The London Gazette.

Oublissed by Authority.

From Churshap August 16. to Mondap August. 20. 1683.

Whiteball, August 19. -

He following Addresses having been presented to His Majelly, His Majelly was pleased to receive them very graciously.

The bumble Address of the High Sheriff, the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Juries, by a General Consent at the Asizes holden at Bury St. Edmonds the 27th of July 1683. for the County of Suffolk.

May it please Your Majesty,

Is fo natural and fo reasonable for Great Joy to succeed Extraordinary Bleffings, as having paid to Heaven the Humble Tribute of our Thanks; it must next present it self at your Majesties Feet. And here our Happiness and our Duty are so equally concerned; as in the Celebration of that Mighry Bleffing, the Deliverance of your Sacred Majesty, and His Royal Highness, our Jayes are all imployed.

our Jayes are all imployed.

-Had we not remembred the fad effects of brutish Zeal in the late times of Rebellion, and been too often reminded in these, that 'tis immortal, the Barbarity of such ingrateful timen, as have entred into this last Conspiracy, might have expected as great a Wonder, as your Majetties Preservation; but to be forgiven on preferred, were never tyes strong enough to bind a falle or rather true Plannatick. And therefore 'tis no wonder, that they who proclaim themselves the Fountain of all Power on Earth, nay, allow none else a right to the Kingdom of Heaven, thould think your Majetties Life and Dominions at their dispose. Pardon us therefore, Great Sir, that from hearts full of Duty and Care for your Safety, we presume to say, that the Ruine of your Sacred Majetty, the Church of England, and the Government established, is laid as deep as the Principles of their presented Religion; Their Conventicles Preach the Dostrines, and having had too Their Conventicles Preach the Doftrines, and having had too much Reason and Experience to doubt, that it hash been the misfortune of too many Corporations to promote its Patriots; We Humbly hope your Majesties Inspection will hinder them from being any longer the Receptacles of bad Men, or Engines to play Republican Zealots upon to, when your Majesties that the season of the base of the Santa Santa

Majelfy hath greatest occasion for the best of your Subjects.

Permit us, Sir, we besegth you, to renew the Ingagements we have formerly made, to lay our Lives, and all we have, at stake in desence of your Sacred Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, the Religion and Government established; and to declare that we abominate that Horrid train of Gonfequences, the Bill of Exclusion, the late Horrid Association, the Ignoralmy Jury, and this Infamous Conspiracy against your Sacred Life, and your Royal Brother, with an Insurrection at the

May Heaven Preferve you long and Happy, against these and all other Machinations, that you may raise your Glory upon their Treachery, and your Security upon their Rebellion.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The most bumble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, Minister, and other Free Burgesses of your Majestics ancient Borough and Corporation of Eye in the Country of Susfolk, to which they have by unanimous Consent affixed their Seal,

UR Dangers and our Deliverances having been too great for filent Resentments, We presame to lay at your Majethes Teet this Humble Representation of our Joy for Majelites Feet this Humble Representation of our joy for the miraculous Preservation of your Sacred Majelfy, and your Royal Brother from the Hellish Conspiracy of the most executable Villains, whose numbers being one great Rigitavation of their Crimes. It becomes now almost as necessary to Publish, as enjoy an Innocence We therefore humbly beg, that by declaring our harred of their Principles, we may disciplify our selves from the men who by a low serve of thinguish our felves from the men, who by a long Series of Treachery and Rebellion, have transmitted to the World this undoubted Truth, That Monarchy and the Chirch of England, are inconsistent with their Systems of Polity and Religion.

