

and that three barns, a stable, straw-house, cow-house, and other buildings, with two large stacks of corn, the property of Mr. Samuel Beddall, were totally destroyed. And whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that on the night of Monday the 5th, or morning of Tuesday the 6th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to the premises belonging to a farm called The Hole, in the parish of Finchingfield, in the said county, and that two barns, a stable, and other buildings, with eight stacks of corn, hay, and seed, the property of Mrs. Choate, were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, viz.: TWO HUNDRED and TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS by Mr. Walford, of Little Bardfield-Hall, in the county of Essex, for the discovery of the person or persons who set fire to the property of Mr. Samuel Beddall; and TWO HUNDRED and TEN POUNDS by Mr. William Pollet and Mr. Samuel Whitehead, Church Wardens of the parish of Finchingfield, in the said county, for the discovery of the person or persons who set fire to the property of Mrs. Choate.

Whitehall, January 22, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between five and six o'clock on the afternoon of Friday the 16th instant, two corn-stacks, the property of the Reverend Lewis Way, in the parish of Great Yeldham, in the county of Essex, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Reverend Lewis Way, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 26, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of one and two on the afternoon of Sunday the 4th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to the premises of Mr. Thomas Lowe, farmer, at Binton, near Stratford-upon-Avon, in the county of Warwick, and that a barn, containing a quantity of wheat, three large wheat ricks, and the stabling, were destroyed; and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that, on Saturday the 17th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to the premises of Mr. Salmon, at Teddington, near Stratford-upon-Avon, which destroyed the farming buildings and stock;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the County Fire-Office, the Birmingham Fire-Office, and the Stratford Association, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders in either of the above cases, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence or offences.—Such reward to be paid on application to J. Barber Beaumont, Esq. Managing Director of the County Fire-Office, Regent-street, London.

Navy-Office, January 21, 1829.

CHAPLAINS' BOUNTY.

MONEY being in the hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Bounty for the year 1828, to such Chaplains of the Royal Navy as are entitled thereto under His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date the 1st February 1765, 1st February 1784, and 22d October 1802, and who have been entered upon the list by virtue of the papers they have respectively transmitted to this Office; notice is hereby given, that the payment of the same will commence at the Pay-Office, Somerset-place, on Tuesday the 27th instant, at eleven o'clock in the morning. And it is desired that in future, the Chaplains entitled to the Bounty will, as soon as it may become due, cause their affidavits to be delivered into this Office, in order to expedite the payment.

J. W. Morton, Deputy Secretary.

Navy-Office, January 14, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 28th instant, at ten o'clock
