FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1828.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of October 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the thirtieth day of this instant October, to Thursday the eighteenth day of December next.

Commission in the 2d Regiment of Royal Surrey Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surrey.

George Oakley Sanders, Gent. to be Ensign. Dated 25th October 1828.

Whitehall, October 11, 1828.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Barton the younger, of Battle, in the county of Sussex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

St. Dunstan's Church, Fleet-Street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for taking down and rebuilding the parish church of St. Dunstan in the West, in the city of London, and for providing a new site for the burying-ground of the said parish; and for the improvement of the streets, ways, lanes, and avenues leading to and from the same church; and also for the purchase of such houses, buildings, and lands as may be requisite for effecting the above objects, or any of them; and for selling and disposing of such parts of the sites of the said present church and burying-ground as may not be wanted for the above purposes; and also for granting powers to impose rates or assessments on all houses, buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as well within the said parish as the adjoining liberty of the Rolls, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 4th day of November 1828.

White, Blake, and Houseman, Essex-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining a rail-way or rail-ways, or tram-road or tram-roads, with all necessary and proper works, engines, machinery, and conveniences, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, to commence at or near to a certain timber-yard, in the occupation of Messrs. Auber and Sayer, Timber-Merchants, situate in Union-street, in the parish of St. Mary Matfellow, otherwise Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex, and to terminate at or near to certain warehouses, yards, quays, wharfs, and premises, belonging to Sir Robert Wigram, Bart. and others, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, together with two several branches from out of the same rail-way or rail-ways, tram-road or tram-roads, the one to commence at or near the River Lea Cut, at or about St. Ann's-place, in the parish of St. Ann's, Limehouse, in the said county of Middlesex, and passing over and across the East India-road, and extending to and terminating at the West India Docks, in the parishes of All Saints, Poplar, and St. Ann's, Limehouse, in the said county of Middlesex, and the other to commence at or near to certain gardens or lands, situate in the parish of St. Leonard's, Bromley, in the said county of Middlesex, and terminating at the East India Docks, in the said parishes of St. Leonard's, Bromley, and All Saints, Poplar, in the said county of Middlesex, with warehouses, buildings, quays, wharfs, jetties, piers, and other places of deposit for loading, unloading, and depositing goods, wares, and merchandize; and also for making, constructing, and maintaining certain wet-docks, for the reception of vessels navigated by steam, or otherwise, and all other ships, boats, barges, and other vessels, with entrances, locks, basins, sewers, cuts, canals, wharfs, piers, bridges, warehouses, buildings, and other works at or near to certain lands called the Ozier Beds, in or near to the River Lea, in the hamlet of Plaistow, and in the parish of West Ham, and in the said county of Essex, and also in or near to, at, or upon certain lands, quays, and wharfs, situate in the parishes of St. Leonard's, Bromley, and All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, particularly for the loading and unloading the cargoes and passengers of vessels, navigated by steam, and for the loading and unloading the cargoes of coal, corn, fish, and other articles of merchandize; and for regulating the trade of the port of London; and also for the purposes last aforesaid, to change, divert, and vary the course of the said River Lea, by cutting through, over, or across the turnpike-road leading from London to Barking, in the county of Essex, at a place in the parish of West Ham, in the said county of Essex, near the Iron Bridge over the said River Lea, and through or over certain other lands, called the Ozier Beds, in the hamlet of Plaistow aforesaid. All which said rail-way or rail-ways, tram-road or tram-roads, branches, warehouses, buildings, docks, entrances, locks, basins, sewers, cuts, canals, wharfs, bridges, piers, jetties, warehouses, buildings, and other works, are intended to be made, constructed, or formed, or to go or pass in, to, or upon, along or through the parishes, hamlets, or places following, that is to say, the parish of St. Mary Matfellow, otherwise White-chapel, St. Dunstan Stebunheath, otherwise Stepney, the hamlet of Mile End Old Town, the hamlet of Ratcliffe, the parish of St. Ann's, Limehouse, the parish of All Saints, Poplar, the parish of St. Leonard's, Bromley, all in the county of Middlesex, and the parish of West Ham and the hamlet of Plaistow, in the county of Essex; and for raising and imposing tolls, rates, and duties, for defraying the expences of and maintaining the said several works.—Dated this 2d day of August, in the year of our Lord 1828.

Thomas Browne, Solicitor for the Bill.

