

with Ambition, Malice, and Revenge, durst Attempt. At the thoughts of which, we cannot but tremble, being sensible that in such a Hellish Enterprize, the Massacre of all good Subjects, as well as of their Prince, must be designed.

With all Humility therefore we render the Glory to God for his signal Providence in the Preservation of your most Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Brother, from their Horrid Assassination, and with Joy congratulate our own deliverance in yours, assuring your Majesty that we are and will always be ready with our Lives and Fortunes to oppose all such Treasonable Practices, and to detect and bring to condign Punishment all the Authors and Abettors of this or any other Rebellious Designs.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and other Principal Inhabitants and Free-men of King's-Lynn in Norfolk.

WE Your Majesties Loyal and Obedient Subjects, Considering with Horror and Amazement the Traiterous and Bloody Conspiracy late discovered for Compelling the Death of Your Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Brother, carried on by the restless Malice of Factional Dissenters, and Desperate Atheists, Do with thankful Hearts bless the King of Kings, by whose All-Ruling Providence your Royal Persons were Preserved. Their hellish Designs disappointed and brought to light. And your good Subjects delivered from the dreadful consequences that had most certainly ensued.

And we beseech your Majesty to accept Graciously this our earpest Zeal of expressing our passionate Resentments against those horrid and damnable Practices, and our firm Resolutions to defend your Sacred Person and Government, and your Heirs and lawful Successors, with the utmost of our Lives and Fortunes, against all treasonable attempts whatsoever.

May your Majesty be Blessed with long Life and Increase of Happiness, to the Joy of your Loyal Subjects, and overthrow of your Enemies, and may Monarchy Succeed in its right Line of Descent so long as the Sun and Moon endure.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and burgeses of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough and Port of Liverpool in the County of Lancaster.

Dread Sovereign,

ALthough we live in one of those remote Counties which enjoy not the happiness of Your Majesties Presence, yet are we not deprived of the benign Influence of that Gentle and Auspicious Government, which at once shews Your Majesty to be the host of Princes and of Men. And therefore we cannot but express our early and just Abhorrence of those Traiterous and Unparalleled Designs which were intended (at the same time) to destroy Your Majesty's Royal Person, and your Dearest Brother, and carry'd on by a Faction and restless sort of Men, who cannot endure Prerogative, because it secures the Property of your Majesty's good Subjects, over whom they would Tyrannize, as formerly they have done. A sort of Men, whose Infectious Antimonarchical Principles are enough to empoison all that are not sufficiently prepared with the infallible Antidote of Loyalty. But we hope that this repeated instance of God's signal Providence, will convince us all that your Majesty is reserv'd to be the Scourge of Rebels and Traitors; and that the Councils of your Faithful Husbands shall ever prevail against the united Force of all aspiring Absalom's, and the desperate advice of all pestilent Achitophels. And now (Great Sir) what more remains, but that we render our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God for His gracious and wonderful Deliverance of your Majesties Sacred Person, and your Royal Brother, from the Sins of Violence. And to assure your Majesty that we shall be always ready to defend your Majesties Royal Person, your Heirs and Successors in the Right Line, the present Establish'd Government both in Church and State, with the utmost of our Fortunes, and the extremity of our Lives, against all Plots, Associations, and Conspiracies whatsoever.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Burgeses, Commonalty, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Borough of Darentree.

Dread Sovereign,

WE presume with all Humility, to approach your Majesty, and with all Sincerity to declare our irreconcilable Detestation and Abhorrence of that Execrable Conspiracy which lately (by God's Providence was Discovered) whereby divers wicked Persons did design the Destruction of your Majesty and of your Royal Brother the Duke of York; And that in a time when by the Influence of your Majesties prudent Conduct, this Nation was in a Prosperous state both of Peace and Plenty.

We take this Occasion to return our Hearty Thanks to Almighty God, that He hath brought their wicked Counsel to nought, and that He hath unveiled the Dissimulations of those Hypocrites, and with Loyal and resolute Hearts unfeignedly to declare unto the World, that we will readily lay down our Lives and Fortunes, and whatsoever is dear unto us, in the defence of your Majesties Royal Person and Government, and of your Heirs and Successors, in opposition of all Factional Combinations, and all Seditious Associations whatsoever.

We beseech God who hath Miraculously restored your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors, and hath at this time extraordinarily protected your Majesty from those wicked Designs and Contrivances, that He would still preserve your Majesty in all Felicity, and grant that your Majesty may Reiga over us many years in all Prosperity.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgeses, and Assistants, and other Inhabitants of Okchampton in the County of Devon, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

ALthough this your Majesties Corporation may be counted one of the meanest Tribes that have this second time Addressed your Majesties Throne, yet our Loyalty to your Majesties Sacred Person and Royal Government, and our humble Gratitude for all the precious Fruits of it, are of the same extent and sincerity with all those numerous Corporations that have took Precedency of us only in their Recognitions to your Majesty.

We cheerfully tread in the same venerable steps of their Allegiance, and with equal and unshaken Allegiance we detest all Covenants and Associations of whatsoever Quality or Original (whether that which was called the Solemn League, or that more Puny one proved to be found in my Lord Shaftsbury's Cloister) that may in the least Infringe upon the blessed Establishment of your Majesties Crown in its Lineal Succession, and that Excellent Religion that now Flourishes under its Royal Shadow and Protection, in the defence of both which we shall heartily joyn, as 'tis our bounden Duty, with all your Majesties Liege Subjects, to the utmost Effusion of our Blood and Treasure.

In the mean while whenever it shall be your Majesties pleasure to Summon a Parliament, we Unanimously resolve to use our utmost endeavours to choose such as shall be not only Representatives of this your Majesties Borough but of this our avow'd Allegiance, Praying always that the Almighty would preserve your Majesties Person, Crown and Dignity, against the Rabble of our Church and State.

Ratisbonne, July 29 The 26. instant the Count de Crecy the French Minister, presented a Memorial to the Diet, wherein he acquaints them, That the King his Master would not take advantage of the condition the Emperor is at present in by the War with the Turks; and therefore does offer to make a Truce with his Imperial Majesty and the Empire for 30 years, upon condition they do consent to it before the end of the next Month. The Bishop of Aichstadt has sent an Express to inform the Emperor of this Proposition, and is expecting his orders upon it. In the mean time the Debates concerning the point of the publick security and the lending a speedy assistance to the Emperor, have been renewed; But the Electoral Colledge persists in their former conclusion, That it is absolutely necessary to establish a firm Peace with the Crown
