FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1828.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of October 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the thirtieth day of this instant October, to Thursday the eighteenth day of December next.

Sewers, Middlesex, Tower Hamlets.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of the Commissioners of Sewers for the Tower Hamlets (excluding Saint Katharine's and Blackwall Marsh), in the county of Middlesex, to enable the said Commissioners to alter and amend the present sewers, drains, and other works, and to make new sewers, drains, outlets, and other necessary works and conveniences within the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners; to alter the mode of raising money by way of rates, and to enable them to compound for rates with certain landowners and others, and for raising money on the credit of the said rates; and for otherwise altering and amending the laws relating to sewers within the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners; and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 22d day of October 1828.

John W. Unwin, Clerk to the said Commissioners, Sewers-Office, Great Alie-street, Goodman's-fields.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament during the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, alter, or amend an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for the better regulating the nightly watch and beadles within the parish of Saint Paul, Covent-garden, within the liberties of the city of Westminster;" also (as far as such Act relates to or is applicable to the parish of Saint Paul, Covent-garden) an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of the nightly watch and beadles within the city and liberty of Westminster and parts adjacent, and for other purposes therein contained;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifteenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable the inhabitants of the parish of Saint Paul, Covent-garden, in the county of Middlesex, to purchase or hire a convenient piece of ground for the purpose of erecting a workhouse thereon for the reception and employment of the poor of the said parish, and for providing an additional burial-ground for the use of the said parish;" also another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the twenty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better paving, cleansing, and lighting the parish of Saint Paul, Covent-garden, within the liberty of Westminster, and certain places adjoining thereto, and for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein;" also another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing the church of the parish of Saint Paul, Covent garden, in the county of Middlesex, for repairing and improving the gates and avenues leading to the said church, and for removing the present watch-house and providing another for the use of the said parish;" also another Act, made and passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for repairing the church of the parish of Saint Paul, Covent-garden, in the county of Middlesex, for repairing and improving the gates and avenues leading to the said church, and for removing the present watch-house and providing another for the use of the said parish;" also another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for rebuilding the parish church of Saint Paul, Covent-garden, within the liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and the vestry-rooms belonging thereto, for repairing and reinstating the iron rails inclosing the site of the said church and the gates leading thereto, and for making several regulations relating to the said parish;" and also another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of King Charles the Second, for making the precinct of Covent-garden parochial, and for increasing the stipends of the rector, curate, clerk, and sextons of the said parish;" and all other Acts of Parliament exclusively relating to the said parish; and also to authorise and empower the rate payers of the said parish annually to elect a committee, to consist of a certain number of the said rate payers, with a certain qualification, being resident householders of the said parish, to regulate, direct, and manage certain affairs relating to the said parish, and to regulate the manner of voting at parish or vestry meetings to be held in and for the said parish; and for giving powers to alter the several rates, assessments, and duties authorised by the above several Acts, or any of them, or to make any new rate or rates, assessment or assessments instead and in lieu thereof; and also to give powers for the paving or better paving, lighting, watching, repairing, cleansing, improving, watering, and regulating of the roads, streets, courts, alleys, ways, and places already existing, or hereafter to be formed and made, within the said parish of Saint Paul, Covent-garden; and for removing nuisances, annoyances, obstructions, and encroachments therein or thereon; and likewise to give powers for the making, assessing, collecting, managing, and regulating of the poor rates and other assessments of the said parish, and the government, maintenance, and employment of the poor thereof; and for making any new rate or rates, assessment or assessments, for and within the said parish, in such manner as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes aforesaid and relating to the general regulation of the affairs of the said parish; and finally, for the better management of the whole of the affairs of the said parish.

Jas. Phillips, Solicitor, 36, Bedford-street,
Covent-garden.

Imperial Gas, Light and Coke Company, Office,
10, Coleman-Street, October 21, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of two several

Acts, the one passed in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to establish an additional Company for lighting certain parts of the metropolis and parts adjacent with gas;" and the other passed in the fourth year of His said present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to establish an additional Company for lighting certain parts of the metropolis and parts adjacent with gas."

