of our Souls, bear of the repeated Treacherous Conspiracies of Cruel and wicked men, against Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Your Royal Brother, the Duke. We therefore do with all Humility and Zeal, as our Duty is, give thanks to Almighty God for Your Majesty's Preservation, who hath Frustrated all their wicked Plots and Designs, by so timely and happy Discovery of them, to the unspeakable joy of Your Majesty's good Subjects. And we do assure Your Majesty, that we will with our Lives and Fortunes, and whatever is dear to us, be ready to defend Your Majesty's most Royal Person, Your Heirs and Successors, and the Government as it is now by Law established, against all Traiterous Associations, Conspiracies, and wicked Designs whatsoever.

Subscribed the day and Year above said by us,

We the Justices of Peace of the County aforesaid, concur with this Grand Jury.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Lieutenant and the Deputy Lieutenants, with the Commission Officers, on behalf of themselves and Your Majesty's Militia for the County of Stafford.

WE call to mind with great cheerfulness of Heart, That either our selves in Person, or by our Parents in our Minority, have constantly adhered to the Crown, and served in late Majesty of ever blessed Memory, in the most difficult and Barbarous times against his Rebels and Murderers, and ever since have faithfully served Your Sacred Majesty to the best of our abilities and knowledge, to this minute: And as we bless God for Your Majesty's many miraculous Deliverances from the Contrivances and Arms of Your Rebels and Enemies at home and abroad, and for restoring You to the Crown of Your Ancestors, and more particularly for his own great & wonderful Deliverance of Your Majesty and Your Royal Brother, from the late Traitorous Conspiracies and intended Butchery designed by Your old Implacable Enemies, to let them and the World know He will Protect Your Sacred Majesty and the Posterity of Your Martyr'd Father, to Rule over us, and continue them constantly upon the Throne to defend us against the Contrivances and Circumventions of Your Majesty's and His Enemies.

And as we rejoice and praise God for his Blessings that we have received, so we will cheerfully and constantly pray and endeavour for Your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us, and for Victory over all Your Rebels and Enemies: And do humbly make bold to assure Your Majesty we will remain in our constant Loyalty, and never forsake Your Majesty, nor the Royal Family, but will serve You and them to the utmost hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeesses of your Majesties Borough of Sudbury in the County of Suffolk.

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most loyal and obedient Subjects, taking notice, with Detestation and Abhorrence, of that most execrable Conspiracy lately formed, contrived, and carried on against the Life of your Sacred Majesty, (whom God Almighty preserve) and the Life of your Royal Brother, and the Lives of the best of your Majesties Subjects, under the false pretence of Religion, by those People who in their Fanatick Zeal have Schismatically divided from the best constituted Church in the World.

And seeing a deliverance wrought by the immediate Hand of Providence, a Miracle graciously added to many by that Allwise Being, for the making us happy in your Majesties Life and Government.

We in the first place apply our selves to him, our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, with our humble and hearty thanks for this his great Mercy towards us.

And after a dutiful acknowledgment of the many Blessings of Peace and Plenty we enjoy under your Majesties most gracious and prudent Government, we do, as our Allegiance and Gratitude oblige us solemnly declare, promise, and vow, constantly and resolutely to serve your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, and faithfully to endeavour the Preservation of your Sacred Person, your Heirs, and lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now by Law established, against all Traitorous Conspiracies, Associations, and Violence whatsoever. And to these our endeavours we will always add our Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majesty may live prosperously here, and happily hereafter for ever.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Justices of Peace, Chief Burgeesses, Town Clerk, and Burgeesses of the Common Council of your Majesties Royal Corporation of Bury St. Edmund in the County of Suffolk.

Great Sir,

the lowest posture of Humility that becomes dutiful Subjects to their Sovereign, we call this humble Address at your Majesties Feet, whereby we renew that Loyalty which ever was, and still is engraven in our Hearts, in indelible Characters, to manifest our just Abhorrence of the Treasonable Designs, and Conspiracies of Factious, Turbulent, and Antimonarchical Spirits who have lately confronted Heaven itself, by designing to murder your Sacred Majesty and Royal Brother, and thereby to subject to Ruine and Destruction the belt of Governments.