It is from their Conventicles that this Poylon hath been different their Conventicles that this Poylon hath been different their Conventicles that the Poylon hath been different the Poylon hath been different their Conventicles that the Poylon hath been different the Poylo

It is from their Conventicles that the Poylon hath been diffused; from that Root sprung that Branch which bore the late Horrid Association, and in defence of it the Ignoramus Jury. These, sit, we detelt, and against these and all other Traiterous Conspiracies whatsoever, we will with our Lives and Fortypes affist your Sacred Majesty, and Royal Brothery the Design of whose Joynt Destruction is the undeniable Conviction of all their Fasse Arguments for your Separation, and lets us see how happy and invincible a Security you are to each others. each othen.

each othen.

And because it is too often, and we fear too justly a reproach, that Corporations, among to ther things, are chargeable with part of our misferfules, by shrowding of, and contesting for men of Republican Principles, A Submission of Charters to your Majesties Regulation, is now become so necessary, that we fear it may create Suspition upon those who define it not. We therefore Humbly beg leave to Present your Sacred Majesty with the unanimous Resolution and defire of this Corporation, to lay our Charter at your Royal F et. of this Corporation, to lay our Charter at your Royal F et, whenever it shall be your Pleasure to receive it. And Accept whenever it main by your Pressure to receive it. And Accept we befeech you, Sir, the Dedication of our felves and all we have, to the preferving your Majefty, your Heirs and Succeffort, with the Religion and Government eltablished it.

May all the Crowds of thanks which are paid to Heaven for your Majefties Deliverance, return in Bleffings on, your Sacred Head, and all the Vows of Loyalty that on the Continue there were those to the Indiana.

these Occasions throng your Imperial Throne, prove equally Glorious in their Terror and Fidelity.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Fury at the Assizes beld at Warwick for your Majesties County of Warwick, this seventh day of August, in the Fire and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

Great Sir,

That Almighty Power which has hicherto goarded your Royal Perlon, in the worlt of Times and greatelt of Dangers, has now made it evident to all the World, that the hand of Providence is Particular in your Prefervation, because you are, not only Gods Anointed, but the best of Kings, The Discovery of the late Hoprid Conspiracy, contrived and carried on by Phanatical Rebels against your Sacred Person, and the Live of your Royal Brother, does manistriby declare, that as you are the Delight of our Ryes, and the Breath of our Nostrils, so you are the immediate care of Heaven; and we cannever enough Adore and Praise that Insinite Mercy that has protected you and your Dearest Brother, from the Malicious Designs of your Cruel Bnemies; and with such mai nas protected you and your Dearest Brother, from the Malicious Designs of your Cruel Bnemies; and with such manifest Evidence and Demonstration, laid open the Damnable' Intreagues of their Acquised Plot, that mere is not the least occasion of suspicionalest to those that would seek it. We therefore in all sincerity beg leave solemnly to protest before, God, your Majesty, and the World, that we do Detcs. Above, and Alphaniante this Lates, and all other Treaters on Conhor, and Abominate this Late, and all other Traiterous Con-lpiracies and Affociations whatever, formed against your Own, or the Life of your Edulations Brother; and that we will, to the extent of our Lives and Fortunes, protect your Royal Person against all Traiterous Machinations; support that Government, under which, by Your Gracious Protection, we are now Blesid and maintain the Hereditary Succession of this Imperial Crown, in that direct Line wherein God hath placed ir.

Dread Sir,

May this present Instance of Providence to you, make you throughly feafible of that Schismatical Sect, who upon all throughly testible of that Schilmatical Sect, who upon all Occasions have appeared to be yours and your Kingdoms Enemier; and as you are God's Vicegerent here on Earth, so may you always imitate Heaven, in having a particular Reguard to your own Safety; and we, as in duty bound, shill ever pray, that Happinels may attend your Enterprizes, and Success Crown all your Actions: That you may ever Triumph upon the Necks of your Enemies, and be secure in the Hearts of those, that with the same Integrity as we do, profess themselves. profess themselves

Your Majesties most Loyal, Duriful, and Obedient Subjects.

We the Noblemen and others, your Majetties Justices of the Peace for this your County, prelant at the faid Affices, do unanimoutly coccur with the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, in this their Address. յI 5

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County of Devon at the General Quarter Selfons of the Peace, beld for the said County at the Castle of Exon, the Tenth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties most happy Reign, and of the Grand Inques.

