INTIMATION TO RELATIONS.

JAMES BERTRAM, some time of Bellfield, near Biggar, in the County of Lanark, afterwards of Saint Patrick-Square, Edinburgh, having left a legacy of £2,000 to his first, second, and third cousins, and Mr. Bertram's Trustees having raised a process of Multiplepointing before the Court of Session for dividing the same, Lord Medwyn, Ordinary, upon the 6th June current, pronounced an Interlocutor in the following terms:

“ Finds the raisers of the Multiplepointing liable only in once and single payment; and in respect they have set forth in their summons that they have consigned the amount of the fund, in medio, in the Royal Bank of Scotland, upon a receipt by the Cashier thereof, holds the summons as a condescendence of the funds in their hands, and appoints them, within ten days from this date, to lodge the receipt by the Cashier of the Royal Bank, made payable to such person or persons as shall be preferred to the fund, in medio, at the termination of this process, in the Clerk's hands, there to remain, subject to the orders of the Lord Ordinary or the Court; also appoints all the defenders and claimants, betwixt and the first sederunt day in November next, to state their respective claims, in the form of condescendences; in the manner pointed out by the late Act of Sederunt, producing therewith their grounds of debt and other writings for instructing their claims: and further appoints intimation of this Interlocutor to be made to the first, second, and third cousins of the deceased James Bertram, Esq. some time of Bellfield, near Biggar, in the County of Lanark, being the descendants of his father's two sisters, Janet and Marion Bertram, in the Minute Book, and in the Edinburgh Evening Courant; Edinburgh Caledonian Mercury; Edinburgh Advertiser; Glasgow Courier; Glasgow Chronicle; Edinburgh Gazette; Edinburgh, Leith, and Glasgow Advertiser; London Gazette; London Times; and London Courier.”

The first, second, and third cousins of the said deceased James Bertram, or any person or persons claiming a share of the foresaid legacy in the right of any of them, are hereby called on to produce their claims, with the instructions thereof, in the hands of Mr. Robert Menzies, Depute Clerk of Session, at his Office, in the Register-House, Edinburgh, within the time specified in the Interlocutor before copied.

The Affairs of SIR CHARLES SUTTON, deceased.

Grantbam, July 5, 1828.

ALL persons having any claim or demands upon the estate and effects of Sir Charles Sutton, late a Colonel in His Majesty's Army, and Knight Commander of the Bath, deceased, are required to transmit an account thereof, with the nature of their securities (if any), to Charles Downes, Esq. No. 8, Regent-Street, London, or to Mr. Manners, Solicitor, Grantbam, Lincolnshire, in order that the same may be examined and discharged.

By order of the Administrators,
THO. MANNERS, Solicitor.

CAPE COAST, AFRICA.

ALL persons having any claim on the estate of the late Mr. P. J. Fraser (who died on board His Majesty's Ship Maidstone on her passage from Cape Coast, Africa, to England, in June 1827), are requested to send in the particulars of the same to Mr. James Richardson, No. 72, Wapping, on or before the 31st day of December, otherwise they will lose the benefit of such claim.

JAMES RICHARDSON.

Skinnners'-Hall, July 3, 1828.

THE Worshipful Company of Skinnners hereby give notice, that they are ready to grant several loans, of £200 each, to young Freemen of the Company, for the space of three years, at interest after the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum, upon security to be approved of by the Master and Wardens.—All Freemen applying for the loans must have served an apprenticeship of seven years to their trade or business, and must also have been employed two years at the least as journeymen at wages, and must be householders of good repute, and produce proper testimonials of apprenticeship and servitude, and of their capability to give the required security.

T. G. KENSIT, Clerk.

In the Affairs of Messrs SANSOME and BLAKESLEY, Bankers, Hinckley, both as to their Joint and Separate Estates.

ALL persons having any claim or demand whatsoever against Messrs. Thomas Sansome and John Blakesley, late of Hinckley, in the County of Leicester, Bankers and Copartners, or against the separate estates of either of them the said Thomas Sansome and John Blakesley, which became due on or before the 28th day of January 1826, or against the Trustees appointed on behalf of themselves and other the Creditors of the said Messrs. Sansome and Blakesley, both on and for their said joint and separate accounts and estates, under or by virtue of certain indentures of assignment, duly executed and respectively dated the said 28th day of January 1826, are required immediately to send in particulars thereof to the said Trustees, at Hinckley aforesaid, in order that the same may be examined, and the said claims and demands respectively settled and discharged; and all persons holding any promissory or banker's notes payable on demand, or otherwise, of or by the said Messrs. Sansome and Blakesley; are hereby required to present the same, and demand payment thereof forthwith, at the Bank of Messrs. Pares and Co. in Leicester, in the said County, and at Hinckley aforesaid; and notice is hereby also given, that all dividends upon the joint and separate debts and estates of the said Messrs. Sansome and Blakesley, which shall not be claimed and received by the person or persons respectively entitled thereto within 28 days from the date hereof, will be by the said Trustees paid over and refunded to the said Messrs. Sansome and Blakesley for their own respective use.—Dated July 14, 1828.

SCULTHORPE and JARVIS, Solicitors to the said Trustees.
