

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 13. to Thursday August 16. 1683.

Whitehall, August 15.

THe following Addreffes having been prefented to His Maj^{ty}, His Majesty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble and unanimous Adreff of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliſſes and Burgeſſes of your Maſteſties ancient and Loyal Corporation of Wigan, at the Common-Hall there Aſſembled, July 10. 1683.

Dread Sovereign,

When we heard of the late villanous Conſpiracy againſt the Life of your Maſteſties Sacred Perſon, and your Royal Brother James Duke of York, contrived and carried on by Factious Republicans and Fanatick Zealots, we were not more aſtoniſhed at the Horrid Treafon, than deeply affected with the bounty of that Divine Providence, which ſo reaſonably diſcovered the Deſigns of Blood and Treachery, and ſo happily prevented that diſmal Confuſion which ſuch Barbarous Attempts had inevitably involved the Nation in.

We therefore with the moſt devout gratitude to God, thankfully acknowledge this maniſteſt token of Heavens Favour; and with the moſt affectionate Loyalty, heartily congratulate your Maſteſties Happy Deliverance from the Snares of death, and the Bloody hands of Mercileſs Aſſaſſinates, together with the Safety of His Royal Highneſs your only Brother, and next Succeſſor to the Imperial Crown of this Realm.

Our Tongues cannot expreſs our thankfulneſs to God ſuitable to our inward ſenſe of his kindneſs herein to us; our words cannot equal the rejoycing of our Souls at your Safety and Deliverance; yet our hearts are warm with the Apprehenſions of both, and we drop Tears of Loyalty both when we tremble at the Danger, and rejoyce at the Deliverance.

When we ſome time ſince laid at your Sacred Feet, our juſt Abhorrence of that curſed Aſſociation, which apparently gave birth to this wicked Conſpiracy, we eaſily foreſaw the dangerous tendency of ſuch an unlawful Confederacy; and when we now behold the freſh Discoveries of Treafon and Diſloyalty, levelled at the very Foundations of the Government, and the Extirpation of your Royal Family, we think it highly reaſonable to repeat the Aſſurances of our Loyalty, and declare to all the World, that as next to our Religion to God, we count nothing more Sacred, than our Allegiance to his Anointed; ſo nothing can more deeply affect us, than the Dangers your Maſteſty is expoſed to by the reſtleſs Malice of Fanatick Sectaries and Seditious Conventiclers, and nothing can be more near or dear to us, than the Safety and Preſervation of your Maſteſties Sacred Perſon, (whom God long Preſerve) and your Crown and Government, in the lawful Succeſſion of it. In defence of which, we are ready and reſolved to Sacrifice both our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all attempts of the Enemies of your Perſon and Monarchy, and the Oppoſers of your Government in Church or State.

And we ſhall never ceaſe to pray for your Long Life, and Happy Reign, and that we may never want of your Royal Grace to ſway the Scepter of theſe Kingdoms to all Generations.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Adreff of His Maſteſty's Royal Colledge of Phyſicians in London.

May it pleaſe Your Maſteſty,

That Divine Providence is more eſpecially concerned in the protection of Kings and Princes, your Maſteſty is an Instance beyond the Examples of former Ages; You have heretofore often and moſt Miraculoſly eſcaped both the open Force and the ſecret Malice of your Enemies; But the Good hand of God ſeems more immediately appeared for Your Preſervation than in your Maſteſties happy Deliverance from a late Traiterous and Execrable Conſpiracy againſt the Life of your Sacred Maſteſty, and his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, your Deareſt Brother, contrived and carried on by Men of Deſperate and Rebellious Principles, Aſſociated together for the Subverſion of your Maſteſties Government, and to Involve Your Kingdoms in Blood and Confuſion.

We therefore, as it becomes all Loyal Subjects, and more eſpecially a Colledge Founded by Your Royal Anceſtors, and by your Maſteſties Gracious Favour Supported and Amplified, Do in all Humility preſent our ſelves before your Maſteſty, with our moſt humble and hearty Thanks to Almighty God for His infinite Mercy to us and to the whole Nation, in Delivering your Maſteſty from the Bloody hands of Wicked and Unreaſonable Men.