May it please your Sacred Majesty,

The humbly acknowledge it a great Prefumption thus to trouble your Majefty with our frequent Address; yet our just Abhortence of the late wicked Contrivance against your Majesty, and his Illustrious Highnels your Dearest Brother's Life, by desperate Fanatick Vallains; With the excess of Joy, with which our Hearts are filled, at Your won 'derful Deliverance from it, will (we hope) prevail with your Majesty, Graciously to Pardon us. When we consider the monstrous Logratized of the Traitors and the horridnels of the Traeson. we cannot but conclude. That the Devil in the monstrous Ingratitude of the Traitors and the horridness of the Treason, we cannot but conclude, That the Devil in them, hath outdone himself: Barbarous Vallains! who since Your Majesties happy Restauration, have had so great a share of your Royal Grace and Favour, and have held their Lives and Estates by no other Tenure, but that of your Gracious Act of Pardon. As if your Majesty out of Your wonderful Goodness thought, they could ever have been obliged by Kindness, or that an easie Government could have made them good Subjects.

With the sincerest and most unforced Tanasa.

With the fincerest and most unseigned Joy of Loyal Hearts, we Congratulate your Mijesties and his Royal Highness's we Congratulate your Milettles and his Royal Highnels's Salety. And we humbly Implore your Sacred Majesty (who is indeed the Breath of our Nostrils, and on whom the happiness of us and our Posteriev depends) never to trust his Generation of Men more, whose Religion (under which they masses their horrid Designs) had its birth in Rebellion, and is as inconsistent with Monarchy, as Light with Darkness, who have made this Kingdom for many Years a Scene of Treason and Rebellion and Rebellion.

And when we reflect on some unreasonable and illegal Votes of the late House of Commons, as that for the Exclusion of of the late Houle of Commons, as that for the Exclution of your Royal Brother: That your Majelly should have no Meney lent You; That the putting the Penal Laws in Execution against Diffenters, was grievous: And if your Majesty should come to any unrimely Death, they would revenge it on the Papilts, &c. Induces us to believe, That the foundation of this Plot hath been long laid, And that if your Majesty had not timely researched it they would (as because of the late have been long laid.

this Plot hath been long laid, And that it your Majetty had not timely prevented it, they would (as heretofore) have had Ordinances of Parliament for the Julifying their Rebellion.

We humbly beg your most-Sacred Majesty, to accept this our most hearty and solenn Promise and Declaration, That we will with our Lives and Essate they down Sacred Majesty and your Royal Brother, from all the wicked Attempts of these Barbarous Villains, from false Presbyterian Zeal and Fanatick Purity, which hath once already Involved us in Blood and Ruine. Blood and Ruine.

And with Devout and Loyal Hearts, we shall never cease praying, That God Almighty, who hath by Wonders hitherto preserved You, sufficient to convince all Mankind, that You's are the particular Care of Heaven, will still defend your Sactored Majesty and your significants Brother, and will sillwage the Pride, abate the Malice, and confound the Devices of all Your Enemies, that your Majesty may enjoy length of Days, and Reign many Years over us, in as uninterrupted Peace and Outer.

We the present Grand Inquest for the Body of the County of Devon, having Perused and confidered the Contents of this Loyal Address of His Majesty's Worshipful Justices of the Loyal Address of His Majetty's Worthipful Justices of the Peace for this Country of Devon, wherein they have, as well expressed their just Abhorrence of such Disloyal, Traiterous, and Damnable Designs on his most Sacred Majetty's Person, his Dearest Brother, and Covernment of this Kingdom, as likewise Congranulated his Miraculous treasers of the Country of the Miraculous treasers of the Miraculou D) (as in Duty bound, though in a lower Sphere) promise and offer our hearty Concurrence with fuch Noble Refolutions, and devout Prayers. so much conducing to the glory of Aunighty God, the Prosperity, peace, and safety of our Dread Sovereign and his Royal Brother, together with all His Loyal Subjects, under His Majelty's Protection and Government.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Congratulation of the Grand Inquest for Criy and County of Lichteild, at the Affizes and General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden in the Guild-ball of the faid City. the Twelfib day of July, in the Five and thirtieth of your Majellies Reign, for the happy Deliverance of your Sacred Person, and his Highness the Duke of York, from the late Inhumane Conspiracies.

