Whitehall, August 11.

The following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common-Council of Your Majesty's Town and Borough of Colchester, in Common-Council Assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects cannot without infinite Astonishment, take notice how that (notwithstanding the constant experience of Peace and Plenty under the Influence of Your Majesty's Gracious Government ever since Your Majesty's happy and Miraculous Restauration) there should remain any such Wicked, Bloody, and Ill-principled Men, as by the Good Providence of God (whom we desire for this to Adore) are now discovered to be Conspiring the Destruction of Your Majesty's Sacred Person, and Your Dearest Brother his Royal Highness the Duke of York, and consequently the Subverting of the Ancient Government of this Kingdom, and bringing upon us unspeakable Miseries and Confusions,

And as we do with an Unanimous Consent declare our utmost Abhorrence of this Horrid Conspiracy and all Principles that lead to it, so do we heartily Congratulate Your Majesty and his Royal Highness's safe Deliverance from that Traiterous and Hellish Design; and we do humbly beseech Your Majesty to be assured of our full and fixt Resolutions, that we shall with the utmost hazard of our Lives and Fortunes defend Your Majesty's Royal Person, and the Government as by Law Established both in Church and State, against all Preences whatsoever; And shall always Pray for Your Majesty's long, peaceable, and happy Reign over us.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, Assembled at a Quarter Sessions, together with the Grand Jury of the County of Brecknock, July 10. 1683.

May it please your Majesty,

THough Obedience and Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty, be a Duty incumbent on us from God Almighty, and that a publique Profession of it would seem unnecessary; Yet, when we live to see private Associations and Contrivances, grown up to the extreme height of Barbarism and Impiety, even to attempt Assassinations against the Lives of your Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Brother (The Duke) at one Blow designing to Destroy your Royal Family, the rooting out the Established Religion, and Subversion of Monarchy; We may be allowed (even by those that cloak their Disaffection under the names of a Moderate and sober Party) to own our Allegiance, and to declare, that with Horror and Amazement we detest so Treasonable an Attempt, and that (as in Duty, and all imaginable Gratitude we ought) we will be always ready, with our Hearts and Arms, Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Sacred Majesty, your Lawful Successors, our Established Religion, and the Government, against any Conspiracies or Attempts whatsoever. And (while we live) we shall always praise the God of our Salvation for your Majesties many Miraculous Preservations, ever pray for your perpetual Prosperity, and (when commanded) put the Duty we thus own into Act, as becomes,

(May it please Your Majesty,)

Your Majesties most Duty, most Loyal, and most Obedient Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and burgeses of Your Majesty's Corporation of Brecknock, July 9. 1683.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty having been graciously pleased to accept of the Sincere Expressions of our Duty, at a time, when your Sacred Majesty was threatened with Treasonable Associations, and Alarm'd with multitudes of Ingrateful Enemies. We (Your Majesty's ever Loyal Subjects) cannot but hope for your Majesty's pardon, if once more we lay our selves at your Majesties Feet, to declare our Amazement at, and Detestation of those horrid, damn'd Conspiracies that have (lately) been Contrived against your Sacred Person, and your Royal Brother; and to praise Almighty God, while we breathe, for Your Miraculous Preservation. And we humbly beg Your Sacred Majesty to believe, That as we shall always pray for your Sacred Person, and the happy continuance of the Government, in your Majesty, and your Lawful Successors, So we shall readily expose our Lives and Fortunes, and all that's dear to us, in Your, and Their defence, whenever your Majesty shall please to lay your Commands upon us. And this with all Sincerity and truth from the Hearts of

(May it please your Majesty)

Your Majesties most Obedient, Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects and Servants.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WH your Majesties most Faithful, Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Assistants of Your Corporation and Borough of Ripon Having in our Serious thoughts considered the Horrid and Treasonable Practices used in the late Times, not only against the Sacred Person of your Royal Father, of ever blessed Memory, but even against Monarchy it self, the Dissolution whereof, together with our Religion Laws, Rights, and Liberties, seem'd fully Accomplished. And finding the same Devilish Principle still working ever since your Majesties happy Restauration, which is now broke out in the late Damnable Conspiracy against your Majesties Royal Person, and that of your only Brother the Duke of York, intending in that Blow the total Ruine of this Flourishing Kingdom. Our Horror and Detestation of this Villany is not to be equalled by any thing, but our Joy for your Majesties and the Dukes deliverance from it. Humbly begging of your Majesty to accept this hearty Congratulation; And we humbly beseech your Majesty to believe, that we shall all of us in our Stations be ready to assist your Majesty against all Attempts and Conspiracies of what nature soever, for the preservation of your Majesties Sacred Person, and Government; your Heirs and Lawful Successors; and the Protestant Religion as now by Law established. Imploiring that Almighty Power, whose Providence has watcht over us

