TE your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, Having from your Majesties Royal Proclamations received Information to our great Horror and Amagement, of a Discovery of a most Traiterous, Horrid, and Damna-ble Conspiracy of divers Disloyal and Desperate Persons, to Dearett Brother James Duke of York, who for the effecting the same, have held several Consultations to levy War and make an Insurrection, and made great provision of Arms; a Defign not only evidently tending to the present Destruction of your most Sacred Person. (the best of Princes) but also of Your best Subjects, being persons again so wickedly Andacious, as to speak to the People the very same Prologue, and to enter upon the same Prælude that preceded that Execuable Tra-gedy, the horrid Murther and Regicide of your Royal Fa-ther, of ever bleffed Memory, and in one and the same Age, endeavouring to delude the People over again under the lame Age, endeavouring to delude the People over again under the lame Specious pretences of Religion, and the Liberty of the Subject; thereby not only deligning to wound the forms of the most glorious Government of the World, both of Church and State, but to bring us and our Potterity into Confusion Anarchy, Milery, and Blood.

And we do declare, That if there should be any in this County that shall refuse to joyn with us in thefe our Refentments, we it all deem fuch no better than Confederates and Approvers of the faid wicked Conspiracy.

Neither do they proceed from the Examples of others who had an oportunity to be before us, as from our own Naturally Loyal inclinations, and are accompanied with our daily and he rty Prayer, that all your Majeffies hermies may be speedily diffeovered, vanquished, and overcome, and the transfer and the first prayer was along and profined.