Dread Soveraign,

They who confuer the Deliverances Providence has vouch-faited your sacred Majetty, cannot but Admire as well as Detell, the Madnels and Impiety of thele late Attempts, fince neither the Confideration of the hand of God, so mani-fest in your Safeguard, nor yet your matchless Clemency, has left in your Sateguard, nor yet your matchles Clemency, has had the good fucces to move the Atheitical or Hypocritical Panaticks, to a sense of Duty to God, their K ng, or Country; But to the Scandal of this Nation, and the Horror of Mankind, have contrived, and apparently designed the Death of your Majetly, and your Dearest Brother, that with the best of Princes they might destroy the best Religion, and the best Government in the World. And seeing God (in Mercy to his Church and State) has brought to light this work of Darkness, We return our humble Thanks to his Wissom and Goodeness, we return our humble Thanks to his Wissom and Goodeness. nefs, and with Hearts full of Loyalty unfeignedly pro-teft, with our Lives and Fortunes to defend your Royal Perfon, and Lawful Successors, against all Plots and Conspiracies whatfoever

We the Bayliffs, High Steward, and other Justices of the Peace, together with the Sheriff and Town Clerk of the faid City and County, do unanimously Concur with the Grand Jury in t. is Addrefs.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutemants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentry, and other Freeholders of the County of Bedford, being the Body of the said County Assembled at the Affizes, held at Ampthill the Nineteenth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

E your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, with Joy not to be expressed, and Heart's full of Adoration, having paid our just Acknowledgments to the Divine Goodness, under the Sense of that Wondersul (though continued) Providence which hath always attended, and of late rinned) Providence which hath always attended, and of late fo Signally Delivered your own Royal Person, and that of your Dearest Brother, from a Conspiracy in itself the most Horrid, and to us the most Detestable; Do with the most Loval Assurances kay our selves at your Majesties Feet, protesting our Resolutions to expose our Lives and Fortunes in the defence of your Sacred Person, which is so Dear to Heaven, that it still multiplies Miracles, That by a Combination of Wonders and Mercies You may be rescued from the Traiterous Designs of Milicious, Ungrateful, and Atheistical-Subjects; And that your Majesty may be secured of our steady dy and perfevering Lovalty, we do engage our felves to the atmost of our powers in the Protection not only of Your own Royal Person, but also of the Monarchy with all its Rights Royal Perion, Duratio of the monarmy win an in regular defending upon your Royal Brother, or other your undoubted and Legal Heirs and Succeffors; together with the Religion of the Church of England as by Law established; from which, as we take our Measures of Obedience, and are taught to about this and all other Treasonable Conspiracies, So with it we pray for your Myelties long Lile and Prospe-tity, and Your Preservation from the Consults of all wicked Fanatical, Covenanting, Confpiring, and Republican Affo-

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty. The bumble Address of the Town and Borough of Pembrook.

Droad Sir,

We the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Rurgeffes, and other the Inhabitants of Your Ancient Town of Pembrook, Recollecting the Difmal Confequences of Impiety and Milery in the late Difconfolate times of Rebellion piety and Milery in the late Disconsolate times of Rebellion and Usurpation, do with Loyal, Grateful Hearts, humbly acknowledge the Divine Transcendent Goodness, in the Miraculous Restauration of your Majesty, and the inestimable Blessings we have thereby enjoyed in the Solemnity of the best Religion, the Regular Administration of Justice, and an uninterrupted Security of Trassique; Peace and Plenry under the signal Protection of your Soveraign Power.