In consideration whereof, and of the great Blessings we have had, and still enjoy under your Auspicious Government, we do congratulate your Majesties signal Preservations from all those Treasonable Conspiracies, and particularly that, lately designed against your Royal Person, and Illustrious Brother; And do implore Almighty God to inspire into the hearts of all your Majesties Subjects, a true sense of their Duty, and your great Goodness and paternal Love to them, and to correct the wickedness of such who dare undermine your happy Government, or the lineal Succession thereof in your Royal Family.

And that your Majesty may be assured that such Spirits as these are not amongst us, we do hereby solemnly promise to oppose your Enemies, and assist your Majesty, in the Preservation of your Sacred Person and Government both of Church and State, and the Hereditary Succession thereof, with our Lives and Fortunes. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto set the Common Seal of the said Borough, the seventeenth day of July, in the five and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury Assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden for the Franchise of Bury St. Edmunds in the County of Suffolk, the 16th day of July, in the five and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

May it please Your Majesty,

ALthough many of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects have had an earlier Opportunity of expressing their Resentments and Congratulations upon the Miraculous and happy Deliverance of Your Sacred Person and Royal Brother from the Traitorous and Horrid Conspiracies of such Miscreants as could (after the Experience of so unparallel'd a Reign for repeated Acts of Clemency and Justice) perpetrate so great a Villany as was designed. Yet there are none affected with a more profound and due sense thereof, or that shall in Confirmation as well of their Duty, as Abhorrence of so Barbarous and Impious a Fact, sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes with more Alacrity or Unanimity for the Preservation of Your Sacred Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the establish'd Government, than our selves.

That God may long Preserve, and signally Bless Your most Excellent Majesty with a Prosperous and Happy Reign; And that the future part thereof may be as Replete with Miracle and Wonder for Your Preservation, as Your Birth and other Periods of Your Life have hitherto been: And that Your Enemies may be clothed with that Shame and Confusion which their own Guile and so great Impieties deserve, shall be the eternal Vote, as well as Endeavour, of

Great SIR,
Your Majesties most Loyal, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects,

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Common Council and Freeholders of Your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Lancaster.

May it please your Majesty,

Considering that no Nation in the World hath enjoyed more happiness under Your Majesty's just and Indulgent Government, than we and other Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, notwithstanding the repeated Provocations of Evil and Disaffected Men, who as well formerly, as of late, have contrived the Destruction of a Prince, under whom they have enjoyed so great Plenty and Peace. We can never sufficiently magnify the good Providence of God, who hath of late in so extraordinary a manner preserved Your Majesty, and defeated the wicked Arts of those who had conspired the Death of Your Royal Person, and of Your dearest Brother the Duke of York, and at the same time the Subversion of the Government both in Church and State.

My

May the same Providence which did it so miraculously a manner restore You to the Exercise of Your Kingly Government, and hath preserved You from the wicked Practices of Your and our Enemies, always protect and preserve You and Your Government. In defence whereof, we do hereby declare we will stand by Your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, and shall, when You shall please to require us, Surrender unto You that Charter and power of Government, wherewith
You have been pleased to entrust us.

We the neighbouring Justices of the Peace to the Corporation aforesaid, do freely Concur with this Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, and Common Council of Your Ancient Borough of Plymouth, in publick Sessions at the Guild-Hall, July 12. 1683. then and there Assembled.

Most Dread and Gracious Sovereign,

WE having lately received by Your Majesty's Proclamations, the certainty of a most Horrid and execrable Conspiracy against the Life of Your Sacred Majesty, and Your dearest and most illustrious Brother, by ill-affected and desperate Persons: We cannot express the Astonishment with which we are struck at the report of so great a Villany, and we cannot yet reflect upon the dismal Mischiefs which would have been the Effect of it without Amazement: And having paid our most humble and thankful acknowledgments for the Divine Providence, by which this Hellish Design was prevented; We thought our selves obliged to declare our abhorrence of it, and of all Traiterous Associations and Attempts against Your Majesty's Person and Government Established in Church and State.

And being deeply sensible not only of the many years of Peace and Happiness, we have enjoyed under Your Majesty's most mild and just Government, but also of the Glorious and Flourishing State of these Kingdoms under Your Royal Ancestors: We cannot but judge Your Royal Family is raised and supported by the Divine Providence, to be a peculiar Blessing to us and our Posterity.

And therefore we equally detest these Attempts for the Destruction of Your Sacred Person, and all others for the Exclusion of Your Heirs and Successors.