49, Fenchurch-street, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter and amend the laws now in force for the nomination, choice and appointment of Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, Vestrymen, and other Parish Officers for the parish of St. Mary Stratford-Bow, in the county of Middlesex; and also to alter and amend the laws now in force for regulating the affairs of the said parish, and that it is intended to take power by the said Act for the better relief, maintenance and employment of the poor of the said parish, and for repairing the parish church, and paving, lighting, watching, watering, cleansing, regulating, repairing, widening, and otherwise improving the roads, ways, and other public passages and places within the said parish, and for removing and preventing nuisances, obstructions, encroachments, and annoyances within the said parish, and to raise money for the above purposes, by levying a rate or rates, assessment or assessments, upon the inhabitants of the said parish, or by some other means to be provided for by such Act, and for the appointment of trustees with proper and sufficient powers and authorities for carrying into execution the said Act.—Dated the 22d day of October 1828.

West and Morris, Solicitors for the Bill,
6, Crescent, Minorities.

St. James, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, to explain, amend, repeal, or consolidate the several Acts of Parliament following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King James the Second, intituled "An Act for erecting a new parish, to be called the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster;" also an Act passed in the twentieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to confirm an agreement made by the Rector and Vestrymen of the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster, for enlarging the church-yard of the said parish, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor, and for cleansing the streets, lanes and other passages and places, in the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster, and for enlarging the church-yard belonging to the said parish;" and also an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the second year of His present Majesty, for the better relief and employment of the poor of the parish of St. James, within the liberty of Westminster, and another Act of the first year of King James the Second, for erecting the said parish;" and in which said bill or bills provisions are intended to be made for increasing the number of Vestrymen of the said parish of St. James, Westminster; also for regulating the election or appointment, and continuance in office, of the Vestrymen of the said parish; also for regulating the election or appointment and continuance in office of Governors and Directors of the Poor of the said parish; also for the better conducting the proceedings of the vestry, and of the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the said parish; also for altering or repealing the existing rates, or making such other rates as may be deemed necessary for raising money for the repairs of the church, and for the relief of the poor, and for such other purposes as are authorised by the aforesaid Acts, or any or either of them; also for securing the due application of the pew rents, and of all moneys authorised to be raised or which may be receivable for the purposes aforesaid; also for keeping the accounts of the Churchwardens, and of the Vestry and Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish, respectively; and also for electing or appointing auditors of such accounts.

William à Beckett, Solicitor.

No. 7, Golden-square, October 18, 1828.

Imperial Gas Light and Coke Company, Office,
10, Coleman-Street, October 21, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of two several Acts, the one passed in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to establish an additional Company for lighting certain parts of the metropolis and parts adjacent with gas;" and the other passed in the fourth year of His said present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to establish an additional Company for lighting certain parts of the metropolis and parts adjacent with gas.'"

Alexander Henry, jun. Clerk of the Company.

Sewers, Middlesex, Tower Hamlets.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of the Commissioners of Sewers for the Tower Hamlets (excluding Saint Katharine's and Blackwall Marsh), in the county of Middlesex, to enable the said Commissioners to alter and amend the present sewers, drains, and other works, and to make new sewers, drains, outlets, and other necessary works and conveniences within the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners; to alter the mode of raising money by way of rates, and to enable them to compound for rates with certain landowners and others, and for raising money on the credit of the said rates; and for otherwise altering and amending the laws relating to sewers within the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners; and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 22d day of October 1828.

John W. Unwin, Clerk to the said Commissioners, Sewers-Office, Great Alic-street, Goodman's-fields.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enlarge, alter, and amend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish;" and also to enlarge, alter, and amend the powers and provisions of another Act, passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish;" for repairing the highways in the said parish, and cleansing the said part of the said parish; for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-close to Rosoman's-street, and from Rosoman's-street to St. John-street; and for building a chapel in the said parish;" and in which Bill provision is intended to be made to alter the mode of making, collecting, and receiving the present rates or duties now collected and received under and by virtue of the said Acts, or one of them.—Dated the 18th day of October 1828.

Geo. Selby, Solicitor, St. John-street-road, Clerkenwell.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application will be made to Parliament in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to apply, in the purchase and redemption of part of the land tax assessed and charged upon the district or division of Saint Clement Danes, Saint Mary-le-Strand, and precinct of the Savoy, part whereof is within the liberties of the city of Westminster, and other part thereof within the county of Middlesex, in proportion to the quotas so assessed and charged upon the said district or division, certain sums of stock and cash, now standing in the name and to the credit of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, in trust, in a cause entitled Ponten against Devon, and which have arisen from the surplus land tax raised within the said district or division, previous to the year 1794.—Dated this 25th day of October 1828.

John Collier, Clerk to the Land Tax Commissioners acting in and for the said district or division.

CONTRACT FOR AIRING STOVES.
