*He following Addreffes having been prefented to His Majefty, His Majefty was pleafed to receive them very gracioully.

To the King's most Excellent. Majesty.

The humble Address of the Loyal Livery-Men, and others Inhabiting within Your City and Liberty of Westminster, Signed the 19th. day of July, in the Thirty fifth Tear of your Majellies Reign.

May it please Your Majesty,

Heave the preside four invalence of the second seco giance.

We (Dread Sir) on whom the immediate Influence of Your Gracious Favour has continually defcended, as in Duty bound, with all Humility profirate our felves at your Royal Peet, with Hearts full of Acknowledgment to your Omnipotent Preferver, and with them, our Hands, and the Refults of all we enjoy under your Merciful Scepter, which fhall be at all times ready, chearfully, and vigoroully to defend your Sa-cred Perfon, the lawful Succeflion of your Imperial Crown and Dignity, and the Government both in Church and State as it is now eftablish'd by Law. To the fedeferv'd Tenders of our beft Abilities to ferve your Majefty, we have nothing left to add, but our fervent Addrefs to the King of Kings, that he would multiply and adorn your Majefties Years with the durable love of your Friends, and abfolute Victory over your implacable Enemies; Your Gracious Favour has continually defcended, as in Duty

Friends, and abfolute Victory over your implacable Enemies; and when He fhall remove You from us (which late may it be) that he would exchange this your corruptible for an In-corruptible Diadem of Glory and Immortality amongit the bleffed Lovers of Mankind.

Which we fhall ever Pray, &c.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesties Justices of the Peace for the County of Bucks, and the Grand Fury at the General Quarter Selfions of your Peace beld at the Town of Buckingham, the Twelfth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Tear of Tour Majeflies Reign, &c.

SHEWETH,

THat the Obedience of us your Majellies molt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects to your Majellies Authority, our high Veneration of your Sacred Perfon, and our tender Regard for the Prefervation of your Majeffies Life. do make us Ab-hor thole Bloody Villaines who lately Confpired against your Majeffies most sacred Perion and Royal Brother James Duke of York, with a defign to Diffolve the prefent Government; and Interrupt the Lineal Succellion of the Crown.

That as we are Exceedingly afhamed and forry for the Car-fed Contrivance, fo are we transported with Joy for the hap-py Difcovery of fuch a Hellifh Defign, which we look upon to be a Scandal to our Religion, and an Indelible Reproach brought upon our whole Nation. In a due Seme whereof we fhall endeavor as much as in us who fhall attempt any thing againft your Majellies Sacred & Perfon and Government, or the Rightful Heirs and Succeffors, in the Crown. That if your Majefty fhall at any time need our Affiltance, we fhall be ready to ingage our Lives and Fortunes whenever your molt Sacred Majefty fhall fo defire the fame.

In the Interim we shall make it our earnest request to Heaven, That your Sacred Majelty may ever elcape all Se-cret Confpiracies, and Triumph over all open Oppofers, That God would give your Majelty the Hearts of your Subjects, and the Necks of your Fnemies, and a long and Profperous Reign in this World, and an Eternal Crown of Glory in the next.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Grand Inquest of the County of Southampton, at the Affizes held at the Caffle of Winton, on the 17. day of July 1683. Whereunto they humbly defire the Concurrence of the Lord Lieu-tenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and the Fuffices of the Peace of the faid County.

SHEWETH,

Hat we your Majelies molt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects do with thankful Hearts acknowledge the Divine Provia do with thankful Hearts acknowledge the Divine Provia-dence to be moth vifible in the late Prefervation of your Sa-cred Perfon, and his Royal Highnefs, from the bands of Blood-thirity and Cruel Men: And we cannot but with Hor-rour and great Aftonifhment behold the implacable Malice, bale Treachery, and foul Ingratitude of thofe faile Confpi-rators, who under the fpecious Name of True-Proteftants, defigned not only the Deftruction of that pureReligion as now by Law Eftablifhed, but likewife of your Royal Perfon, the Zeabous Defender of the truly Antient Catholick & Apoftolick Faith; The deep Senfe we all have of this Deteftable Com-fpiracy. hath excited us at this time, not only to express our Faith ; The deep Senfe we all have of this Detertable Con-fpiracy, hath excited us at this time, not only to express our Thankfulnefs to Almighty God, for the featonable difcovery, of this Hellifh Contrivance, but declare to all the World our readinefs to expose our Lives and Fortunes to the timolt danger, in the defence of your Royal Perfon, yout Heirs and lawful Succeffors; And that we will use ourbeft Endeavors to Detect all Affociations and Combinations whatfoever; and to Supprefs Conventicles, the very Nurferies of Sedition and Rebellion.

