

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1828.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, Town Clerk, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, having been presented to the King, His Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, Town Clerk, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, Town Clerk, and other Inhabitants of the borough of New Windsor, most humbly and respectfully approach your Majesty, to renew to your Majesty the expression of those feelings of loyal satisfaction with which we hailed the first moment when the Castle of Windsor became the favoured place of your Royal Residence.

Since that period the restoration and improvement of that venerable and superb seat of a long line of British Monarchs, under the tasteful auspices of your Majesty (the enlightened Judge and magnanimous Patron of the Arts), have proceeded with a success, combining at once the grand and the beautiful, and exhibiting a splendour adapted to the illustrious Sovereign of these realms.

When we look up to the proud Keep and Castle of Windsor, the renowned residence of so many Kings, and now the favoured abode of your Majesty, we exultingly contemplate an object filled with the monuments of our ancient national glory, and now, under the renovated and improved form given to it by your Majesty, presenting the most beautiful combination of venerable grandeur, with modern art, as if the days of Cressy and Poitiers had been brought into unison with those of Trafalgar and Waterloo, and the march of time been made to harmonize with the victories and improvements of the present age.

We desire to assure your Majesty of the delight with which we witness your auspicious return within the walls of this splendid abode of royal magnificence, and to reiterate our loyal and earnest prayer, that your Majesty may long continue in the undisturbed enjoyment of every earthly blessing, of uninterrupted health, and the unceasing attachment of a free, loyal and united people.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the eighteenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said eighteenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fifth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fifth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their