Lord Chamberlain's-Office, November 12, 1828.

The Lord Chamberlain has appointed the Reverend John Monson, Rector of Burton, by Lincoln, Chaplain in Ordinary to the King, in the room of the Honourable and Reverend Augustus George Legge, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of three several Acts, passed in the fourth, seventh, and the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His present Majesty, for the rebuilding of London-bridge, and for improving and making suitable approaches thereto; in which proposed Act it is intended to introduce powers to raise money for completing the bridge and approaches aforesaid, upon the credit of a continuation of the duties on coals at the port of London applicable to the Orphans Fund, for a limited time, after such duties would otherwise expire, or upon the credit of a new duty on coals at the port of London, for a limited time, after the said present duties applicable to the Orphans Fund shall cease and determine.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

Guildhall, London, October 28, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for enlarging the market for the sale of live cattle, now and heretofore held at Smithfield, in the parish of St. Sepulchre, in the city of London, for purchasing such houses, buildings, and land, in the parish of St. Sepulchre aforesaid, partly in the city of London, and partly in the county of Middlesex, the parishes of St. Bartholomew the Great, and St. Botolph, Aldersgate, in the city of London, and St. John, Clerkenwell, in the said county of Middlesex, or in any of the liberties or precincts thereof, or extra parochial places within or adjoining to any or either of the said parishes, as may be wanted for that purpose, and for the better regulation of the said market; in which Act it is intended to take power to raise money for effecting the aforesaid purposes upon the credit of an additional toll or tolls to be received or levied upon all cattle, horses, sheep, calves, pigs, and other live animals, also upon all hay and straw, and all other articles brought into the said market for sale.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

Guildhall, London, October 28, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament at the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and obtain an Act, to authorise a company of subscribers to establish a market for the sale and purchase of oxen, cows, calves, sheep, pigs, horses, hay, and every other description of cattle or live stock and marketable commodities in the parishes of Saint Pancras and Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex; and also to establish another and similar market in the parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the county of Surrey; and that it is intended to take power by the said Act to demand, levy, and take reasonable and proper tolls, rates, or duties for and on all oxen, cows, calves, sheep, pigs, horses, hay, and every other marketable commodity exposed for sale in the said markets, or either of them; and that it is likewise intended to take power to erect, build, set up, and make all such stables, stalls, lofts, granaries, sheds, houses, pens, out-houses, slaughter-houses, and other buildings as may be needful or convenient; and that it is likewise intended to take power to make, dig, lay, cut, sink, and erect all necessary reservoirs, engines, pumps, drains, soughs, pipes, culverts, and water-courses, and to supply the same with water at all times, and to complete the drainage therefrom in such way as shall be thought necessary; and that it is likewise intended to take power to make, dig, cut, and form all necessary and convenient roads, paths, ways, and approaches to and from the said markets respectively; and that it is likewise intended to take power to purchase all such houses, lands, tenements, hereditaments, or premises as may be requisite or useful for the said markets respectively, in the said parishes respectively or elsewhere; and that it is likewise intended to take power to let for hire any part or parts of the said respective markets and premises, or to use the same by the said company of subscribers, or any of them, or their agents, for all lawful purposes; and that it is intended to take power to make bye-laws, if necessary, for the government and regulation of the said respective markets; and that by the said Act a joint stock company will be incorporated, by the name of the Metropolitan Market Company, with all other needful and necessary powers, provisions, and enactments.—And notice is hereby also given, that it will be proposed to be enacted in and by the said Act, that from and after a certain period from the passing thereof and the establishment of the said markets and completion of the said works, the market for cattle and other commodities, called West Smithfield, situate, lying, and being in the city of London, and parishes of Saint Bartholomew the Great, Saint Bartholomew the Less, and Saint Sepulchre within, or some or one of them, and in the Ward of Farringdon Without, shall cease and be abolished, and that no market of the description above mentioned shall be established, held, or erected by any authority whatsoever, within a certain number of miles from a spot or place to be described by the said Act.—And notice is hereby also given, that powers and provisions are intended to be inserted in the said Act, enabling the said company to enter into such covenants, regulations, and agreements, and to do and perform all such matters and things as shall be requisite or expedient for building upon and otherwise converting the present site of the said cattle market, called West Smithfield, into a spacious and convenient market for dead meat, vegetables, or other commodities, in such manner and way as shall be considered most eligible for the benefit of the inhabitants of the metropolis.—November 6, 1828.

John Hare Welsh, Solicitor, No. 12, Regent-street, Pall-Mall.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 4th day of November 1828, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, cap. 27, intituled "An Act for raising an additional sum of money for carrying into execution several Acts for widening the entrance into the city of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street or passage at Snowhill, and for raising, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, certain sums of money for those purposes, and also for enlarging the powers of the said Acts;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;"

I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 4th day of May next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 4th day of May next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £100,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the forty-fourth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 4th day of May, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

One hundred and eighty-five bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 672 to 856, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, November 5, 1828.