Still to preserve your Majesty and your Royal Family to Rule over these Kingdoms to all Ages;

Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE your Majesties most Loyal and Faithful Subjects, the Grand Jury Sworn to enquire for the body of the County of Montgomery, are very apprehensive of a very Barbarous and Villanous Conspiracy against the Lives of your most Sacred Majesty and your dear Brother James Duke of York, managed and secretly carried on by Fanatical, Atheistical, Discontented, Desperate Villains, apparently designing the utter Ruine of this Flourishing Church and Kingdom, and Involving the whole Nation in a Sea of Blood, had not Almighty Providence once more most Miraculously delivered You from the hands of Blood-thirsty, and unreasonable Men.

In a deep Sense of which signal Mercy we offer up to Almighty God, our unfeigned Prayers of Praise and Thanksgiving, for your Majesties most Providential Preservation, and continual Prayers, that after your Majesties very long and happy Reign over us, your Lawful Heirs and Successors, may ever Succeed in this Monarchy; And we offer our Lives, Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, to defend You, against all Traiterous Affiliations and Hellish Conspiracies whatsoever. And we likewise earnestly desire the Concurrences of the Justices of the Peace to this our humble Address.

We the Justices of the Peace of the said County, that are present at the General Sessions of the Peace held at Montgomery, for the said County, the 12th day of July, 1683. have Subscribed our Names hereunto.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of your Majesties Justices of Peace, and of the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Hexham for the County of Northumberland, the Eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord God one thousand six hundred eighty and three.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being convinced, that through the Ambitious Machinations of some, no-less ungrateful than Traiterous, a most Hellish Conspiracy hath been contrived, to compals, at one blow, the Death and Destruction of your Majesties Sacred Person, and of your Royal and only Brother James Duke of York, as if nothing less could satisfy the implacable Rage and Malice of these Monsters of men, acted by Fanatical and Republican Principles, than the utter Extirpation of the Royal Lineage, nay and of Monarchy it self, which must necessarily have brought on the whole Nation, all the Horrid Calamities, that the Subversion of our Religion, the Entailing of a Bloody War, and the erecting of an Arbitrary Power in the hands of our Fellow Subjects, could possibly produce, had not the Providence of the Almighty brought to light their Hidden Deeds of darkness.

Hereupon we being highly sensible of this blessed Deliverance of your Majesties Sacred Person, and of your Dearest and only Brother, wrought by the Finger of God, amongst many other signal Mercies, do hereby solemnly declare, that We will to our utmost Abilities oppose all such Execrable Designs whatsoever: And for the Defence of your Majesties Person and Lawful Successors, the Royal Prerogative and our Religion as by Law established, do with unalterable Loyalty prostrate our Lives and Fortunes at your Majesties Feet, in whose custody alone, under Heaven, they ought to be intrusted, or can be secure; being ready with Obedience and Resolution upon your Royal Summons, in this Extraordinary Juncture, to appear with the best assistance we can make for the Defence of your Majesties Person, and the Preservation of the Crown in its true course of Descent.

These hearty and unfeigned Resolutions are Reinforced with our best Devotions to the King of Heaven, that he would still guard your Majesties Sacred Person, from all Conspiracies of Blood-Thirsty and Deceitful men, and that he would long prosper your Majesty and your Royal Family for a Blessing to succeeding Generations.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Bakewell in and for Your Majesty's County of Derby, the 10th. day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesty's most happy Reign.

WE your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, Having from your Majesties Royal Proclamations received Information to our great Horror and Amazement, of a Discovery of a most Traiterous, Horrid, and Damnable Conspiracy of divers Dilloyal and Desperate Persons, to Kill and destroy your Royal Person, and the Person of your Dearest Brother James Duke of York, who for the effecting the same, have held several Consultations to levy War and make an Insurrection, and made great provision of Arms; a Design not only evidently tending to the present Destruction of your most Sacred Person, (the best of Princes) but also of Your best Subjects, being persons again so wickedly Anacious, as to speak to the People the very same Prologue, and to enter upon the same Prelude that preceded that Execrable Tragedy, the horrid Murder and Regicide of your Royal Father, of ever blessed Memory, and in one and the same Age, endeavouring to delude the People over again under the same specious pretences of Religion, and the Liberty of the Subject; thereby not only designing to wound the forms of the most glorious Government of the World, both of Church and State, but to bring us and our Posterity into Confusion Anarchy, Misery, and Blood.

