By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the eighteenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said eighteenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fifth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fifth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fifth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this fifteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and in the ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the seventh of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, December 22, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Saturday the 6th, or early on the morning of Sunday the 7th instant, a burglary was committed on the premises of Mr. Henry Barrett, glover, of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, and upwards of one hundred dozen of gloves stolen from his counting-room;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid by the said Mr. Henry Barrett.

Whitehall, December 23, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about twelve o'clock on the night of Friday the 12th instant, the dwelling-house of Mrs. Seppings, of Swafeld, in the county of Norfolk, was feloniously and burglariously broken into by three men, having crape over their faces, and otherwise disguised, who stole and carried away several articles of plate;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Twenty pounds of such reward to be paid by the said Mrs. Seppings, and thirty pounds by Mr. Thomas Bidwell, of Swafeld.

Admiralty-Office, December 4, 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 12th of January next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to the Honourable the House of Commons in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for paving, watching, lighting, cleansing, and repairing the several streets, roads, ways, and passages in the town of Ryde, in the parish of Newchurch, in the Isle of Wight; and for establishing a market there. And notice is further given, that it is intended by the said Act to authorise the levying tolls, rates, dues, and duties for the purposes of the said Act.—Dated this 13th day of December 1828.

W. Hearn, Solicitor for George Player and John Lind, Esqrs.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Window, late of Craig's Court, Charing-Cross, in the City of Westminster, Army-Agent, Dealer and Chapman, may, on application and production of securities to the Assignees, at No. 29, Parliament-Street, Westminster, any Thursday, between the hours of Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, and One o'Clock in the Afternoon, receive the first dividend of 10d. in the pound.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against Thomas Andrews and Thomas Robert Andrews, of No. 23, Tavistock Place, in the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the County of Middlesex, (lately carrying on business as Coal-Merchants, under the firm of Thomas Andrews and Co.) are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Monday the 19th day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to consider a proposal made by the said Thomas Andrews, on behalf of his friends to purchase for them all the interest vested in the said Assignees under the said Commission, in the marriage settlement of the said Thomas Andrews, dated the 23d November 1797, and all the legacies, annuities and interest vested in the said Assignees under the will of the late William Andrews, of Bath, for the sum of £1,700, subject to the duty on the legacies of £200 mentioned in the said will, the said purchase money to be payable as soon as the legal assignment can be completed by the said Assignees in favour of the purchaser or purchasers to be nominated by the said Thomas Andrews; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees agreeing to the said proposal, and, in the event of dissenting from such proposal, then to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of either by public auction or private contract, and for ready money, or upon security, as to the said Assignees shall seem most beneficial, and buying in and reselling, from time to time, all the right, title, and interest of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, in and under the said marriage settlement and will (which will is dated the 7th of May 1828); and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, discontinuing or referring to arbitration, any action or suit at law or in equity, for the recovery or preservation of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; or to the compounding, releasing, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Jabez Henry Fisher, of the City of Exeter, Carver and Gilder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 19th day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the New London-Inn, in the City of Exeter, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's household furniture, stock in trade and effects, in one or more lot or lots, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by private contract, at a valuation or appraisal, or by public auction as the said Assignee shall think fit, and for ready money, or on credit, with or without security as he may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting or defending any action at law, or other proceedings for the recovery, protection or defence of the estate and effects of said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding with any debtor to the said Bankrupt's estate, or submitting to arbitration any action or other matter relating thereto; and also to empower the said Assignee to take such measures in the management and settlement of the said Bankrupt's estate, as he may deem necessary, and to pay and discharge out of the said Bankrupt's estate certain costs and expenses incurred in preparing an assignment of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, for the benefit of his Creditors, previous to his Bankruptcy, and of every thing incident thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 25th day of April 1821, awarded and issued forth against William Henry Bayly, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Banker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 19th day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Pruen, Griffiths, and Fruen, Solicitors, in Cheltenham aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from a proposal made by the said Bankrupt for the purchase of all interest to which he, the said Bankrupt, is now or may become entitled in right of his wife, or in his own right, under the wills of William Bayly and Joseph Bayly, deceased; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Mitchell, of White Lee, in Midgeley, in the Parish of Halifax, in the County of York, Worsted-Manufacturer, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 24th day of January next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Offices of Messrs. L. and E. N. Alexander, in Hopwood-Lane, in Halifax aforesaid, in order to ratify, allow, and confirm an arrangement lately made by the said Assignees with the Executors named and appointed in and by the last will and testament of George Holdsworth, late of Northwram, in the Parish of Halifax aforesaid, Stuff-Manufacturer, deceased, touching the selling and disposing of certain tenements and hereditaments, situate at or near New Hawksclough, in Wadsworth, in the Parish of Halifax aforesaid, which were granted by the Bankrupt unto the said George Holdsworth, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, by way of mortgage, for securing the principal sum of £250, and interest, the effect of which arrangement was that the said premises should be sold by auction, without reserve, by and in the name of the said Assignees, and that if the produce of such sale, after paying all such costs, charges, and expenses as might be incurred relative to such arrangement and sale, should be more than sufficient to pay and satisfy the said principal and interest, then the surplus should be added to the funds of the Bankrupt; but if there should be no surplus, then that the whole produce, after paying such costs, charges, and expenses, should be paid to the said Executors towards, and, in part satisfaction of, such mortgage debt; and also to authorise the said Assignees to execute any conveyance or release of the premises, pursuant to such arrangement.