The serious Consideration whereof hath excited in us a Diercing Amazement and Horror, to see a Company of Un-piercing Amazement and Horror, to fee a Company of Ungrateful Wretches Conspire Yours, and the Death of your Royal Brother James Duke of York, and the Subversion of

We therefore (as in Dury bound) do declare our Cordial Detellation and Abhorrency thereof, together with our fixed Refolution with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your most Sacred Person, and also the Legal Monarchical Government in your Majesty and Lawful Successors, against all Sedicious Machinations of any Parties, under what Specious Presences or Defigns what loever.

And we heartily Pray that the great God who hath so Mi-raculously delivered you from those late and horrid Fana-tical and Popish Plots and Conspiracies, will grant You a long, peaceable and prosperous Reign and Government over us your Majesty's most Loyal and Faidtful Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Alder-men, Common-Council, and inhabitants of your Majesties ancient Corporation of Leicester.

May it please Your Majesty,

Ith hearts full of Devotion we bless God. and with unspeakable joy, congratulate your Majesty for your Deliverance from the late Hellish and Damnable Conspiracy against your Sacred Person, and your Dearest Brother the Duke of York, in the Discovery whereof, the hand of God was so naked and visible, that we cannot but acknowledge your Royal Life to have been preferred by another Miracle of that Providence, which had to often heretofore interposed it self in the wonderful Protection of it.

Wherefore as an inflance of our gratitude to the Divine goodness, and in further Tellimony of our Loyalty, and that Jul Detellation we have to all Conspirators, we now prefume, in the fullest manner we are able, and with all possible fineerity, to assure Your Majesty we shall be ever ready to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the defence of Your Royal Person, and Dearest Brother, and of the Government in Church and State as 'tis now by Law establish'd, and of the Church and State as 'tis now by Law elfabilit'd, and of the Legal Descent of the Crown in the right Line; and that, no the utmost of our Power, we will endeavour to Suppress and Cruit Rebellion and Faction, in what shape soever it may appear in the World, and put forth it self to disturb Your Majesties Affairs, whether it be in a malitious Libel, or a Seditious Petition, in an Impudent Remonstrance, or a Perjured Engage and Courage. tious Petition, in an Impudent Remonstrance, or a Persured Ignoramus Jury, whether in a Solemn League and Covenant, or a Curled and Traiterous Association; and as it shall be our constant business to bring as many as we can of the Confirators who are fled from the Justice of Your Laws, to condigs Punishment, so with our just Resentments shall we Discountenance those ill-minded men, who seem so cold and flow, in declaring their belief of the Plot, as if they did repine at the gre t and marvellotts Delivery of Your Mijelly, and were not couched with a seace of this Infinite Mercy of God. God.

We now put up our hearty Prayers, that it may pleafe Almighty God to Protect and Defend, and long continue me Life of Your most Excellent Majetty, and of Your Royal Brother the Duke of York, from all Treations and Conspirations, and that he would cover Your Friendles with Shame, and contound all their wicked Plots and Devices:

To the King's Molt Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergs, and Substantial Free-holders of your Majesties North-Ryding of the County of Yorks Humbly Shewerb.

Hat we Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Sub-Hat we Your Majetties iffoit Loyal and Obedient Sinjects, having with great amazement heard of a Horrid and Devillith Confipracy against Your Majetty and Your Dearest Brother his Royal Righness James Duke of York, carried on by Persons of disaffected and Dammable Principles. We cannot forbear deelaring to Your Majetty our urter Mared and Detellation of so Horrid Villaness, and do render our tinseigned thanks to Almighty God for this so Happy and so Seasonable a Discovery and Protection of the best of Princes in Your Royal Person, as also of the best of Governments.

