The Gentlemen to continue in black, full trimmed, and to wear coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 30th instant, the Court to go out of mourning.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to enlarge the powers and authorities given and granted to the Ratcliff Gas Light and Coke Company, in and by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for lighting with gas the several parishes of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, and Saint Paul, Shadwell, and certain parts of the parishes of Saint George, in the East, otherwise Saint George, Middlesex, and Saint John, of Wapping, and of the hamlets of Mile End Old Town and Ratcliff, in the county of Middlesex;" and for that purpose to repeal such of the provisions of the said Act as restrict the said Company from lighting or supplying with gas any parts or places without the limits in the said Act specified; and also to alter and amend the powers and provisions of such Act, any or either of them, and to authorise the said Company, by the same or some other name of incorporation, to light with gas the parish of Saint Katharine Cree, in the city of London; the parish of the Holy Trinity, Minorities, in the liberty of the Tower of London, in the county of Middlesex; the parish of Saint Botolph, Aldgate, in the city of London and county of Middlesex; and the several parishes of Saint Mary, Matfellow, otherwise Saint Mary, Whitechapel; Christchurch, Spitalfields; Saint Leonard, Shoreditch; Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green; Saint Dunstan, Stebonheath, otherwise Stepney; Saint George, in the East, otherwise Saint George, Middlesex; Saint John, of Wapping; Saint Paul, Shadwell; Saint Ann, Limehouse; All Saints, Poplar; Saint Mary, Stratford-le-Bow; the hamlets of Mile End Old Town, Mile End New Town, and Ratcliff; the precincts of Wellclose and Saint Katharine; and the several parts and places in, adjacent, or contiguous to the said several parishes, hamlets, and precincts, in the county of Middlesex; and for carrying the purposes aforesaid into effect, to grant to such Company all proper and necessary powers, privileges, and authorities; and also to authorise such Company to raise further capital for the purposes aforesaid.—Dated the 8th day of November 1828.

C. J. Smith, Solicitor, No. 2, King's Arms-yard, Coleman-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for the better and more effectual lighting with gas the several parishes of Saint Anne, Soho; Saint Clement Danes; Saint George, Hanover-square;

Saint James; Saint John; Saint Margaret; Saint Martin-in-the-fields; Saint Mary-le-Strand; and Saint Paul, Covent-garden; the several extra parochial places hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, Saint James's-palace; Privy-gardens; Whitehall; the close of the Collegiate church of Saint Peter, and the verge of the Palaces of Saint James's and Whitehall, in the city and liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex; the several parishes of Saint Andrew, Holborn, (above the Bars), and Saint George the Martyr; Clement Danes; Saint Giles-in-the-fields; and Saint George, Bloomsbury; Saint Pancras; Paddington, and Saint Mary-le-bone, including the district rectories of Saint Mary, All Souls, Christ Church, and Trinity, in Saint Mary-le-bone; the precinct of the Duchy of Lancaster, and the parochial precinct of Saint John-the-Baptist, in the Savoy; in the Holborn division of the hundred of Ossultone, in the county of Middlesex, the several parishes of Saint Luke, Chelsea; Chiswick; Fulham, and Kensington; and the chapelry of Hammersmith, in the Kensington division of the said hundred of Ossultone; the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, with Barnard's-inn, extra parochial; the parish of Bartholomew-the-Great; the parish and hospital of Saint Bartholomew-the-Less, and part of the parish of Saint Sepulchre, without Newgate, in the city of London, without the walls; the several extra parochial Inns of Court and Chancery hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, Furnival's-inn, Gray's-inn, and Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, and the several places adjacent and contiguous thereto; and for incorporating a joint stock company under the name and style of the West London Gas Light Company, and granting to them proper and effectual powers for that and other purposes relating thereto.—28th October 1828.