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Elizabeth Mumford, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Jeweller, Silversmith, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 18th day of January next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Thomas Hughes, Solicitor, No. 70, Castle-Street, Liverpool; to assent to or dissent from an account or accounts, which will be then shewn to them, of the said Assignee, relative to his receipts and disbursements connected with certain premises, in Liverpool, agreed at a former meeting to be sold to the said Bankrupt, and of which the said Assignee has had the management; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee agreeing to refer certain points in dispute, touching the said account or accounts, between the said Assignee and the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's estate and interest in certain leasehold premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying the accountant who heretofore has or hereafter may assist the said Assignee in the management of the affairs; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovering of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Moseley, of Camberwell, in the County of Surrey, Coal-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 17th day of January next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees giving up to the Bankrupt a certain part of his household furniture and effects; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising or arranging, in such manner as shall be then proposed, with a certain person, who will be then named, in respect to a claim made by him upon two houses, in Doddington-Grove, Kennington, belonging to the Bankrupt's estate; and to commence any action or suit at law or in equity respecting the said houses, or the deeds relating thereto, as shall then be proposed; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying certain expences incurred in respect to the Bankrupt's affairs, previous to the issuing of the Commission; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Ralph Walker, late of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Grocer, Tea-Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 24th day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Turf Hotel, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and carrying on certain actions at law, and suits in equity, against certain persons, to be named at the meeting, for the recovery of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees defending any action or actions at law, suit or suits in equity, or taking any other proceedings, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising, compounding, or submitting to arbitration any such actions or suits, in such manner as they the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling the outstanding debts due to the Bankrupt's estate, and any other property or effects of the said Bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, either by public auction or private contract, at such time or times, and for such price or prices, and either for cash or upon such credits as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing to certain persons such remuneration as they the said Assignees shall think fit, for collecting and getting in the outstanding debts and effects of the said Bankrupt; and on other special business.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Maddock and James Tweed, of Rosemary-Lane, and Darby-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Timber-Merchants, Cabinet-Makers, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 17th day of January next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up to, or for the benefit of, the Bankrupt Richard Maddock's wife, one half, or such other proportion as the said Assignees may be advised to be and consider proper, of the sum of £198 12s. about to be paid to the Assignees out of the Court of Chancery, as she, not having had any settlement made upon her marriage, would be entitled to a settlement of part of such money, on application to the Court of Chancery, it being a share bequeathed to her by her great uncle of the residue of his property; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Brunker, of Westbury, in the County of Wilts, Clothier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 17th day of January next, at Nine o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Angel Inn, in Westbury aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the household goods, furniture, fixtures, and effects late belonging to the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, or otherwise, as they may think proper, either to the said Bankrupt, or to any person or persons whomsoever as the said Assignees may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and allowing certain expences incurred by the Assignees, or their agent, in several journeys taken, and other matters done, on account of the affairs of the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the disposal, by public auction or private contract, as the Assignees may think proper, of all outstanding debts, claims, and demands due or belonging to the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compromising, or otherwise agreeing for, or taking goods in lieu of, or otherwise settling, any debt due to the estate, and to confirm or disallow any composition or settlement already made; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to their compromising, compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling such action or actions, suit or suits, or any other matter or thing relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the Creditors as they may think fit; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 24th day of December 1828, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by SAMUEL OSLER, of Helstone, in the County of Cornwall, Grocer, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

PURSUANT to an Order made by the Right Honourable John Singleton Lord Lyndhurst, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, for Enlarging the Time for William Norton, of Clayton, in the County of York, Fancy Woollen-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman (a Bankrupt), to surrender himself and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, for forty-nine days, to be computed from the 9th of January next; this is to give notice, that the Commissioners in the said Commission named and authorised, or the major part of them, intend to meet on the 27th of February next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at the George Inn, in Huddersfield, in the County of York; where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself, between the hours of Eleven and One o'Clock of the same day, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, and finish his examination; and the Creditors, who have not already proved their debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and with those who have proved their debts, assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate.