That the fame good Providence may full defend your Ma-jelly from all your implacable Enemies, and prolong your Days in Peace and Tranquility, fhall be the daily Prayer of

Your molt Obedient Subjects and Servants;

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Mayit pleafe your Majefty,

SHEWETH,

THat we your most Duriful and Loyal Subjects are deeply fersible of the great danger Your Majetties Royal Perfon and the Perfon of Your Royal Brother were lately in, by the premeduated Trayterous, Bloody, Horrid, and Hellita Confpiracy of divers Wicked and Rebellious Perfons, who under the Pretences of Religion, defigned the Murther not only of your Sacred Majelity, but allo of His Royal Highnefs, and many of Your Majellies molt Loyal Subjects; and the toral Subvertion and Extripation of Your Majellies Government both in Church and State, under which, with all thank-fulnels we acknowledge to enjoy our greatelt Happinels and Profiperity; That we defire always with thanks to Almighty God to Commemorate his great Mercy flewed to this Na-tion by the Happy and Wonderful Deliverances of Your Ma-jefty and His Royal Highnefs from the aforefaid Dangers. And according to our dury we do hereby give Your Majelty the higheit Allurances we can, that we prize and value the Prefervation and Safety of Your Majelty's Royal Perion above our own, that we are reloved to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majefty, Your Heirs and Succeffors, and of the now established Government in Church and State, against all the open and fecter Fnemies thereof. And that to the uttermost of our Powers, shall endcavour to Difcover and Defeat all Trayterous Confpiracies and Affociations what foever, which are or fhail be againft the fame dayly, and earnefly praying for Your Majetty's Long and Happy Reign over us; and for Your Succeis againft all the Enemies of Your Sacred Perfon and Government.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of Bucks.

SHEWETH,

That we Your Majefties Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being fully fatisfied of a Traiterous, Bloody, and Horrid Confpiracy against the unvaluable Lives of Your Sacred Ma-jesty and Dearest Brother James Duke of York, and tending to the Subversion of the Government both in Church and State, ferretly contrived by ill-affected and desperate Per-fons, some of whom are already Convicted, others, to avoid the stroke of Jultice, are either fled, or elfe have laid violent hands unon themselves. hands upon themfelves.

hands upon themfelves. In a due fenfe of the fignal Deliverance of Your Ma-jefty from this Trayterous and Bloody Confpiracy, we re-turn our unfeigned Thanks unto Almighty God, and as particularly in dury bound, do moth humbly beg Your Majefty to be Aflured, that we are ready to lay jown our Lives and Fornues in detence of Your Ro al Perfon, Your Heirs and Succeffors, and the prefent Government as it is established in Church and State, and ihall ever pray for Your Majetties long Life and Profperous Reign, and that Your Enemies may fail before You.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Addrefs of the Mayor, Recorder, Alder-men, and Grand Fury of the Town and County, of the Town of Nottingham, at their General Quarter-Seffions there held, the fixteenth day of July laft, on behalf of themfeives and the rest of the Burgesses, and others the Inhabitants.

Dread Soveraign,

When a source and being fully fatisfied of the molt horrid and Hellih Confpiracy of Wicked and Ungrateful Perfors, to Murder Your molt Sasred Majelty, and His Royal Highnefs (Your Dear Brother) and to Subvert the Laws and Government of Your Realms, and involve them in Blood and Confusion; makes us recollect and deeply fentible of the Mi-ferable Effects of the late unparallel'd Rebellion, the Execca-ble Murder of Your Sacred Father, the Subvertion of Laws and Government, and slife Tyranny then exercised upon Your People: And being now fully convinced that thefe deteftable Contrivances are now hatch'd and managed by like Monfters Contrivances are now hatch'd and managed by like Monfters of Men, whole Principles lead to the Extirpation of Mo-narchy (the moft Divine of Governments) gives us this oc-cafion to detelt and abhor that Dannable Doftrine by them by their Subjects.