And we do most humbly befeech Your Majesties belief, that we are unanimoully resolved to Sacrifice on Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majesties Person, Your Heirs and Successors, and Your Government both in Church and State, as it is now established. And do and ever thail most heartily pray, that Your Majelites days may be many, Your Reign Prosperous, and that Your Enemies may ever be disap-pointed and fall before You. July the 20th 1683.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty. Dread Sit.

WE Christopher Viscount Harron, Governot of Your Majetties Island of Ouerneley (part of Your Ancient Dutchy of Normandy) the Bayliff, Jurats, Clergy, and all other your Majesties Dutiful Subjects inhabiting the same, having with 1 orror and Ama ement heard of the most suppose and Execrable Conspiracy plotted and contrivid of late against the Life of your Sacred Majesty, and that of his Royal Highest your Brother; and being mused with a due sense of the Miraculous Ministration of the Divine goodness of God in your Preservation, We think our selves obliged on this occasion to make to your Majesty this most humble Address and sincere Protestation, That as it has pleased God to include all our Happinels, and make all our Prosperity to consist in that of Your Sacred Person, and Your Royal Family, whom He hash preserved in to signal a manner, in the midst of so many and great Danger, not being weary to shew the wonders of His Providence in the protection of your Majesty, who in imitation of the King of Kings hash is cessantly. jetty, who infinitation of the King of Kings has he ceffantly thoured down on Your People, the enects of your Royal Bounty; So we your Majetties Loyal Subjects do Protett on our part, never to adhere or hold any Correspondence with any who thall so much as attempt to offer any Offence against Your Sacred Person, (whom we pray God long to preserve) or that would in the least manner disturb the Peace and Transition. quility of Your happy Government, or interrupt the lawful course of the Succession of the Royal Family; when it shall please God to exchange your Temporal Crowns for a Celitial and an Eternal one

And if any occasion that prefent it felf to manifest by our actions the Sincerity of this our Protestation, we humbly befeech your Majelty to be fully perfunded, that we will ever employ our Lives and Fortunes for your Service, withing, if there be any to Ingrateful, and fo unfortunate to fail in their pull Dury, or to attempt any thing that is contrary to it, that they may not only be deprived of the advantage of 16 happy a Government, but that they may receive such Punishments as are suitable and proportionable to the enormity of their Crimes.

Thus after having from the bottom of our Hearts, returned Thanks to God for the Mercles which we have received, in the Miraculous Prefervations of your Sacred Person, and his Royal Highness, we offer up to Him our Fervent Prayers for the prolongation of the Life of your Sacred Majelty, and for the prosperity of your Reign, and for a suppy and everlating continuation of the Crown in your Royal ramily.

This Andress was presented to His Majesty in French, by Captain Charles Hatton, Doctor Juh 1 - aumares Dean of Guerne'cy, and Mr. Richard Beauvoir, being Signed by all the Inhabitants of the Jail Genoua.

Genaua, August Ir. Yesterday arrived from Leghorne the Swallow Frigar, Captain Cravar, being bound home; the fame day failed for Leghorne the Rebecca Captain Pulman.

Lutz, August 10. The Troops of the Elector of Bavaria, under the Command of General Degenfelt, are Encamped near this place, and will it's believed in few days joyuste Imperial Army, which according our last Advices continues according to the Place Marche about two Leagues. tinues encamped on the River Marcke, about two Leagues The Rebels having made an Invation into from I resbourg. Moravia, the Duke of Lorain feat out 800 Poles, who having joyned a Party that was already abroad under the Combinand of the Prince of Lichtensteyne, they fell upon the Hungarians, though yery much interior to them in number, and defeated them, killing 5 or 600 upon the place, and taking a great many Priloners.

king a great many Priloners.