And we most humbly Intreat Your Sacred Majesty to accept of this profession of our Loyalty, with all Sincereness, assuring Your Majesty, that what we have Subscribed with our Hands, we will (when ever Your Majesty's Service and Safety requires it) seal with our Blood.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Mayor, Steward, Bayliffs, Burgesses, Minister, and other Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of New-Windſor, Berks, reflecting with Horror upon the late Diabolical Conspiracy, formed and contrived by Men of Republican Principles, under the specious Pretence of Religion, viz. Seditious Preachers and Schismatical Absenters from the Church, both known Enemies to Monarchy, and both influenced by a late Traiterous Association, to destroy Your Majesties Sacred Person, and Your Dearest Brother James Duke of York.

Do in the deepest Gratitude of our Souls to Almighty God, and in a continued Testimony of our Loyalty and bounden Duty to Your Sacred Majesty, Your Lawful Heirs and Successors, congratulate Your Majesties most happy Deliverance from this cursed Conspiracy, and offer the humble Sacrifice of our Lives and Fortunes, with the Zeal that ever shall be more peculiar to our selves, from the particular Honor and Advantages Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to afford us by Your Royal Presence.

And we shall likewise ever pray, that Almighty God, who has from time to time miraculously preserved Your most Sacred Majesty, would still defeat the Devices and Attempts of the Enemies of the Crown, and the present Government both in Church and State; and that now at last he would open their Eyes to see their Horrid Ingratitude, and to joya with us in the utmost assurances of a most firm Fidelity to Your Majesty and the Royal Line in the Legal Descent; as also in our Prayers that Your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous and Triumphant Reign.

Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, &c.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects
Your Majesties Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and others present at the Sessions held at Bodmin for Your Majesties most Loyal County of Cornwall, having with Horror and Astonishment received an Assurance of a most damnable and Traiterous Conspiracy against the Life of Your Sacred Majesty, and Dearest Brother James Duke of York: A Conspiracy manifestly tending to the Subversion of the best Religion and Government in the World, do render our most humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God, who hath thus graciously and often miraculously preserved Your Majesty, Beseeching him still to deliver You, and infatuate the Counsels and Confound the Machinations of all Your Enemies. Having formerly experienced Your Majesties most gracious Condescension, in accepting the Loyal Addresses of Your Dutiful Subjects, we humbly presume to declare our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of all Traiterous Conspiracies and Associations, and our firm Resolutions to use our utmost Industry in discovering and defeating the same; And that we shall be always ready with that Zeal and Affect in our Duty and Religion doth oblige to expose our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majesties Sacred Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the Government now by Law established in Church and State.

Madrid July 22. The 12th instant the Spanish Fleet, consisting of two and twenty Men of War, sailed from Cadiz. We have advice by a Vessel arrived at the Groyne from the West Indies, That the New Spain Fleet which sailed from Cadiz in March last, was, after a troublesome passage, arrived late at Puerto Rico.

Genoa, July 21. This day sailed from hence the Friendship and the Four Brothers for Alicante and Cadiz, being very richly laden. Some days ago a Brigantine belonging to Arassia, met off of Sardinia with a Turkish Brigantine, mounted with 32 Guns, which after an obstinate fight they took, and this day brought in hither.

Ratisbonne, July 20. The Bishop of Aichstade, the Imperial Commissioner, hath by a late Memorial, represented unto the Diet, the imminent danger in which Vienna and the whole Circle of Austria is at present in, and hath in the Emperor's name demanded an immediate assistance of Men to prevent the further progress of the Turks. This day six Companies of Foot belonging to the Elector of Bavaria, passed through this place, on their way to Straubing, where they will arrive to-morrow, and are followed with several Troops of Horse, which are to Rendezvous at Scherding, and the Troops of the Circle of Bavaria at Braune.

Ratisbonne, July 20. The Elector of Bavaria's Troops are assembled at the place appointed for their Rendezvous, and will suddenly march to join the Imperial Army, in order to the raising the Siege of Vienna. The Emperor continues still at Passaw, and it is uncertain whether he will remove hither, or not.

