Lord Chamberlain's-Office, December 11, 1828.

ORDERS for the Court's going into mourning, on Sunday next the 14th instant, for Her late Majesty the Queen Dowager of Saxony, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen, white gloves, necklaces and ear-rings, black or white shoes, fans and tippets.

The Gentlemen to wear black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

The Court to change the mourning on Sunday the 28th instant, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets, or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuffs, with black ribbons.

The Gentlemen to wear black coats, and black or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuff waistcoats, full trimmed, coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 4th of January next, the Court to go out of mourning.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of October 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the thirtieth day of this instant October, to Thursday the eighteenth day of December next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the seventh of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, December 4, 1828.]

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of the 24th ultimo, Francis Thorne and Thomas Prideaux, two gamekeepers in the employ of Sir Arthur Chichester, Bart. of Youlston, in the county of Devon, being on the lands of the said Sir Arthur Chichester, at Sherwell, in the same county, looking out for poachers, discovered, about half past ten o'clock, two men with guns, and that on pursuing them, one of the men shot at Francis Thorne and wounded him severely, and that he now lies in a very dangerous state:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the said Francis Thorne) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by Sir Arthur Chichester to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 5, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, by the Justices of the Peace for the division of Witham, in the county of Essex, that there have been four fires in that neighbourhood within the last month; the first on the 5th ultimo, of a stack of hay at Witham, the property of James Catchpole; the second on the same night, of five stacks of corn and hay (two of which were totally destroyed, and the others considerably injured), the property of Mr. John Cramp; the third on the 29th ultimo, of three stacks of corn and hay at Witham, the property of Henry Barwell; and the fourth on the night of the 1st instant, in the adjoining parish of Rivenhall, of a barn, in the occupation of William Barker; which fires have been occasioned by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any person (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said property and premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.—Such reward to be paid by C. C. Western, Esq. M. P. of Felix-hall, in the county of Essex.

Whitehall, December 12, 1828.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the night of Wednesday the 19th of November last, an outrageous assault was committed near Constantine Church-town, in the parish of Constantine, in the county of Cornwall, upon the persons of two Officers of the Customs, while employed in their duty at the said place, in the prevention of smuggling, by a large party of smugglers, who were armed with pistols, bludgeons, and knives, and who violently assaulted the said Officers, and succeeded in rescuing a large quantity of spirits;

His Majesty, for the better discovering of the offenders concerned in the commission of this outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of them present at, and aiding in, such outrage (save and except those who actually assaulted and beat the said Officers), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

ROBERT PEEL.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid); the same to be paid by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the port of Falmouth, in the said county of Cornwall, on the conviction of the offenders, or any of them.

Admiralty-Office, December 4, 1828

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 12th of January next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate; for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraigns of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

Navy-Office, December 8, 1828.

MR. John Stock having devised to the President, Treasurer, and Governors of Christ's Hospital, London, a sum of money for the maintenance and education of two boys, the sons of Lieutenants in the Navy, under the following description, to be presented by the Comptroller of His Majesty's Navy, having been first chosen by a full Board of the Commissioners of the Navy, or at least five of them, viz.

"The boys to be between the age of seven and ten years, the sons of Lieutenants who have been killed by the public enemy or in the service, who had been at least four years in that situation, of approved courage and of good private character, to be born in wedlock of honest and respectable parents, to be free from lameness or disorders, and their mother a widow then in low circumstances;"

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that there is now a vacancy in the said school on their presentation, and that they are ready to receive applications from the parents or friends of boys entitled under this description and desirous of the benefit of this bequest, that they may be enabled to present a proper object for it, agreeably to Mr. Stock's will.

The application must be accompanied by a statement of the services of the father of the boy, a certificate of the marriage of the parents, and of the register of the baptism of the boy, and also the certificates of the good conduct of the father, if they can be procured.

B 2

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Joseph Babor, on Thursday the 18th day of December instant, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Hope and Anchor, Redcliff-Hill, Bristol (by order of the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against William Merrick the younger, of the City of Bristol, Carpenter, Builder, Dealer and Chapman), the following very desirable leasehold property, in lots, viz.:

Lot 1. A capital messuage or dwelling-house, with a large and convenient shop in front, situate on the best side of Redcliff-Hill, in the City of Bristol, and now in the occupation of the said William Merrick, held under the Feoffees of the church lands of St. Mary Redcliff, for the residue of a term of 99 years, created by an indenture of lease, bearing date the 29th day of September 1817, and determinable with the lives of three healthy persons, then respectively aged about 29, 11, and 8 years, at the yearly chief rent of 20s.

Lot 2. A capital messuage or dwelling-house, nearly adjoining the above, and now in the occupation of Mr. Dyke, Druggist, as tenant at will, at the yearly rent of £24, held under the said Feoffees for the residue of a term of 99 years, created by a lease, bearing date the 29th day of September 1817, and determinable with the lives of three healthy persons, then respectively aged about 31, 24, and 22 years, at the yearly chief rent of 20s.

Lot 3. A piece of ground, situate behind the above, at present thrown into and forming part of the carpenter's yard, now in the occupation of the said William Merrick.

This piece of ground is well adapted for building on.

Lot 4. Three messuages or tenements, situate behind the above premises, and adjoining the last lot, now in the several occupations of William Hippett, Richard Mutlow, and Henry Burgess, at the several yearly rents of £10. £9. and £9.

The last two lots are held under the said Feoffees, by virtue of a lease, dated the 25th day of March 1818, for the term of 99 years, determinable with the lives of three healthy persons, then respectively aged about 29, 11, and 8 years, at the yearly chief rent of £4, which will be apportioned at the time of sale.

These premises are most advantageous for business, being situate in one of the greatest thoroughfares in Bristol.

For a view of the respective lots, and for further particulars, apply to Henry Beddoe, Solicitor, No. 6, Exchange-Buildings, Bristol.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

THE COURT FOR RELIEF OF INSOLVENT DEBTORS.