And as we do with all Sincerity profeſs and declare our utter Abhorrence of all ſuch Treafonable Deſigns and Aſſociations, So we humbly beſeech your Maſteſty to be aſſured, that with our Hearts, our Hands, our Lives and Fortunes, and whatſoever is deareſt to us, we ſhall contribute our uttermoſt endeavours for your Maſteſties Preſervation and Happineſs; Praying to Almighty God for Your Maſteſties long and Proſperous Reign over us, and for the continuation of this happy Frame of Government in Your Royal Line, your Heirs and Succeſſors for ever.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Adreff of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Grand Jury, at their General Quarter ſeſſions of the Peace, held for Your Maſteſty's Town and County of Kingſton upon Hull, the Twelfth of July, 1683.

S H E W E T H,

That we Your Loyal and Dutiful Subjects are deeply ſenſible of Your Maſteſties happy Deliverance from that late Horrid Conſpiracy, Plotted againſt the Life of your Sacred Perſon, and Dear Brother, his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York.

And do heartily Bleſs Almighty God for this ſignal Mercy in Your Miraculous Preſervation, beſeeching Him to continue His wonted Providence for Your Maſteſty's long and happy Reign over us. Aſſuring your Maſteſty of our readineſs with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend Your Sacred Perſon and Royal Succeſſors, againſt all Treafonable Conſpiracies whatſoever.

To the King's moſt Excellent Maſteſty.

The humble Adreff of the Mayor, Governours, and Burgeſſes of Your Maſteſty's Ancient Corporation of Beverley in the Eaſt-Ryding of the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign.

When Your Loyal and moſt Dutiful Subjects are Grieved and Amazed to hear of the Traiterous Deſigns and Conſpiracies of a Generation of Men among us, being common Enemies to Religion and Monarchy, who notwithstanding their own experience of the happy Effects of Your Maſteſties gracious Reign for ſo many years paſt; Yet through the Turbulency

Bulency of their Spirits, are Incessant in their Endeavours to put in Execution the most Execrable and worst Designs against the best of Kings; And in order thereunto have contrived the Death of Your Sacred Person and your Royal and only Brother James Duke of York, endeavouring the Subversion of the established Government both of Church and State. We return our unfeigned Thanks to the King of Heaven for Your happy Deliverance from this Hellish Design; And do hereby declare our utter Detestation of such Traiterous Contrivances! Repugnant to the Laws both of God and Nature, desiring Almighty God to grant your Sacred Majesty Protection and long Life, and to retain all Your Subjects in their due Obedience to your Laws and Government. And we do hereby assure Your Majesty that it is no less our firm Resolution than our unquestionable Duty, with our Lives and all that is dear to us, to stand by and defend your Sacred Majesty's Person, Your Lawful Heirs and Successors, and Your Government established in Church and State, against all Traiterous Conspiracies whatsoever. In Testimony whereof we the said Mayor, Governors, and Burgesses, have caused the Common Seal of the said Corporation, to be affixed hereunto, this Seventeenth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of your Sacred Majesty's Reign, Annoq; Dom 1683.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your Majesties Burrough of Richmond, in the County of York.

In all Humility Sheweth,

THAT we your Majesties most Loyal, Faithful, and Dutiful Subjects, being fully satisfied by your Majesties late Gracious Proclamations, of that Damnable and Traiterous Conspiracy against your Majesties Sacred Person, and your P'earrest Brother the Illustrious Prince James Duke of York (who was Graciously pleased to highly honor this Town with his Royal Presence in his Progress to Scotland) founded (as we humbly Conceive) upon that late Hellish Association, and carried on by wicked and ill-affected Persons engaged in the same. We do hereby unanimously declare, not only our great Abhorrence and Detestation of the said Diabolical Association, but also of the said Diabolical and most Execrable Conspiracy, and all the Traiterous Contrivers and Abettors thereof, for the miraculous Discovery of which, we according to our bounden duty do render our hearty thanks to Almighty God, whom we beseech long to preserve and protect your Sacred Majesty. And we do hereby assure your Majesty, that our Lives and Fortunes, and whatsoever else is dear unto us, are absolutely devoted to the Service of your Majesty, your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the Preservation of your Gracious Government established both in Church and State, against all Attempts to the contrary whatsoever: And in Testimony of our Sincerity hereia, We do unanimously further declare, that when your Majesty shall be pleased to call a Parliament, we will not give our Votes for any Persons to be our Representatives, who have not subscribed their Abhorrence to the abovesaid Traiterous Association, or shall be detected to have a hand in the said most Abominable and Detestable Conspiracy. In Witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our Names, and caused the Common Seal of this said Burrough to be affixed at the General Sessions of the Peace, holden for this said Burrough the seventeenth day of July, in the Thirty fifth year of your Majesties Gracious Reign over us.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Wh the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common-Council Assembled, Laying to Heart the late Horrid and Traiterous Conspiracies of several Wicked and Nefarious Persons for the Assassination of Your Majesty's Sacred Person, and of Your most Dear Brother; And having a due sense of God's great Goodness and Divine Providence in the Miraculous and happy Discovery thereof; we account our selves obliged, and it is our bounden Duty, with Hearts full of inflamed Affections and true Zeal, to render our most humble and devout Thanks to Almighty God, and most hearty Congratulations to your Majesty for the same:

