

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday August 23. to Monday August 27. 1683.

Whitehall, August 26.

THe following Addressees having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Adress of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Militia Officers, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Grand-Jury Sworn at the General Assizes held for the County of Northampton.

S H E W E T H,

THAT the report of the late Hellish and accursed Conspiracy against the Life of your Sacred Majesty, and of His Royal Highness, your Dear and only Brother, struck the hearts of us your Majesties most humble and dutiful Subjects with astonishment and Horror to the highest degree, but receiving at the same time an assurance of your Majesties most providential Deliverance from the Rage and Malice of those Barbarous Miscreants, our amazement was turned into Joy, and we bless God with all our Souls for so signal an instance of his goodness to us in the Preservation of our most Gracious Sovereign, which we hope will be improved to the full establishment of your Majesties future Security and Comfort, the Faction having now sufficiently made it appear, that they are never to be gained either by Pardons or Benefits. Their Meetings made use of for the propagating of Seditious Doctrines, and encouraging of Rebellious Practices against the Government, and the whole Schism formed into one Conspiracy, abundantly evincing the absolute necessity of Suppressing all unlawful Assemblies and Meetings, and disarming all Seditious and disaffected Persons, in order to the Honor and Safety of your Majesty, and the Peace of your Dominions, wherein we do most humbly beseech your Majesties acceptance of our Services, with our Lives and Fortunes to defend your Majesties Royal Person, Brother, and Family, and the established Government of Church and State, against all Conspirators of what opinion or denomination soever, as we are bounden in duty so to do; and to pray that your Majesty may be perfectly happy here and hereafter.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Adress of Four Majesties Justices of the Peace of the County of Denbigh, present at the Quarter Sessions, held at Wrexham the tenth day of July 1683. subscribed by them and other Loyal Subjects of that County.

S H E W E T H,

THa being somewhat recovered from our Astonishment and Horror of the late Plot against your Majesty, your Royal Brother, and the established Government, We do with much Joy congratulate your Majesties Happy Deliverance and preservation; and thankfully adore our gracious God, that hath by His Mighty Arm made your whole Life a Series of His merciful Mercies, and we hope this last instance thereof will make the most obstinate of your Rebellious Subjects see, that they fight against Heaven, when they conspire against you, and will soon repent, and with us acknowledge and acquiesce in your Majesties most gracious and just Government.

In the mean time, we heartily beseech Almighty God, that now delivered you, that we resolve, and shall ever think it our indispensable duty to serve your Majesties Interest with a steady Loyalty, and with the expence of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, and the Government as it is now by Law established, against all Opposition whatsoever; in which Resolution we shall always abide, and daily pray for your Majesties Long and Happy Reign over us.

And, Dread Sir, we most humbly crave leave to assure your Majesty, that we resolve, and shall ever think it our indispensable duty to serve your Majesties Interest with a steady Loyalty, and with the expence of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, and the Government as it is now by Law established, against all Opposition whatsoever; in which Resolution we shall always abide, and daily pray for your Majesties Long and Happy Reign over us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Adress of Your Majesties Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Officers of the Militia of Your Majesties County of Oxon.

Dread Sir,

THough others have more early, yet none can more sincerely and heartily than our selves, Congratulate your Majesties and your Royal Brothers miraculous Deliverance out of the hands of your Blood thirsty Enemies, the Fanatics, and the full and clear Discovery your Majesty hath made of their Hellish and unparallel'd Conspiracy, whereby it appears, that they who took away the Life of your Blessed Father, and endeavours the ruine of your only Brother, aimed chiefly at the Destruction of your Sacred Person and Government; And that after all their specious Pretences of Religion, they are so far from being better than other Christians, that they are worse than some of the worst of Heathens, and Dissenters not only from ours, but also from all Religion and Morality; which Consideration we hope will beget in you an abhorrence of their Principles and Practices in the minds of all good men, that the name of Dissenters will become as odious in this Nation, as they have made us in others, and as they justly deserve to be in all the World: And we beseech your Majesty to accept our Lives and Fortunes to be disposed with those Arms you have been pleased to trust us withall, in defence of your Sacred Person and Government, your Heirs and Successors, against this and all other Traiterous Plots, Conspiracies, and Associations whatsoever. And that your Majesty may long Live and Triumph over all your Enemies, and your Throne be established in Peace, is the most hearty Prayer of your Majesties most Dutiful, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Adress of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand-Jury for the County of Huntingdon, at the Assizes holden at the Borough of Huntingdon, the one and twentieth day of July 1683.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

HAVING with all Joy and thankfulness Addressed our selves to Almighty God for his Providential Deliverance of your Sacred Majesty and Royal Brother, from the Trayterous Assassination of blood-thirsty men, inspired with a Phanatick Zeal of Seditious Conventicles; and promoted by the reviving Promises of some; and the ready Aid of old ambitious Rebels and Atheistical Persons. In a sincere Abhorrence of that wicked Design, the effects whereof would have inevitably produced the Ruine and Confusion of the whole Kingdom. We do here with Humility approach your Majesties presence,