Therefore as we are Christians and your Majesties dutiful Subjects, having in the first place offered up our most solemn Thanks to Almighty God for his watchful and often repeated Providence, in bringing to light this Impious & former Execrable Designs: We do in the next place think our selves Obligated in Conscience, and by an Indispensable Duty, humbly to offer to your Majesty, our deep and Loyal Repentments of the same, and do faithfully assure your Majesty that we value no Interest in the World comparable to your Majesties Service and Safety, and are fully determined in defence thereof, and of Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and Government established both of Church and State, to expose our Lives and Fortunes, and in our several Stations will use our utmost endeavours to discover and bring to Justice all Affiliators, Conspirators, and Traitors, whatsoever. And we do declare, That if there should be any in this County that shall refuse to joyn with us in these our Repentments, we shall deem such no better than Confederates and Approvers of the said wicked Conspiracy.

And we do further assure your Majesty, that these our Resolutions had been more early declared to your most Sacred Majesty, had there been an occasion sooner to have convened us into this Body. Neither do they proceed from the Examples of others who had an opportunity to be before us, as from our own Naturally Loyal inclinations, and are accompanied with our daily and hearty Prayers, that all your Majesties enemies may be speedily discovered, vanquished, and overcome, and that your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign over us.

We your Majesties Justices of the Peace for the County aforesaid, Assembled at the General Quarter Sessions aforesaid, held for the said County the Day and Year aforesaid, do heartily Concur with the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury in this their Loyal Address to your Majesty, containing the Repentments of the late horrid Conspiracy And in our Prayers for Your Majesties health and Prosperity. And though for the more timely signifying this our Loyalty to your most Sacred Majesty, we present it attended only at present with the Subscriptions of us and the Grand Jury, Yet we shall with as much Industry as may be, make a further Trial of the Loyalty of the rest of your Majesties Subjects in this County, in this particular, and doubt not but in a short time to give your Majesty a good account of the hearty Concurrence of divers others being firmly fixt with the Grand Jury in their Resolutions as to our Opinion of those Persons who shall refuse to joyn with us therein.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,

WE your Majesties truly Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council and Inhabitants of Your Ancient Borough of Derby, Being deeply sensible of the great Blessings we and the rest of Your Domi-

Dom' n have enjoy'd, not only by your Majesties Miracles and p^r R^estitution, but also by your Majesties great and Gr^a Government; Cannot but with Horror and Amazement hear of the Bloody and wicked Conspiracies and Machination of the Old Enemies of our Peace and Happiness. And we from the bottom of our Souls Praise and Magnifie the continued Mercies of our good God towards your Majesty and all us, in Detecting the late Horrid and Bloody Conspiracy against your Majesty and Royal Brother: And since it hath pleased Almighty God to deliver up so many of your Majesties and our Enemies into Your Hands, we hope, since Your Clemency hath had so ill Effect, your Majesty will be Graciously pleased, to Terrifie all wicked and Bloody Men from the like Attempts, by Your Exemplary Justice. And the great God of Heaven and Earth continue his Blessings to your Sacred Majesty, with a long, happy, peaceable, and prosperous Reign, and in length of time, with Happiness Eternal, and to all us in your Royal Family: That we may never want one thereof to sit upon your Royal Throne, whilst the Sun and Moon endureth, shall ever be the Cordial and hearty Prayers of

Your Sacred Majesty's truly Humble,
Dutiful, and Loyal Subjects

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, Bayliffs and Burgessees of Cambridge, having with Horror and Amazement heard of a most wicked and detestable Conspiracy, contrived and entered into by Factious and Schismatical Persons, for the Compassing the Deaths of your Sacred Majesty, and his Royal Highness your Dear Brother, and the Subverting the Government now by Law established, do with all Thankfulness and Joy acknowledge the Divine Mercy and Favour by a signal Providence, disappointing and discovering the Authors and Actors in that Horrid Conspiracy, to their just Punishment, and the eternal Reproach and Infamy of them, and all their Factious Abettors.

