

and that such of his issue as shall succeed to the said devised estates, or rents and profits thereof, may, when and as they respectively become entitled thereto, take and use the surnames of Pitt-Rivers, and set and subscribe the same before any titles of honour to which they may succeed; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And further to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 2, 1828.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John James, of Wrington, in the county of Somerset, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 29, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Saturday the 22d, or on the morning of Sunday the 23d instant, three corn ricks, belonging to Mr. Christopher Good, and one hay rick, belonging to Mr. John White, then standing in Pimperne Field, near Blandford, in the county of Dorset, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the Bailiff of the borough of Blandford.

Whitehall, December 4, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of the 24th ultimo, Francis Thorne and Thomas Prideaux, two gamekeepers in the employ of Sir Arthur Chichester, Bart. of Youlston, in the county of Devon, being on the lands of the said Sir Arthur Chichester, at Sherwell, in the same county, looking out for poachers, discovered, about half past ten o'clock, two men with guns, and that on pursuing them, one of the men shot at Francis Thorne and wounded him severely, and that he now lies in a very dangerous state:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the said Francis Thorne) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by Sir Arthur Chichester to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 5, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, by the Justices of the Peace for the division of Witham, in the county of Essex, that there have been four fires in that neighbourhood within the last month; the first on the 5th ultimo, of a stack of hay at Witham, the property of James Catchpole; the second on the same night, of five stacks of corn and hay (two of which were totally destroyed, and the others considerably injured), the property of Mr. John Cramp; the third on the 29th ultimo, of three stacks of corn and hay at Witham, the property of Henry Barwell; and the fourth on the night of the 1st instant, in the adjoining parish of Rivenhall, of a barn, in the occupation of William Barker; which fires have been occasioned by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any person (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said property and premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.—Such reward to be paid by C. C. Western, Esq. M. P. of Felix-hall, in the county of Essex.