W. J. Cannon, Solicitor to the West London Gas Light Company, 18, Adam-street, Adelphi.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament at the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and obtain an Act, to authorise a company of subscribers to establish a market for the sale and purchase of oxen, cows, calves, sheep, pigs, horses, hay, and every other description of cattle or live stock and marketable commodities in the parishes of Saint Pancras and Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex; and also to establish another and similar market in the parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the county of Surrey; and that it is intended to take power by the said Act to demand, levy, and take reasonable and proper tolls, rates, or duties for and on all oxen, cows, calves, sheep, pigs, horses, hay, and every other marketable commodity exposed for sale in the said markets, or either of them; and that it is likewise intended to take power to erect, build, set up, and make all such stables, stalls, lofts, granaries, sheds, houses, pens, out-houses, slaughter-houses, and other buildings as may be needful or convenient; and that it is likewise intended to take power to make, dig, lay, cut, sink, and erect all necessary reservoirs, engines, pumps, drains, soughs, pipes, culverts, and water-courses, and to supply the same with water at all times, and to complete the drainage therefrom in such way as shall be thought necessary; and that it is likewise intended to take power to make, dig, cut, and form all necessary and convenient roads, paths, ways, and approaches to and from the said markets respectively; and that it is likewise intended to take power to purchase all such houses, lands, tenements, hereditaments, or premises as may be requisite or useful for the said markets respectively, in the said parishes respectively or elsewhere; and that it is likewise intended to take power to let for hire any part or parts of the said respective markets and premises, or to use the same by the said company of subscribers, or any of them, or their agents, for all lawful purposes; and that it is intended to take power to make bye-laws, if necessary, for the government and regulation of the said respective markets; and that by the said Act a joint stock company will be incorporated, by the name of the Metropolitan Market Company, with all other needful and necessary powers, provisions, and enactments.—And notice is hereby also given, that it will be proposed to be enacted in and by the said Act, that from and after a certain period from the passing thereof and the establishment of the said markets and completion of the said works, the market for cattle and other commodities, called West Smithfield, situate, lying, and being in the city of London, and parishes of Saint Bartholomew the Great, Saint Bartholomew the Less, and Saint Sepulchre within, or some or one of them, and in the Ward of Farringdon Without, shall cease and be abolished, and that no market of the description above mentioned shall be established, held, or erected, by any authority whatsoever, within a certain number of miles from a spot or place to be described by the said Act.—And notice is hereby also given, that powers and provisions are intended to be inserted in the said Act, enabling the said company to enter into such covenants, regulations, and agreements, and to do and perform all such matters and things as shall be requisite or expedient for building upon and otherwise converting the present site of the said cattle market, called West Smithfield, into a spacious and convenient market for dead meat, vegetables, or other commodities, in such manner and way as shall be considered most eligible for the benefit of the inhabitants of the metropolis.—November 6, 1828.