Most humbly beseeching your Majesty to rest assured, That nothing is, or can be, more dreadful to us than the apprehension of the sad and dire Effects of such Bloody and Treasonable Designs, so neither are our Lives or Fortunes so dear to any of us, but that with all Alacrity and Cheerfulness we shall be ready and willing, as in Religion and Allegiance bound, to sacrifice them for the defence of Your Majesty's most Sacred Person, Lawful Heirs and Successors, and Government as now by Law is established.

To whose Sacred Person, in particular, we sincerely wish, and most devoutly pray for, a perfect fruition and enjoyment of all Health, Happiness, present and future Felicity in this Life, and in that which is to come.

And for the more publick Testimony thereof, we have to this our humble Address, with the unanimous Assent of this our present Assembly, and Concurrent Advice and Assistance of our Recorder, caused the Common Seal of our City, to be affixed this Eighteenth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most Humble and Congratulatory Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes in Common Council assembled; and of all the Chief Inhabitants of the Corporation of Doncaster in the West Riding of the County of York.

May it please Your Majesty,

When we your Majesties most Faithful and Obedient Subjects do seriously consider how comfortably we enjoy our Properties and Religion under your Majesties Fatherly Care and Government; We cannot but admire that any Person or Persons should be so wickedly insatiated, as Traiterously to conspire the Destruction of your Majesties most Sacred Person, and His Royal Highness the Duke of York, thereby plainly designing the Subversion of the Government both in Church and State. Therefore with hands and hearts lifted up to Heaven, we bless the infinite Goodness of that great God, by whom Kings Reign, for his wonderful Disappointment of this, and all Conspiracies whatsoever, against your Royal Dignity, Person, or Government.

And we do humbly beg leave to assure your Sacred Majesty, that we will cheerfully sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the defence of your Majesties Person, your lawful Heirs and Successors against all Conspiracies whatsoever. And we dare the more confidently say it, in regard we have not one Faction or Seditious Person amongst us, being all true Sons of the Church of England, and Loyal Subjects to your most Sacred Majesty. And we do yet further ascertain your most sacred Majesty, that in the height of all the late Troubles and Confusions, we never had any Conventicle amongst us, the Nurseries and Seed plots of Sedition and Rebellion.

God grant your Majesty a long Life and a Prosperous Reign, and that there may never want one of your Royal Family to sway Great Britains Scepter, is and ever shall be the hearty Prayer, and Loyal endeavor of your Majesties most faithful and obedient Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, your Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace for your Majesties Isle of Ely, and the Grand Jury for the same, at a General Sessions of the Peace holden for the said Isle.

THAT the Phanatics have always designed the Destruction of your Sacred Person and Government, and of all your Royal Line, is most certain, notwithstanding their endeavours to conceal it and impute the same to others. God Almighty be thanked for this reasonable Discovery and Manifestation thereof. And the same God direct your Majesty to put it out of their Power, so much as to dare any more to attempt such Villany. In order whereunto, as a full Evidence of our Duty, We do unanimously declare and assure your Majesty, that with our utmost might and vigilance, we will defend your Royal Person and Government established in Church and State, and the Succession of your Imperial Crowns in the Right Line against all Pretensions and Attempts whatsoever.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury and Justices, at the Assizes held at Chelmsford, the eighteenth day of July 1683.