Breslaw, July 28. Yesterday arrived here a Courier from Vienna, who says, That the besieged make a very vigorous defence, and that as yet they are under no want either of Provisions or Ammunition. We have advice from Upper Silesia, That the Rebels have taken and plundered Budekm, six miles from Silaine, which has put the Inhabitants of this place in great apprehensions of receiving the like treatment from them suddenly.

Passaw, July 26. The consternation which the Siege of Vienna does occasion in these parts cannot easily be expressed; according to all our advices the Grand Visier does very much press it, having made several attacks, in which he does not spare his

his men; but at the same time we are assured, that the besieged make a very brave defence, and that hitherto they have repulsed the Enemy, in the actions they have had with them, with considerable loss on their side; the Count de Starenberg, who is Governor of the place, giving most remarkable proofs of his Conduct and Courage, to the great encouragement of those that serve under him. The Town has suffered much by the Enemies Cannon and Bombs; but on the other side the Besieged have not been idle, but have so well employed their Cannon as to dismount all the Enemies Guns, and to ruin their Batteries: When the last Letters came away, they were raising others; and the Grand Visier had sent to the Governor of Vienna, to demand a Cessation of Arms for some hours to bury his dead, and at the same time, as our advices say, had acquainted him, That in case he did not in time surrender the place, but staid till it should be taken by storm, he would put Men, Women and Children to the sword. To which the Governor had, it's said, returned a suitable answer, letting the Visier know, That his menaces might be spared, that for his part he knew better how to defend the place, than ever to think of surrendering it, and that he would by his actions convince him of it. The Imperial Court continues still here, and it's said the Emperors will lye in here.

Hambourg July 27. The Letters from Stockholm say, That the Swedish Fleet was ready to Sail, and that several Ships belonging to it were already at Sea. The Sieur Gravenhal, whom the King of Sweden has appointed his Envoy Extraordinary to the Elector of Brandenburg, is arrived at Stralsund. The Troops of the Duke of Hannover are encamped upon the Weser, and the Cavalry in the adjacent Villages. The Elector of Brandenburg has sent a considerable Body of his Troops into Westphalia, to reinforce the Garisons which he has in those Parts.

Cologne, July 30. Several reports are spread abroad concerning the Siege of Vienna; this is certain, that the Turks have made three or four attacks, and that they have been as often repulsed with great loss, and that the Besieged hitherto defend themselves with great bravery: However it is feared, without a speedy relief, the place will be lost. Prince Waldecke uses his utmost endeavours to hasten away the Troops which the Circles of Bavaria, Franconia and the Upper Rhine have promised to assist the Emperor with. In the mean time the Imperial Army, under the command of the Duke of Lorraine, lyes three or four leagues on this side of Vienna, expecting the conjunction of the Auxiliary Troops. From Metz we have an account, that the French Camp on the Saar is separated, as is likewise that that w's at Landau.

Amsterdam, August 6. A small Vessel arrived here from the Texell, brings an account, that the Squadron of Men of War which lay there, put to Sea yesterday morning; it is reported that they are gone to meet the East India Ships which our Company expects home this year.

Brussels, August 6. On Wednesday night arrived here an Express from Passaw, with Letters of the 26th past, to the Marquess de Grana; which as we are told, give an account, That Vienna is in a very good Condition, being well provided with all things necessary for its defence; That the Turks have hither to gained very little, having been repulsed with great loss in all the Attacks they have made. That the King of Poland has assured the Emperor that he will be before Vienna on the 20th instant with his whole Army, and that he will force the Turks to retire or come to a General Battle. That the Duke of Lorraine is encamped at Krems on the Danube, and that so soon as the Auxiliary Forces of the Empire (which he expects daily) have joyned him, he will pass the River and advance nearer the Enemy. We hear nothing farther of Count Teckeleys being killed, nor of the taking of Esperries and Caska by the Imperialists, but the news of Count Serinus being seized and sent Prisoner to Tyrol, for holding Intelligence with Count Teckeleys is confirmed. The Letters from Spain give us an account that the Spanish Fleet, consisting of two and twenty Men of War, carrying from seventy to sixty Guns, sailed the 12th past from Cadix to joyn the Gallies in the Mediterranean.

London, July 30. The Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of this City have chosen Edward Wynne, Esq. Councillor at Law, to be Steward of the Borough of Southwark, for the knowledge they have of his Loyalty and good affection to the Government.

Whitehall, August 1. Their Majesties are returned with the whole Court to Windsor.
