By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the eighteenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said eighteenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fifth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fifth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fifth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this fifteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and in the ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the seventh of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Whitehall, December 13, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock on the morning of Thursday the 20th of November last, the dwelling-house of the Reverend William Warrington, of West Moalsey, in the county of Surrey, was broken into by several men; that a pistol was twice snapped at the head of Mr. Warrington; that he was knocked down by a blow from a poker, and received a severe blow on his hand; and, after having his hands and feet tied, was, with Mrs. Warrington and two female servants, put into a damp vault in the cellar; that the house was robbed of a quantity of plate, two watches, and some money; and that the stable was afterwards broken open, and a horse and phaeton stolen therefrom;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who offered violence to Mr. Warrington) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

Whitehall, December 13, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about six o'clock in the evening of the 5th of December instant, a haulm rick, the property of Mrs. Elizabeth Seabrooke, of Maulden, in the county of Bedford, standing in a field near the church, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons and consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—FIFTY POUNDS by Mr. Samuel May, of Amptill, in the county of Bedford, the Agent for the County Fire-Office; FIVE GUINEAS by the said Mrs. Seabrooke; and FIVE GUINEAS by Mr. Greene, the Treasurer and Solicitor of the Redbornstoke Association, at Amptill.

Whitehall, December 13, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Friday the 5th of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did feloniously and maliciously shoot and kill a valuable cart colt, lying in a field called Pan Furlong, in the parish of Maulden, in the county of Bedford, the property of Mr. Thomas William Overman, of the same parish;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually shot the said colt) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Fifty guineas of the said reward will be paid by Mr. Overman, and five guineas by Mr. Greene, Treasurer and Solicitor of the Redbornstoke Association, at Amptill; in the county of Bedford.

Whitehall, December 15, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the afternoon of Tuesday the 9th instant, between three and four o'clock, a large quantity of plate was stolen from the dwelling-house of His Excellency Prince Polignac, No. 50, Portland-place; which robbery was accomplished by means of breaking open the butler's pantry; and that implements of house breaking were left behind;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by His Excellency Prince Polignac to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 22, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Saturday the 6th, or early on the morning of Sunday the 7th instant, a daring burglary was committed on the premises of Mr. Henry Barrett, glover, of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, and upwards of one hundred dozen of gloves stolen from his counting-room;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the said Mr. Henry Barrett.

Whitehall, December 23, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about twelve o'clock on the night of Friday the 12th instant, the dwelling-house of Mrs. Seppings, of Swafeld, in the county of Norfolk, was feloniously and burglariously broken into by three men, having crape over their faces, and otherwise disguised, who stole and carried away several articles of plate;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Twenty pounds of such reward to be paid by the said Mrs. Seppings, and thirty pounds by Mr. Thomas Bidwell, of Swafeld.

Admiralty-Office, December 4, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 12th of January next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership carried on between us, David Clive and Horatio Redfern, of Birmingham in the County of Warwick, Gun-Makers, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.—All debts due and owing to and from the said Partnership concern will be received and paid by the said David Clive: As witness our hands this 17th day of December 1828.

David Clive.
Horatio Redfern.

NEXT OF KIN.

IF the Relations or Next of Kin of James Perdine, late of the Gore, Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, Tailor, deceased, will apply to George Maule, Esq. Solicitor for the Affairs of His Majesty's Treasury, either personally, or by letter (post paid), at No. 5, Stone-Buildings, Lincoln's-Inn, London, they may hear of something to their advantage.

DAVID FISHER'S ESTATE.

ALL persons having any claim against the estate of David Fisher, late Purser of the East India Merchant Ship David Scott (who died on board the said Ship about the 3d day of June 1826), are requested to deliver their accounts at my Office, No. 7, Corbet-Court, Gracechurch-Street, London, in order that the same may be examined previously to a division of the assets of the deceased.—Dated 19th December 1828.

THOMAS DITCHBURN, Solicitor to the Administrator.

DANIEL PALMER'S ESTATE.

WHEREAS Daniel Palmer, late of Park-Row, Greenwich, Kent, in England, Gentleman, died on the 4th of July 1828, and has by his will bequeathed a certain legacy to his natural son, John James Palmer, who was formerly in the service of Captain McIntosh, of the Madras Establishment; notice is hereby given, that unless he lay claim to the said legacy, within the space of four years from the testator's decease, personally or by letter to the Executors, Richard Slaughter, of East-Street, Greenwich, Edward Suter, No. 19, Cheapside, London, and Arthur Waller, of Maize-Hill, Greenwich; the said legacy will become void, and be disposed of immediately afterwards as the will of the testator directs.

THE Creditors of John Cuxson, late of Shiffnal, in the County of Salop, Solicitor, deceased, are requested to meet the Trustees of his estate and effects, at the Star Inn, in Shiffnal aforesaid, on Tuesday the 6th day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or taking any other proceedings, against certain persons, whose names will be stated at the said meeting, or against any other person or persons, for the recovering of any sum or sums of money appearing due to the said Trustees from such person or persons respectively; and also to consider and determine upon the means most advisable to be taken for the sale and conversion into money of the remainder of the real and personal estates and effects late of the said John Cuxson; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Trustees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing upon or settling the accounts above referred to, or any other account, matter, or thing relating to the said estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause wherein John Archer is plaintiff, and John Wise and others are defendants, with the approbation of the Honourable Robert Henley Eden, one of the Masters of the said Court, some time in the month of January 1829, of which due notice will be given;

A freehold estate, comprising a messuage or farm-house, and divers closes of arable, meadow, and pasture land, containing together about 76 acres, situate at Castle-Eaton, in the County of Wilts, in the occupation of Mr. Daniel Kibblewhite, as yearly tenant, at the yearly rent of £160.

This estate is distant five miles from Highworth, four from Fairford, four from Cricklade, and nine from Cirencester.