May it please your Majesty,

WE being struck with Horror and Astonishment at the still continued wicked Conspiracies of the Dissenters from the Church of England, who after their having actually murdered your Majesties Royal Father, (of most Blessed Memory) do Traiterously continue to Conspire to raise Rebellion, and to Murder the Persons of your most Sacred Majesty, and your Dearest Brother the Duke of York, in pursuance of their old Design of extirpating the Race of Kings, and to set up themselves Insufferable Tyrants, over the Lives, Liberties, and Consciences of your Majesty's Loyal and Peaceable Subjects. Upon a due Consideration of the Premises, we esteem our selves bound in duty, to declare all Hatred and Abhorrence of all such impious Villanies, and we bless and praise Almighty God for your Majesties and his Royal Highness's Deliverance from this present Wicked and Horrid Conspiracy, which we hope will be fully detected, so that Justice and due Punishment may reach the Conspirators and their Adherents. And we humbly present to your most Gracious Majesty, our Lives and Estates for the defence of your Sacred Person, your Crown and Dignity, and the right and legal Succession thereof, against all Conspiracies, Associations, and Attempts whatsoever.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, the Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Merioneth Assembled at a Quarter Sessions and General Muster at Dolgelley, the Eleventh day of July, 1683.

Most Dread Sovereign,

UPon the sad and astonishing report of so Black and Execrable a Villany, of so Bloody and Traiterous a Design against your Sacred Person, and that of your Royal Brother. May we have leave to congratulate these Deliverances, making Supplications to that Power that hath so often, so miraculously preserved you, that you both may always be the dear Charge of that Providence which hath so signally appeared in yours as well as your Kingdoms Protection.

May their Devices be Confounded, that endeavour to interrupt our Felicity; Their Plots and Affiliations be their own Ruine, and your Majesty for ever Happy and Triumphant. May the Sons of Violence be never able to harm you; And may you be as safe as an Angel, under whose Wings we cannot otherwise expect, than to find a most sure and certain Refuge.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE the High Sheriff and Justices of the Peace for the County of Salop, whose Names are subscribed, finding by two several late Proclamations, that there hath been a Happy Discovery of a most Horrid and Treasonable Conspiracy for the Assassination of your Sacred Person and your Dearest Brother, contrived by a sort of men whose Principles are the same with those who formerly involved this Happy Nation in Blood and Ruine, do most heartily give our humble Thanks to Almighty God, for this his Miraculous Preservation of your Sacred Person and Royal Brother, beseeching the Divine Protection still to guard his Anointed. And humbly beg your Majesty to believe that we will cordially and readily expose our Lives and Fortunes in defence of your Majesties Person, your Heirs and Successors, and your Government as now by Law established both in Church and State.

Dated at the General Quarter Sessions holden for the County aforesaid 10, July 1683. Anno Regni Regis Car. II. 35.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, Common-Council, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, at the Guildhall of the said Borough on the Thirteenth day of July, 1683. Do most humbly and heartily Congratulate Your most Sacred Majesty's great and happy Deliverance which the great King of Kings hath most miraculously vouchsafed your Majesty, not only at several times heretofore, but more especially now lately from the Cruel and Bloody hands of such who (styling themselves True-Protestants; when indeed the very Scandal of the Reformation) had Diabolically and Traiterously intended the Destruction of the Your Majesty's Sacred Person, Your Royal Brother, and once again the Subversion of that Church, of which your Majesty and your Famous Predecessors, of Blessed Memory, thought it the greatest Honour to be Defenders.

We therefore do humbly return our Thanks to God Almighty for his great Mercie to your Majesty, your Royal Family, and all your Loyal Subjects. And we do hereby assure your Majesty, as we hate and abhor from our Hearts (such wicked, horrible, and Treasonable Practices, so with one Heart and Mouth, we do hereby declare before God and the World, That we will constantly be true, faithful, and Loyal Subjects to your Majesty, your Majesties Lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now by Law established.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Appleby in the County of Westmoreland.