And, Dread Sir, with great Humility we crave leave to assure your Majesty, That as we shall daily offer up our sincere and fervent Prayers unto Almighty God, by whom Kings Reign, still to protect and defend your Sacred and beloved Life, from all the wicked Attempts and Practices of the Enemies of your Person and Government. So will we ever stand firm in this Loyal Resolution, (as in duty bound) to adventure our Lives and Fortunes for the Defence of your Sacred Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now by Law established, against all Traiterous Associations and Treasonable Attempts whatsoever. Dated under our Common Seal the seventeenth day of July, in the five and thirtieth year of your Majesties gracious Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgessees of your Majesties ancient Burrough of Newbery in the County of Berks; As also of the Grand Jury, Free-men and Inhabitants of the said Burrough; At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held for the said Burrough, on the 14th day of July 1683.

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, duly considering the great and manifold Blessings of Almighty God vouchsafed to this Nation, in giving us so good and gracious a Prince to Reign over us, and the great Happiness, Peace and Tranquillity we daily enjoy thereby; cannot without Horror and Amazement of mind, think of the many Impious and Wicked Designs and Contrivances of Ill-affected and Blood thirsty men, who under pretence of Religion and Reformation, have conspired the Death and Destruction of your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, and of your Royal Brother the Duke of York; and the involving your Majesties Kingdoms in Anarchy, Blood and Confusion, whose unparalleled Villanies, by the Gracious Providence of Almighty God, have been lately brought to light and discovered.

All which Damnable Plots, Conspiracies, and Associations, we do most heartily and sincerely detest and abhor, and will not cease to implore Almighty God, that the same may be yet more fully detected and brought to light, that to the Disturbers of your Majesties Government, and our Peace, may receive due Punishment.

And we most humbly crave leave, to assure your Sacred Majesty; (that as we are in duty bound) so we are unanimously resolved, to bear true Allegiance and Obedience to your Sacred Majesty, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and to assist your Sacred Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, together with all that is near and dear unto us, in the Defence of your Royal Person and Government, both in Church and State, as by Law is established.

To which we most Humbly add our daily Prayers, that Almighty God will be pleased of his infinite Goodness, to Grant your Sacred Majesty a long and prosperous Reign over us, to unite the Hearts of all Your Majesties Subjects, truly to Honour and Obey your Sacred Majesty as our Sovereign, and to Confound all the Hellish and Wicked Plots and Conspiracies of all your Majesties Enemies, against your Royal Person and Government.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester in Common Council Assembled, as well upon the Unanimous Presentation, and Subscriptions of the Grand Jury and Justices of the Peace, as all the rest of the Inhabitants of the said City, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in the Guild-Hall, held there the Twelfth day of this instant July, and Sealed with the Common Seal of the said City, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE Your most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, Having with great Horror and Amazement, taken notice of a most Hellish and Bloody Conspiracy, contrived and carried on against your most Sacred Person and Dear Brother, by the Devilish Joyned Consultations of sturdy Conventicles and other Atheistical Persons, thereby to involve your Kingdom in Blood and Confusion, and utterly to destroy the best Religion and Government in the World.

Do in the first place render unto Almighty God our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks for discovering and preventing this their damnable Conspiracy, praying that the same Miraculous Providence may for ever guard and defend your sacred Person and Throne.

And we do withal assure your Majesty that we shall be always ready with our best endeavours, and to our utmost powers (as in duty bound) to disclose and make known all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies, and to bring the Authors of them to condign Punishment, and with our Lives and Fortunes from time to time assist and defend your Royal Person, State and Government, and your Lawful Heirs and Successors, against all Plots, Covenants, Associations, Conspiracies and Treasonable Practices whatsoever.

We are, Dread Sir, your Majesties
most Obedient Citizens and Subjects.

Dantzicke, August 7. The King of Poland uses all the diligence he can to draw his Forces together, being resolved to march in Person to the relief of Vienna; In order whereunto he arrived the 29. ult. at Cracaw, after having been to perform his Devotions at Crenitochow.

From the Imperial Camp near Presbourg, August 1. The Duke of Lorraine having received advice that Count Tockely marched towards Presbourg, having a body of Turks joyned with his own Troops, his Highness advanced towards them, but the Enemy upon the news of it, thought fit to retire, whereupon the Polish Troops under the Command of the Chevalier de Lubomirski were ordered to fall upon their Rear, the Duke of Lorraine following with the whole Army in Battalia; The Turks retired in much disorder towards Newhufel, and Count Tockely repassed the Waag, having lost a great many men, most of his Baggage, and a great number of Waggon's laden with provisions, which were cut off by the Poles, who killed and themselves very well.