Lintz, Aug. 14. The Imperial Army is removed, from the neighbourhood of Presbourg, and is now Encamped at Enzeldorf not far from Vienna. Yelterday arrived here five Troops of Horse of the Regiment of Tast, they will rest here this day, and to morrow continue their march to the Imperial Army, whither the Regiment of Stadelt confissing of 2000 Men, and 1000 Men of the Regiment of Newburg, are likewise haltning their march. Yesterday passed through this place an Express, who was going to Passaw from the Court of Saxony; and assured us that that Elector is marching at the head of 12000 Men, to the assistance of the Emperor. The King of Poland, as the Letters from Silesia in peror. The King of Poland, as the Letters from Silefia in-from us, advances with all the speed he can, his Army marches in three Bodies, and different ways, for their greamarches in diree Bodies, and different ways, for their greater conveniency, and will be very sear Vienna on the 20 or 25 of this Month. And on Monday next we expect here Prince Waldecke with 13 or 14000 Men of the Eilhops of Wirtsburg and Bumberg, and the Circle of Franconia. The Bavaria Troops Commanded by General Degenfelt, have orders to joyn the Imperial Army. The Befieged in Vienna make a very vigotous defence, and want nothing; on the other fide the Tarks employ their Batteries without intermifficate and we have advice that they have formed two Mines. with the Lelp of, which they lodged themselves on the Coun-terscarp but were quickly after beaten off again with a great slaughter of Men Passaw, Angult 15 The Relations we receive concerning the Siege of Vienna, do all agree in this; That the besieged make a very brave defence, that the Enemy push on the Siege with great sigor; that they have spring two or three Mines, and made several assumptions to ladge themselves on the Counterscarp; and that the place is as yet in no danger. In the mean time all things are disposing for its relief and the Auxiliaries Troops are marching with all the diligence they can; and in eight or ten days at firthest the Imperial Army, that of Poland, the Troops of Bavaria and Saxony, and those of the Circle of Franconia will be joyned in one Body, and if the Turks do not before raise the Siege, a general Battle must be expected. The Count of Esterbash Passame of Hungary is arrived here; the allaw, August 15 The Relations we receive concerning Count of Elerhaft Palatine of Hungary is arrived here; the Troopshe had under his command having deferted him and taken part with the Enemy. Several Conferences have been held with the Prince of Anhalt, who is fent hither by the Elector of Brandenburg. Last night arrived here the Count de Caprara the Emperor's Minister at the Port, and in his company a Turkilh Aga, who it's faid comes to make fome Proposals. The Emperor will part hence in few days to Proposals. The Imperor will part hence in few days to meet the King of Poland, and we are assured that the Electors of Bavaria and Saxony will command their Troops in Person.

of Bayaria and Saxony will command their Iroops in Perion.
Ratisbonne, Augult 16. The Letters we receive this day from the Imperial Court tell us, That the Turks have fprung two Mines before Vienna, that by the first, it being constermined, they lost a great many men; but the second had better success, and by the help of it, they lodged themselves in the Ditch, but were beaten out of it again by the before deal. That the Turkish Hoofe it in a very ill condithe belieged: That the Turkish Horse is in a very ill condi tien for want of Forage; That the Duke of Lorrain had again fent a man into the Town, to give the Governor notice of the approach of the Auxilliaries Troops, and that his arrival in the Town was made known to the Imperial Army by a fin from the Tower; but that the beseged had not yet made any of the signs, which were agreed upon in case of their being in any necessity or danger. That the Rebels are fallen into Moravia, and have made a great Desolation in that Country but that the Prince of Lichtlenstein had with obey the Duke of Lorrain; and that the Elector of Saxony's Troops are likewile on their March. Yellerday passed by this place Prince Waldecke, and this day 6000 men of the Circle of Franconia in their way to the Imperial Army.

