Robert Caparn, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated 13th October 1828.

Whitehall, October 7, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of eleven and twelve on the night of Friday the 3d instant, some evil-disposed person or persons feloniously and maliciously fired at and broke two of the windows of the house at Axwell-park, near Gateshead, in the county of Durham, the residence of C. J. Clavering, Esq.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired the guns) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of

ONE HUNDRED and TEN POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Sixty pounds of such reward to be paid by the Winlotion Association for the Prosecution of Felons, and fifty pounds by C. Marshal's-Office.—Sale by Execution.
First Proclamation.

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, by virtue of two writs of execution, granted by His Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, President of all Courts and Colleges, sole Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty of the Colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, &c. &c. respectively dated the 9th June 1828, as also by virtue of a subsequent appointment granted by the same authority, and dated the 14th June 1828, have, in the suits intituled Simon Davson, holder of the protested bill of exchange on which this action is founded, versus L. F. Gallez and Archibald Schroeder, versus L. F. Gallez, caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, all that coffee estate, called Ithaca, situate on the west bank of the River Berbice, together with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, an inventory whereof is now laying at this Office for the inspection of those concerned (said levy and sequestration being made subject to all mortgage and other preferent claims existing against aforesaid plantation Ithaca, cum annexis and slaves).

Be it therefore known, that I, the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell, at public execution sale, after the expiration of one year and six weeks from the 16th day of June 1828, the beforenamed coffee estate called Ithaca, cum annexis, and slaves, in order to recover, by execution sale of said property (subject, however, to all mortgage and other preferent claims existing against the same), such sums of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable with the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, regarding the sale of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 22d June 1828.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Marshal's-Office.—Summons by Edict.

By virtue of authority granted by his Excellency Henry Beard, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Colony of Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. President of all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. dated 21st July 1828;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of the Board of Orphans and Unadministered Estates of the Colony of Berbice, obtainants of above named authority, do hereby, for the first and last time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the under-mentioned estates or boedels, viz.

N. C. Graham, Maxwell,	F. Claasen, Thomas White, George Rose,	N. B. Farnum, Christina Gordon, and Joseph Wilson, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their ordinary Session, which will be held in the month of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, say 1829, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated, and in due form and time, against the afore-named estates or boedels; whereas, in default of which, and after the expiration of this first and last edictal summons, will be proceeded against the non-appearsers according to law.
L. Bugge, B. J. Watson,	John Roedick,