May it please your Sacred Majesty,

WE Your most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, through the great Sense of those Miraculous Deliverances, which the Propitious Eye of Providence, hath in so many former Circumstances declared your Protection, from the hands of those bloody Instruments of Malice and Iniquity, that would have put out the light of this our Israel, under whom we sit so Peaceably; and transcendently Happy, in the enjoyment of those Blessings, which by your Pious, Just, and Merciful Government is Consigned unto us: And having with Anticipation received the Discovery of a most Horrid and Barbarous Design against Your Majesties Royal Person, and your Dearest Brother James Duke of York; We thought it our bounden Duty, (next and immediately to our humble Thankfulness to Almighty God for your Majesties gracious Preservation from those wicked Attempts and horrid Contrivances) humbly to offer to your Majesty that we do with all Sincerity and Loyalty, declare our Abhorrence of such execrable Mischances. And through our deep Repentment thereof do also humbly give your Majesty this assurance that we will be always ready with our Lives and Fortunes, in defence of your Majesties Royal Person, your Heirs and Successors, for defeating all wicked and detestable Attempts whatsoever, which can or shall be made against your Majesty and Government, as it is now established in Church and State. In Testimony whereof we have hereto subscribed our Names, and affixed the Common Seal of this Borough, the Tenth day of July, in the Thirty fifth year of your Majesties Reign, Anno Domini 1683.

Malaga, July 27. The Spanish Armada arrived here the 23d instant, and having taken on Board a Regiment of Foot, and some Provisions, sailed again the day following for the Coast of Italy.

Lincol, Aug. 31. The Letters we receive from the Imperial Camp, gives us an account that the Duke of Lorraine having advice, That Count Teckeleby marched with an Army of 25000 Men, as well Turks as Hungarians, towards Presbourg, to possess himself of that place by means of the Intelligence he had there, his Highness immediately Decamped from Krems, and arrived the 30th past near Presbourg, and the next day advanced towards the Enemy to give them Battle, but they nor having the courage to haard it, presently turned their backs and retreated in the best order they could: The Imperialists fell upon their Rear and cut off between 6 and 7000 Men,

Men, with most of their Baggage, Ammunition, and Provisions, having taken One thousand Wagons: The Enemy being retired, the Duke of Lorraine reinforced the Garrison in Presbourg; and caused all the Boats which Count Teckelely had got together to make a Bridge over the Danube to be burnt. The City of Vienna continues to make a very brave defence; and we are told that a Country-fellow being sent with Letters from the Duke Lorraine to Count Starenberg, not only got well into the place, but is come back again, and reports, That the Belieged are full of courage, and want nothing, and that the Turks make their attacks with less vigor than they did at first; and from other hands we have an account, That the Turks begin to want Provisions and other Necessaries, and that their Army is much weakened. Major General Dunewald is abroad with 10000 Horse to observe the Enemy.

Lintz, Aug. 7. The news we had of the Duke of Lorraine's having obliged Count Teckelely (who had a design upon Presbourg, and had provided a great many Boats there to make a Bridge over the Danube) to retire with the loss of 3 or 600 Men, and his Baggage and Provisions, is confirmed from several places. The Duke of Lorraine, as we hear, is Encamped on the River Marck, about two Miles from Presbourg, to observe Count Teckelely, and to hinder his passing into Moravia, and Count Leslie is abroad with 3 or 4000 Men. We are assured that the Turks suffer very much for want of Provisions, and through the Distempers that reign in the Camp.

Munick, August 4. We expect here this evening the Elector of Bavaria in his return from Passlaw. We are told that his Electoral Highness has resolved to raise nine new Regiments of Foot, and that the Clergy of this Country have promised to contribute to the charge of it. The Marriage between his Electoral Highness and the Archduchess, the Emperor's Daughter, is said to be concluded.

Passlaw, August 8. The last account we have concerning the Siege of Vienna, is, That the place is in a very good condition, That the Turks suffer very much in their Camp, and for that reason push on the Siege with all the vigor they can, but that they meet with so brave a resistance on the part of the besieged, as not to make any great Progress in it. The Duke of Lorraine has had a rencounter with Count Teckelely, cut off his Rear, and taken his Baggage and Provisions, and besides secured Presbourg, which was in danger of falling into his hands. The Troops of the Elector, and the Circle of Bavaria are arrived at Krems, where they expect the orders of the Duke of Lorraine, in order to their joining the Imperial Army; we are assured that the King of Poland is on his March.

