To the Debtors and Creditors of John Robinson, late of Pointon Cottage, Esq. deceased.

October, 1828.

ALL persons who have any claim or demand against the estate and effects of John Robinson, late of Pointon Cottage, in the Parish of Pointon, in the County of Lincoln, Esq. deceased, are requested immediately to send an account thereof, with the nature of their securities (if any) to the Reverend William Waters, of Ripplingale, in the said County, Clerk (the acting Executor under the will of the said deceased), or to Messrs. Tooke and Carr, Solicitors, No. 39, Bedford-Row, London, or to Messrs. Smith and Wilkinson, Solicitors, Horbling, near Falingham, Lincolnshire, in order that the same may be examined and, if correct, discharged; and all persons who stood in anywise indebted to the said John Robinson, at the time of his decease, are desired forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts as above.

THE Creditors (if any) of James Butler, late of No. 10, Norton-Street, at the corner of Clipstone-Street, Portland-Place, in the County of Middlesex, Plumber, Painter, and Glazier, deceased, who have not already been paid, are required, on or before the 25th day of October instant, to send in the particulars of any demand they may have to Mrs. Rachel Butler, his Widow and Executrix, of No. 9, Norton-Street aforesaid, as she will immediately afterwards pay over the residue of his estate to the residuary legatees; and all persons indebted to the estate of the late James Butler are requested, within the same period, to pay their debts to the said Rachel Butler.—Dated the 7th day of October 1828.

To James Denton, late of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, and Susan his Wife, late Susan Lankester, Widow, and before Susan Scholding, Widow and Relict of Robert Scholding, late of Walton, in the County of Suffolk, Farmer.

WHEREAS, in the year 1769, the residue and remainder of a term of 1000 years, created by an indenture, bearing date the 15th day of September 1762, of and in a certain messuage, farm, and premises, at Hollesly, in the said County of Suffolk, was assigned unto Robert Barthorp, of Hollesly aforesaid, Gentleman, in trust for Margaret Verthe (the then proprietor of the said messuage, farm, and premises), and to attend the inheritance of the same; and whereas the said Robert Barthorp by his will appointed John Barthorp and the said Robert Scholding his Executors, and the said Robert Scholding, who survived the said John Barthorp, by his will, dated the 11th of January 1799, appointed his wife, Susan Scholding, Executrix; and whereas the said Susan Scholding afterwards intermarried with William Lankester, of Walton aforesaid, Farmer, upon whose decease (about the year 1813, at Reading, in the County of Berks), the said Susan Lankester intermarried with the said James Denton on the 10th day of December 1816, at the Parish Church of St. Mary, Reading, and a short time after their marriage they removed to Henley-upon-Thames, and carried on the business of a Gardener or Green-Grocer, from whence they shortly after removed to Bristol, where they carried on the same business, and afterwards removed to Cheltenham, where they resided (it is believed went by the name of Philpot, which was the maiden name of the said Susan Denton), till about the year 1825, when they left Cheltenham, since which time their place of residence cannot be found; and whereas an assignment of the residue of the said term is again called for and required on behalf of the present proprietor of the said messuage, farm, and premises, and the said James Denton and Susan his wife are required to send their address, for that purpose, to Mr. Charles Moor, Solicitor, of Woodbridge, in Suffolk, within ten days from the date hereof, otherwise application will be made to the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury for Letters of Administration, de bonis non, to the effects of the said Robert Scholding, but to be limited as the residue of the said term, in order to obtain an assignment thereof.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentence of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantation, with its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz.

In the month of October 1829, the coffee plantation L'Henreüse Avanture, situate in Canal No. 1, West Bank of the River Demerary, the property of the heirs of the late F. Sab-bathier.

The judicium of præ et concurrentia on the net proceeds of the above sale will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, and interest to the net proceeds of said plantation, are herewith, by him the undersigned Deputy First Marshal, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form, before the Honourable Court of Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their Session, in the month of October 1829, under a penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventory of the above stated plantation is daily to be seen at the Counting-Houses of Messrs. Hall, M'Garel, and Co.-No. 7, Austin-Friars, London, and P. J. Le Jolle, Esq. Amsterdam.—Demerary and Essequibo, this 28th July 1828.

A. M. MEERTENS, Deputy First Marshal.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

By Order of the Right Honourable the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of Scotland.

Edinburgh, September 4, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a claim has been entered in the said High Court, in behalf of Messrs. Cordes and Gronemeyer, of Hamburgh, Merchants, and of their Attorney, claiming the proceeds of 118 bundles, containing 236 salted hides, part of the cargo of the Prussian Brigantine Stettin, Jacob Kunke Jacobs, Master, which was captured and brought into Leith by His Britannic Majesty's Sloop of War called the Cobourg, commanded by Lieutenant Terence O'Neill, in the month of April 1799, and which salted hides were sold under authority of the Judge of the said High Court, by a warrant dated the 6th August 1799.

After a long litigation in the Courts of Scotland, and in the House of Lords, the cargo in question was adjudged to Cordes and Gronemeyer as neutral property; but the price of the hides, which had been previously sold by order of the Judge Admiral, and were, for reasons unknown, not then delivered to them, was deposited in Bank, for behoof of those interested, where it still remains.

All persons having, or pretending to have, interest in the said hides, or proceeds thereof, are hereby required to enter their claims for the same in the said High Court of Admiralty in Scotland, on or before the 12th November next, with certification:
