

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday August 16. to Monday August 20. 1683.

Whitehall, August 19.

THe following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jurors, by a General Consent at the Assizes holden at Bury St. Edmunds the 27th of July 1683. for the County of Suffolk.

May it please Your Majesty,

TIS so natural and so reasonable for Great Joy to succeed Extraordinary Blessings, as having paid to Heaven the Humble Tribute of our Thanks; it must next present it self at your Majesties Feet. And here our Happiness and our Duty are so equally concern'd; as in the Celebration of that Mighty Blessing, the Deliverance of your Sacred Majesty, and His Royal Highness, our Joyes are all employ'd.

Had we not remembred the sad effects of brutish Zeal in the late times of Rebellion, and been too often reminded in these, that 'tis immortal, the Barbarity of such ingrateful men, as have entered into this last Conspiracy, might have appear'd as great a Wonder, as your Majesties Preservation; but to be forgiven or preferred, were never tyes strong enough to bind a false or rather true Phlanatick. And therefore 'tis no wonder, that they who proclaim themselves the Fountain of all Power on Earth, nay, allow none else a right to the Kingdom of Heaven, should think your Majesties Life and Dominions at their dispose. Pardon us therefore, Great Sir, that from hearts full of Duty and Care for your Safety, we presume to say, that the Ruine of your Sacred Majesty, the Church of England, and the Government established, is laid as deep as the Principles of their pretended Religion; Their Conventicles Preach the Doctrines, and having had too much Reason and Experience to doubt, that it hath been the misfortune of too many Corporations to promote its Patriots; We Humbly hope your Majesties Inspection will hinder them from being any longer the Receptacles of bad Men, or Engines to play Republican Zealots upon us, when your Majesty hath greatest occasion for the best of your Subjects.

Permit us, Sir, we beseech you, to renew the Engagements we have formerly made, to lay our Lives, and all we have, at stake in defence of your Sacred Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, the Religion and Government established; and to declare that we abominate that Horrid train of Consequences, the Bill of Exclusion, the late Horrid Association, the Ignominious Jury, and this Infamous Conspiracy against your Sacred Life, and your Royal Brother, with an Insurrection at the End.

May Heaven Preserve you long and Happy, against these and all other Machinations, that you may raise your Glory upon their Treachery, and your Security upon their Rebellion.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Principal Burgeses, Ministers, and other Free Burgeses of your Majesties ancient Borough and Corporation of Eye in the County of Suffolk, to which they have by unanimous Consent affixed their Seal.

OUR Dangers and our Deliverances having been too great for silent Rementments, We presume to lay at your Majesties Feet this Humble Representation of our Joy for the miraculous Preservation of your Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Brother from the Hellish Conspiracy of the most execrable Villains, whose numbers being one great Aggravation of their Crimes. It becomes now almost as necessary to Publish, as enjoy an Innocence. We therefore humbly beg, that by declaring our hatred of their Principles, we may distinguish our selves from the men, who by a long Series of Treachery and Rebellion, have transmitted to the World this undoubted Truth, That Monarchy and the Church of England, are inconsistent with their Systems of Polity and Religion.

It is from their Conventicles that this Poyson hath been diffused; from that Root sprung that Branch which bore the late Horrid Association, and in defence of it the Ignominious Jury. These, Sir, we detect, and against these and all other Traiterous Conspiracies whatsoever, we will with our Lives and Fortunes assist your Sacred Majesty, and Royal Brother, the Design of whose Joynt Destruction is the undeniable Conviction of all their False Arguments for your Separation, and lets us see how happy and invincible a Security you are to each other.

And because it is too often, and we fear too justly a reproach, that Corporations, amongst other things, are chargeable with part of our misfortunes, by throwing of, and contesting for men of Republican Principles. A Submission of Charters to your Majesties Resolution, is now become so necessary, that we fear it may create Suspicion upon those who desire it not. We therefore Humbly beg leave to Present your Sacred Majesty with the unanimous Resolution and desire of this Corporation, to lay our Charter at your Royal Feet, whenever it shall be your Pleasure to receive it. And Accept we beseech you, Sir, the Dedication of our selves and all we have, to the preserving your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, with the Religion and Government established.

May all the Crowds of thanks which are paid to Heaven for your Majesties Deliverance, return in Blessings on your Sacred Head, and all the Vows of Loyalty that on these Occasions throng your Imperial Throne, prove equally Glorious in their Terror and Fidelity.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury at the Assizes held at Warwick for your Majesties County of Warwick, this seventh day of August, in the Fifth and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

Great Sir,

That Almighty Power which has hitherto guarded your Royal Person in the worst of Times and greatest of Dangers, has now made it evident to all the World, that the hand of Providence is Particular in your Preservation, because you are, not only Gods Anointed, but the best of Kings. The Discovery of the late Horrid Conspiracy, contrived and carried on by Phanatical Rebels against your Sacred Person, and the Life of your Royal Brother, does manifestly declare, that as you are the Delight of our Eyes, and the Breath of our Nostrils, so you are the immediate care of Heaven; and we can never enough Adore and Praise that Infinite Mercy that has protected you and your Dearest Brother, from the Malicious Designs of your Cruel Enemies; and with such manifest Evidence and Demonstration, laid open the Damnable Intreagues of their Accursed Plot, that there is not the least occasion of Suspicion left to those that would seek it. We therefore in all sincerity beg leave solemnly to protest before God, your Majesty, and the World, that we do Detect, Abhor, and Abominate this late, and all other Traiterous Conspiracies and Associations whatever, formed against your Own, or the Life of your Eldest Brother; and that we