Brussels, August 20. Our Letters from Passaw and other places, give an account, That on the fifth and six Instant the Turks made several sierce assaults upon the Counterscarp of Vienna, and that with a great flaughter of Men they gained vienna, and that with a great naughter of Men they gained one point of it; whereupon the Befieged sprung a Mine, and followed it with a Sally, with so good success in both, that they beat the Turks from the Post they had taken. That there is great want of Provisions and Forage in the Turkish Camp, that they are reduced to seed upon Horse-fielh, and that an Ammunition Bread is sold for five Dollars. And the Letters from the Imperial Camp dated the eighth Instant, tell us, That a Party of Imperialists had passed the Danube, and had fallen-upon the Turks, who had lodged themselves in a sinal Illand near their Camp, and had taken and brought away 200 Camels and other confiderable booty. That the Enemy do push on the Siege of Vienna with all the vigor they are able, That they fire upon the Town without intermission from feven Eatteries, that they have fprung feveral Mines, and made very fierce affaults upon the Counterfearp, but that they have been beaten off with great lofs. The French Troops are moving in their new Conquetts, whereof we know not as yet the occasion.

Brussels Aug. 24. Our Letters from Passaw of the 14th tell us, That Vienna was in a very good condition, and that the Enemy though they had made Izveral attacks, had not the Enemy though they had made leveral attacks, had not yet been able to gain any part of the Counterscarp; That the King of Poland, the Electors of Bavaria and Sazony, were marching in Person to the relief of Vienna; that these, as well as the Troops of the Circles, Commanded by Prince Waldeckes wild have joyned the Imperial Army, where the Emperor will be in Person by the 23 or 24. of this Month, that together they will make a Body of above 80000 fighting Men, and that they are refolved to come to a general Battle in cale the Turks do not before quit the Siege.

Marfeilles, August 13. Yesterday in the Evening arrived another Tartanesrom the Coast of Barbary; by which we have an account that Mooficur du Quesne has done great ex-ecution at Argit s with his Bombes, having, as they report, destroyed 1200 Houses, and a great number of People, with four of their Ships and two Galleys: That things are there in great disorder, that Medge Morto is for his security retired into the House of the Grand Signiors Basia; that the Son of Basia Hasian is marching towards Argiers at the head of 12000 Moors to reverge his Father's death, and that he has a confiderable Party in the Town, where the Commonalty are very infolent and ungovernable, and obstituate in their Refolution not to yield to Monsieur du Quesne's demands; That in their rage they have barbaroully murthered Father Vachier an old Millionary Priest who had resided there these 20 years to Redeem Captives, and having taken one of the French double Shalloops. in which there were 16 Men, they cue nine of them in pieces, of the other seven two being Officers, they saved for their Ransom, and the rest secured their Lives by turning Renegadoes.

Plimouth, August 14. On Sunday last arrived here His Majeflies Ship the St. David, Captain Rooke Commander, from Portfmouth.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Ne Samuel Kitchingman born in the City of Norwich, by Irade a Factor (in London) for Norwich Hole or by Irade a Factor (in London) for Norwich Hole or Stockings; he went into Iteland, and Ship'd himfelf there for the West-Indies about twelve years fince, and has not been since heard of. If any Merchant or others, can bring good proof to kdmond Goslin at the Maremaid in Jewing street, London, that the Laid Samuel Kutchingman is living, and where, or that he is dead, and where he died, he shall have 40.5, for his Reward.

STolen on the fifteenth of this Instant, from the Lady Sedword Sleys Lodgings, at one Mr. Walstears House at Southborow near Tunbridge-Wells, one large Silver Dish, two less Dishes, seventeen Silver Plates, with the Arms of the Lady Sedleys Family thereon, being a Fess Wavy between two Goats heads, two at the top and one at the bottom. Whoever gives notice of the said things, or any of them, shall be very well Rewarded.

whoever gives notice of the laid things, or any of them, that to be very well Rewarded.

So Moravia, and have made a great Defolation in the purpose of Lichtlenstein had with I is perial Troops, defeated 3000 of them, having upon the place, taken a great many, and report 1000 Priloners. That the Troops of the avaria were marched from Lintz to joyn the Important warrawere warrawere warrawere warrawere warrawere