John Hare Welsh, Solicitor, No. 12, Regent-street, Pall-Mall.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session; for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining a rail-way or rail-ways, or tram-road or tram-roads, with all necessary and proper works, engines, machinery, and conveniences, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, to commence at or near to a certain timber-yard, in the occupation of Messrs. Auber and Sayer, Timber-Merchants, situate in Union-street, in the parish of St. Mary Matfellow, otherwise Whitechapel, in the county of Middlesex, and to terminate at or near to certain warehouses, yards, quays, wharfs, and premises, belonging to Sir Robert Wigram, Bart. and others, in the parish of All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, together with two several branches from out of the same rail-way or rail-ways, tram-road or tram-roads, the one to commence at or near the River Lea Cut, at or about St. Ann's-place, in the parish of St. Ann's, Limehouse, in the said county of Middlesex, and passing over and across the East India-road, and extending to and terminating at the West India Docks, in the parishes of All Saints, Poplar, and St. Ann's, Limehouse, in the said county of Middlesex, and the other to commence at or near to certain gardens or lands, situate in the parish of St. Leonard's, Bromley, in the said county of Middlesex, and terminating at the East India Docks, in the said parishes of St. Leonard's, Bromley, and All Saints, Poplar, in the said county of Middlesex, with warehouses, buildings, quays, wharfs, jetties, piers, and other places of deposit for loading, unloading, and depositing goods, wares, and merchandize; and also for making, constructing, and maintaining certain wet-docks, for the reception of vessels navigated by steam, or otherwise, and all other ships, boats, barges, and other vessels, with entrances, locks, basins, sewers, cuts, canals, wharfs, piers, bridges, warehouses, buildings, and other works at or near to certain lands called the Ozier Beds, in or near to the River Lea, in the hamlet of Plaistow, and in the parish of West Ham, and in the said county of Essex, and also in or near to, at, or upon certain lands, quays, and wharfs, situate in the parishes of St. Leonard's, Bromley, and All Saints, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, particularly for the loading and unloading the cargoes and passengers of vessels, navigated by steam, and for the loading and unloading the cargoes of coal, corn, fish, and other articles of merchandize, and for regulating the trade of the port of London; and also for the purposes last aforesaid, to change, divert, and vary the course of the said River Lea, by cutting through, over, or across the turnpike-road leading from London to Barking, in the county of Essex, at a place in the parish of West Ham, in the said county of Essex, near the Iron Bridge over the said River Lea, and through or over certain other lands, called the Ozier Beds, in the hamlet of Plaistow aforesaid. All which said rail-way or rail-ways, tram-road or tram-roads, branches, warehouses, buildings, docks, entrances, locks, basins, sewers, cuts, canals, wharfs, bridges, piers, jetties, warehouses, buildings, and other works, are intended to be made, constructed, or formed; or to go or pass in, to, or upon, along or through the parishes, hamlets, or places following, that is to say, the parish of St. Mary Matfellow, otherwise White-chapel, St. Dunstan Stebunheath, otherwise Stepney, the hamlet of Mile End Old Town, the hamlet of Ratcliffe, the parish of St. Ann's, Limehouse, the parish of All Saints, Poplar, the parish of St. Leonard's, Bromley, all in the county of Middlesex, and the parish of West Ham and the hamlet of Plaistow, in the county of Essex; and for raising and imposing tolls, rates, and duties, for defraying the expences of and maintaining the said several works.—Dated this 2d day of August, in the year of our Lord 1828.

Thomas Browne, Solicitor for the Bill.

49, Fenchurch-street, London.

Sewers, Middlesex, Tower Hamlets.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of the Commissioners of Sewers for the Tower Hamlets (excluding Saint Katharine's and Blackwall Marsh), in the county of Middlesex, to enable the said Commissioners to alter and amend the present sewers, drains, and other works, and to make new sewers, drains, outlets, and other necessary works and conveniences within the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners; to alter the mode of raising money by way of rates, and to enable them to compound for rates with certain landowners and others, and for raising money on the credit of the said rates; and for otherwise altering and amending the laws relating to sewers within the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners; and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 22d day of October 1828.

John W. Unwin, Clerk to the said Commissioners, Sewers-Office, Great Alie-street, Goodman's-fields.

SOUTHWARK STREET TOLLS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissioners for putting in execution an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein, will meet at the Vestry-hall of the parish of St. Olave, in Church-yard-passage, Tooley-street, in the said borough of Southwark, on Thursday the 27th day of November instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, to let upon a lease, for one, two, or three years, as shall be then agreed upon, from twelve o'clock at night of Saturday the 3d day of January next, the Sunday tolls of the Southwark pavements, arising and payable at the toll gate, near the King's Bench Prison, in St. George's-fields, near Stones'-end; at Newington-causeway; near the end of Kent-street; at the end of Long-lane; and at the New Road between Dockhead and Folly-bridge; which tolls have been let, for the last year, at a rent of £570, clear of all expences to the Commission; and whoever happens to be the best bidder, must, at the time of letting, pay down a deposit of £10 per cent. of the annual sum agreed upon, and at the time of executing the lease, make up that deposit one quarter's rent, which is always to be paid in advance, and give security to the satisfaction of the Commissioners for the performance of his part of the lease.

By order of the Commissioners,
George Ware, Abm. Cutto, Clerks.