This first and last edictal summons published as customary.—Berbice, the 24th July 1828.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edmund Reynolds Jones, of Welch Pool, in the County of Montgomery, Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 11th day of November next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, pro-proceeding, or defending any action or suit at law or in equity, or taking any other proceedings they may see fit, for the recovery of the real and personal estate of the said Bankrupt; and also compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any disputed or litigated matter touching or concerning the same; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing a suit in equity against certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, who have been selling and purchasing, and otherwise dealing with, the said Bankrupt's real estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's real and personal estate, either by public auction or private contract, at such time and place, and on such terms as they may think expedient; and making such allowance to the Bankrupt and his family, and for such period of time as, under the circumstances of the case, they may think proper; and repaying to the petitioning Creditors and their agents such advances already made to the Bankrupt, or other moneys paid for the general purposes of the Commission, and in furtherance of the interest of the estate, as the said Assignees may see fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Tiffney, now or late of Deighton, in the Parish of Huddersfield, in the County of York, Woollen Cord-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 11th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court-House, in Huddersfield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the household furniture, stock in trade, and other the personal estate of the said Bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such lots and manner, at such times and places, and at such price or prices, either for ready money or on credit, with or without security for payment thereof, as the said Assignees may deem most advisable, and in case of sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell any part or parts of the said personal estate, at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate, as they shall think fit; also to ratify, confirm, and allow all sales of such parts of the said Bankrupt's estate as shall already have been made under the said Commission; also to direct and order the repayment, out of the Bankrupt's estate, to the petitioning Creditor under the said Commission and others, of all sum and sums of money advanced and disbursed by them in and about the collecting, getting in, and finishing certain woollen cords and other goods belonging to the Bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said petitioning Creditor and other Creditors being repaid, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the costs and expences incurred by them in searching for and securing property belonging to the said estate, and all costs and expences incurred, or to be incurred, by them in, about, and connected with their endeavours and proceedings to arrest and apprehend the said Bankrupt, who has absconded possessed of considerable property belonging to his Creditors, as also connected with their proceedings and efforts to recover such property, and other property belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, or other person, to make up the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to duly authorise him to collect and get in the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate in England, and elsewhere, and to allow to such accountant, or person, such remuneration for his trouble and services, out of the said estate, as the said Assignees shall deem just; and to confirm and allow all the acts of the said Assignees connected with the estate, prior to the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full, or otherwise, as they may think proper, the rents, wages, and salaries due by the said Bankrupt, before his Bankruptcy, in respect of the land tenanted by him, and the services of his clerks, travellers, and servants; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing proper persons, or putting out to weave, make, and finish all such woollen cords or other goods belonging to the Bankrupt's estate, as they shall think necessary or proper, at the costs and risk of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking and instituting such proceedings at law or in equity, or otherwise, as they may be advised, to recover and obtain certain property belonging to the estate from several persons, to be named at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending such other proceedings at law or in equity, or by petition in Bankruptcy, for the recovery and protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arranging any debt, claim, matter, or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, in such manner as they shall think advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Shaw, now or late of Newsome, in the Parish of Almondbury, in the County of York, Merchant and Clothier, Dealer and Chapman (heretofore carrying on business at Newsome aforesaid, in Copartnership with one George Shaw, now deceased, under the firm of George Shaw and Son, as Merchants and Clothiers), are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 11th day of November next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Jacombe and Tindale, in Huddersfield, in the said County of York, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the household furniture, stock in trade, and other the personal estate of the said Bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and in such lots and manner, at such times and places, and at such price or prices, either for ready money or on credit, with or without security for payment thereof, as the said Assignee may deem most advisable, and in case of sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell any part or parts of the said personal estate, at the risk of the said Bankrupt's estate, as he shall think fit; also to ratify, confirm, and allow all sales of such parts of the said Bankrupt's estate as shall already have been made under the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing an accountant, or other person, to make up the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to duly authorise him to collect and get in the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate in Scotland, and elsewhere, and to allow to such accountant, or person, such remuneration for his trouble and services, out of the said estate, as the said Assignee shall deem just, as well in respect of debts already collected as those hereafter to be collected; and to confirm and allow the acts of the said Assignee with reference to debts already collected, compounded, or otherwise settled by him; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying in full, or otherwise, as he may think proper, the rents, wages, and salaries due by the said Bankrupt, before his Bankruptcy, in respect of the land tenanted by him, and the services of his clerks, travellers, and servants; and also to direct and authorise the payment, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, of certain costs of a Creditor of the said Bankrupt, to be named at such meeting, of and connected with the proceedings at law taken by him, and by or under which proceedings certain parts of the Bankrupt's estate have been preserved and secured; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee taking and instituting such proceedings at law or in equity, or otherwise, as he may be advised, touching the Bankrupt's right to, or interest in, certain machinery and property in a mill, called Dungeon-Mill; and also to the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, and defending such other proceedings at law or in equity, or by petition in Bankruptcy, for the recovery and protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise arranging any debt, claim, matter, or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignee to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, in such manner as he shall think advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Benjamin Watkins, of Ardwick, near Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Drysalter, Factor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 12th day of November next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Pateshall and Bellamy, Solicitors, in the City of Hereford, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees proceeding to sell and dispose of the household furniture and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or by private contract, or by appraisement and valuation, and either together or in lots, for ready money or on credit, with security, or otherwise, as the said Assignees shall think advisable, or otherwise dealing with the said household furniture and effects, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, by auction or by private contract, and for ready money or on credit, with security; or otherwise, as the said Assignees shall think advisable, the reversionary or other interest of the wife of the said Bankrupt in the personal estate of her deceased father, with power to buy in and afterwards resell the same, and for making any arrangements or compromise relative to the said reversionary or other interest; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or arranging any matters or things relating thereto; and on other special matters.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette; and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 21st day of October 1828, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

JETHRO CRISDEE, of Bond-Street, in the Parish of Saint Luke, Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