Ratisbonne, August 12. This Morning arrived here the Prince of Anspach, and the Count de Hohenloe; and the Prince of Bareith, and Prince Waldecke, are expected here to morrow with 800 Horse of the Circle of Franconia, and 3000 Foot will follow the day following. On Sunday last passed by this place the Regiment of Leslie consisting of 1000 men, and the Regiment of Neuburg; and the rest of the Troops of Franconia, and 5000 men of the Circle of Suabia will suddenly follow. From Passlaw we have advice that Count Serini, who is now a Prisoner there, for having held a Correspondence with Count Teckelely and the Turks, has been several times examined, and that it appears he persuaded the Grand Vicer to undertake the Siege of Vienna, having assured him that the place was wholly unprovided for it, as indeed it then was; but 15 or 16000 men put themselves into the Town, and several Boats arrived there with Ammunition the day before the Turks set down before it.

Brussels, August 17. Our last German Letters brought a confirmation of the advantage which our former told us the Duke of Lorraine had obtained upon Count Teckelely; and add, that the Regiments of Baden and Grana, which came from Raab, having joined the Imperial Army, the Duke of Lorraine was marched back towards Krems, to join the Bavarian and other Auxiliary Troops, and to be ready to pass the Danube upon the Arrival of the Polish Army, with which His Highness hoped to be joined by the 24th of this month. That the besieged in Vienna make a very stout defence, that the Turks are in greater want of Provisions than they in the Town, and that Count Starenberg the Governor has assured the Emperor that he doubts not to defend the place yet for a considerable time.

Hague, Aug. 17. The States General having received from England, a List of the Names of the Conspirators that are fled from Justice, have given strict Orders for the Seizing such of them as shall be found within their Territories. It is said that Orders are sent to Lieutenant Admiral Bastiaens, who commands the Squadron of Men of War which this State has now abroad to go and meet our Ships that are expected home this Year from the East-Indies.

Dublin, July 26. At the Assizes held the last week at Wexford for that Town and County, before the Lord Chief Justice Keating, Parson Fackes, a very eminent Nonconformist Preacher, was upon a full and plain Evidence, found guilty, by a substantial Jury of that County, of Subornation of Perjury, to take away the Life of one Garret Coursey of that Town, against whom he bore a Malice, and to save his standing in the Pillory, he paid down his Fine.

Portsmouth, August 11. On Friday last sailed from Spithead the Right Honorable the Lord Dartmouth, Master General of the Ordnance, with His Majesty's Ships under his Flag; but was forced to come to an Anchor in St. Helen's Road, and still continues there by reason of the contrary Winds.

Windsor, August 14. His Majesty was this day graciously pleased, as a mark of His Royal Favor, to confer the Honor of Knighthood upon William Halford of Welham, and Edward Wigley of Scraptiff in the County of Leicester, Esquires.

Advertisements.

☞ The Trials of the late Lord Ruffel, Captain Walcot, John Rouse, William Hone, and Captain Blague, for Conspiring the Death of the King, &c. Are now Printed and Published by Richard Roylton, Ben. Took, and Charles Mearne.

☞ The Whole Duty of Man, Part 2d. Recommended by the Reverend Mr Williams, Rector of St. Mildred Poultry, London. Sold by John Kidgell at the Golden Ball near Grays-Inn-Gate in Holborn.

☞ An Help and Exhortation to Worthy Communicating. Or, a Treatise describing the Meaning, Worthy Reception, Duty, and Benefits of the Holy Sacrament. And answering the Doubts of Conscience, and other Reasons, which most generally detain Men from it. Together with suitable Devotions added. By John Kettlewell, Vicar of Coles-hill in Warwickshire. Sold by Robert Kettlewell, at the Hand and Scepter over against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street

STolen out of Mr. Mountagn's Stable at Woodcot near Ep- some in Surrey, on Friday the 10th of August, in the Night, a fine young white Setting-Dog of the French kind, his Hairs both Liver Coloured, his Body spotted all over with little spots of the same colour: Five Setting Nets, one whereof was of raw Silk. And a dark coloured Cloth Coat lined with Red. If any one can give notice of the said Dog to Woodcot House, or to Mr. Stokes at his House in Villers-street in York-Buildings, so that the Dog may be had, he shall have Five Guineas Reward.