Frankfort, August 19. We have not by the last Letters from Lintz and Passaw, any particular account of the Siege of Vienna, but in the general we are assured that the besieged make a brave defence, and that the place is in no danger as yet, The Auxiliary Troops of the Empire are halting to their relief; and it's confidently said, that the King

King of Poland will be very near Vienna by the 20. of this Month; and that the Polish Troops under the Command of Chevalier Lubomirski, have already joyned the Imperial Army. There are Letters from Presbourg, which tell us, That the Duke of Lorrain had fallen upon Count Teckely near that place, and had defeated part of his Troops, and taken his Baggage and Provisions, of which we expect our next Letters will inform us more particularly.

Berlin, Aug. 5. The Elector of Brandenburg has sent orders to several Regiments quartered in Prussia, which, it's said, will together make a Body of between 10 and 12000 Men, to march to Crossen, the place appointed for their Rendezvous, at which his Electoral Highness intends to be himself present. They are, it's said, designed for the assistance of the Emperor against the Turks, and will be commanded by Velt-Marihal Dorffing; and besides these Troops his Electoral Highness has sent a considerable Detachment to join the Polish Army. The King of Poland has written to his Electoral Highness from Cracaw, to acquaint him that he was going to the relief of Vienna.

Copenhagen, August 7. The King of Denmark is parted from hence for Holstein, having appointed a general Rendezvous of his Troops at Ordenslo. The Danish and French Fleets lie still before this place. The King of Sweden is arrived in Schonen.

Hamburg, Aug. 13. The King of Denmark is expected this Evening at Oldenslo, where he has appointed the general Rendezvous of his Troops, and they are accordingly marching thither. The Letters we received by the last Post from Warsaw, told us, that the King of Poland arrived the 29th past at Cracaw, in order to his marching with what Force he could bring together to the relief of Vienna, and that the Crown-Generall, and the Under-Generall, were marching with several Troops to meet the King.

Hague, Aug. 17. The 12th instant the Fleet of this State, consisting of 20 Ships, under the command of Lieutenant Admiral Bajlaenz, was seen off of Seeveling, having orders, as we are told, to Cruise on these Coasts. Several other Men of War are fitted out at Amsterdam, and in the Maeze, to reinforce this Fleet. The Letters come in this day from Germany, tell us, that the Besieged in Vienna defend themselves with great Bravery, and that the Auxilliary Troops are drawing together to march to their relief.

Marseilles, August 9. Since our last, two or three other Barks are arrived from Argiers, which confirm the account we had of Babba Hassan's being cut off, and that the Soldiery had put the Government into the hands of Medze Morto, a Sea Caprain; Who having been delivered by Babba Hassan to Monsieur du Quesne as an Hostage, was afterwards sent back by him to dispose those People to yield to the Terms he proposed in order to a Peace; but Medze Morto being come ashore, instead of performing the Commission he had undertaken employed his Interest with the Soldiery to dissuade them from consenting to so disadvantageous a Peace, and to cut off the Promoters of it, wherein he succeeded, and having destroyed Babba Hassan and his Party, was himself declared King; that thereupon Monsieur du Quesne had renewed Hostilities, and did again batter the Town with his Cannon and Bombes, and that he had done great execution with them, having beaten down several Houses and Mosques, and destroyed some hundreds of the Inhabitants; but that after all, those People continued very obdurate, and resolved not to yield to his demands. In this last account no mention is made of the French having been Masters of the Mold, or of their having lost any Captains of the Gallies, so that the report we had of it is not believed.

Paris, August 18. The Prince of Conti, who was as far as Frankfort, in order to his going into the War against the Turks, is according to the Kings command returned hither. The last Letters we have from Germany, give an account, that the Duke of Lorrain had defeated a Body of Hungarian and Turkish Troops, under the command of Count Teckelely, and had taken all their Baggage, and 1000 Waggon laden with Ammunition and Provisions; and that in this Action the Chevalier de Lubomirski, who commanded 6000 Poles, had particularly signalized himself. The last account we have from Monsieur du Quesne is, That since the Assassination of Babba Hassan, and the Election of Medze Morto to be their King, the Algerines seem resolved not to yield to his demands; That he has again made use of his Cannon and Bombes with good success, but that the Gallies whose business it has been to tow the Galliot, which shoot the Bombes, within half Cannon shot of the Town, have suffered very much, and lost a great many men. There is a discourse at Court, that the King intends to take very suddenly a Journey to Chambray, and that the Troops are moving. The Pope's Nuntio is to make his publick Entry on Sunday next. It is said that orders are sent to Monsieur du Quesne, not to continue any longer before Argiers, for that the season is coming on, which is generally attended with very dangerous Winds.