Alexander Henry, jun. Clerk of the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter and amend the laws now in force for the nomination, choice and appointment of Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, Vestrymen, and other Parish Officers for the parish of St. Mary Stratford-Bow, in the county of Middlesex; and also to alter and amend the laws now in force for regulating the affairs of the said parish, and that it is intended to take power by the said Act for the better relief, maintenance and employment of the poor of the said parish, and for repairing the parish church, and paving, lighting, watching, watering, cleansing, regulating, repairing, widening, and otherwise improving the roads, ways, and other public passages and places within the said parish, and for removing and preventing nuisances, obstructions, encroachments, and annoyances within the said parish, and to raise money for the above purposes, by levying a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, upon the inhabitants of the said parish, or by some other means to be provided for by such Act, and for the appointment of trustees with proper and sufficient powers and authorities for carrying into execution the said Act.—Dated the 22d day of October 1828.

West and Morris, Solicitors for the Bill,
6, Crescent, Minories.

St. James, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, to explain, amend, repeal, or consolidate the several Acts of Parliament following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King James the Second, intituled "An Act for erecting a new parish, to be called the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster;" also an Act passed in the twentieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to confirm an agreement made by the Rector and Vestrymen of the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster, for enlarging the church-yard of the said parish, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor, and for cleansing the streets, lanes and other passages and places, in the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster, and for enlarging the church-yard belonging to the said parish;" and also an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the second year of His present Majesty, for the better relief and employment of the poor of the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster; and another Act of the first year of King James, the Second, for erecting the said parish; and in which said bill or bills provisions are intended to be made for increasing the number of Vestrymen of the said parish of St. James, Westminster; also for regulating the election or appointment, and continuance in office, of the Vestrymen of the said parish; also for regulating the election or appointment and continuance in office of Governors and Directors of the Poor of the said parish; also for the better conducting the proceedings of the vestry, and of the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the said parish; also for altering or repealing the existing rates, or making such other rates as may be deemed necessary for raising money for the repairs of the church, and for the relief of the poor, and for such other purposes as are authorised by the aforesaid Acts, or any or either of them; also for securing the due application of the pew rents, and of all moneys authorised to be raised or which may be receivable for the purposes aforesaid; also for keeping the accounts of the Churchwardens, and of the Vestry and Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish, respectively; and also for electing or appointing auditors of such accounts.

William à Beckett, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by indentures of lease and release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 6th and 7th days of October 1828, Robert Boulton, of Filby, in Norfolk, Shopkeeper, conveyed all his real estate unto Robert Wall, of Great Yarmouth, in the same County, Draper, and John Draper the elder, of the same Town, Butcher, their heirs and assigns, and by the same indenture of release and assignment the said Robert Boulton assigned all his personal estate and effects unto the said Robert Wall and John Draper, their executors, administrators, and assigns, which lease and release and assignment were made upon trust for the benefit of all the Creditors of the said Robert Boulton, who should duly execute the same release as therein mentioned; and that the said indentures of lease and release and assignment were respectively executed by the said Robert Boulton on the 7th day of the said October, and the said indenture of release and assignment was executed by the said Robert Wall and John Draper on the 9th day of the same October, and that the execution of the said indentures of lease and release and assignment respectively by the said Robert Boulton, was witnessed by John Goate Fisher, of Great Yarmouth, aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and James Marston, of the same Town, Yeoman, and that the execution of the said indenture of release and assignment by the said Robert Wall and John Draper, was witnessed by the said John Goate Fisher and by William Turner, of Great Yarmouth aforesaid, Clerk to the said John Goate Fisher.—Dated the 31st day of October 1828.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Alexander Ross and John Ogilvie, late of Argyle-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Army Agents, Bankers, and Co-partners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the surviving Assignee of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Friday the 21st day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London (instead of 28, Charles Street, Westminster, as advertised in the London Gazette of the 28th instant), for the purpose of receiving from the said Assignee a report of the transactions which have occurred since the last meeting of the Creditors; and of assenting to or dissenting from a proposition, then to be submitted to them, for the further management of the affairs of the said Bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Sniall Jones, of Bath-Place, New-Road, in the Parish of St. Pancras, and County of Middlesex, Glass Cutter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 11th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving to the said Bankrupt the whole or such part of his household goods and furniture as they may think fit.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Philip Tanner, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Publican, Iron-Founder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 10th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Kershaw, Solicitor, in Fountain-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at such price or prices, and at such times and places, either for ready money or on credit, and taking such security or securities for payment thereof as they may think advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Blyth, of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 22d day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees instituting such proceedings at law or in equity, or in Bankruptcy; as they may think fit, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate; and to their compounding or compromising any debt or demand due or belonging to the estate, or submitting any matter relating thereto to arbitration, or otherwise, as they may think fit; also to confirm the sale agreed to be made by the said Assignees of the stock in trade of the said Bankrupt, upon the terms to be mentioned at the meeting; also to their giving to the said Bankrupt his household furniture, or such part thereof as they may think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Sir Matthew Bloxham, Knt. of Gracechurch-Street, London, Banker, are requested to meet Mr. John Bull, late of the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey, Linen-Draper, but now of Clapham, in the said County, the surviving Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 27th day of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee executing a certain deed (the draft of which will be produced at the meeting, for the inspection and approbation of the said Creditors), wherein it is recited that T. S. Townsend, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, by his report, dated the 23d day of May 1828, among other things, found that the said John Bull, as surviving Assignee of the said Sir Matthew Bloxham, Bankrupt, and Thomas Farncombe and Alexander Robertson, as surviving Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Sir Matthew Bloxham, Thomas Wilkinson the younger, and William Bloxham, Bankrupts, were then entitled to the sum of £6,000, due on the bond of the Earl of Belfast, now Marquess of Donegall; and wherein it is also recited that the said John Bull, as such surviving Assignee of the said Sir Matthew Bloxham, claims to be entitled to a prohibition of the said moneys, not exceeding the sum of £1,500; and by which deed it is to be agreed that the said sum of £1,500, when received, shall be paid over to certain Trustees, therein named, who shall invest the same in the purchase of Exchequer Bills, and place the same, in their joint names, in the hands of certain Bankers, to be nominated at the said meeting; and approved of by the Creditors then present, until it shall be ascertained, decided, and settled, either between and by the mutual consent and agreement of the said respective Assignees, or by the submission to arbitration by the said respective Assignees and the award of such person or persons as shall or may be chosen, named, and appointed an arbitrator or arbitrators between the said parties, to adjudge and determine between the said parties and estates, upon a judgment or judgments to be obtained in a competent court or courts of law or equity, whether the said sum of £1,500, and the interest accrued, and to accrue due, on the said Exchequer Bills, or any part thereof, doth belong to, and is part of, the separate estate and effects of the said Sir Matthew Bloxham, or does belong to, and is part of, the joint estate and effects of the said Sir Matthew Bloxham, Thomas Wilkinson, and William Bloxham; and on other special matters, to be named at the said meeting.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Manington, of Hastings, in the County of Sussex, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 21st day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the Assignees giving to the said Bankrupt his household furniture and effects; and also to their consulting with the said Assignees upon the claim, if any, which they the said Assignees may have in certain property and estates claimed by the said Bankrupt, in right of his late wife Delia Manington, and of the means and propriety of prosecuting such claims; and also to the propriety of the Assignees filing a bill in Chancery, or commencing an action at law, or submitting to arbitration or adopting such other measures as they may think advisable against certain persons, to be named at the meeting, for the purpose of recovering certain sums of money due from them to the late partnership concern of Thomas and John Manington; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts, it is enacted. That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy, committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 28th day of October 1828, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by RICHARD WALLS, of Ponders-End, in the Parish of Enfield, in the County of Middlesex, Carpenter, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

On the 29th day of October 1828, by

WILLIAM GLOVER, of No. 124, Wood-Street, Cheapside, in the City of London, Woollen-Factor and Warehouseman, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors:

And on the 30th day of October 1828, by
